Let us keep in mind that this is our first issue and what we do from here on depends largely on our membership. If we work at having an interesting issue each month, then we will have just that. Not because of me, but because of you!!!! If we get interesting articles and information, then we will grow. If we please our advertisers we will get the needed ads to support ATCO. SO, LET'S ALL WORK TO HAVE ONE OF THE FINEST TOKEN PUBLICATIONS THAT CAN BE HAD!!!!

Your editor

EDITORS PAGE:

THIS IS OUR FIRST ISSUE AND I HOPE THAT IT IS A SUCCESS!!!!

Three things can hurt us and all are dependent upon the other! (1) Not getting membership support (2) not enlarging our membership each month (3) Paid advertisers not getting the results that they expect from their ads. One has to do with the other as you can see.

If we have membership support we will have interesting letters, articles, and other information that will keep a large membership.

So, we need those of you who will sit down and write a short article on a token or tokens. They can be in pencil - I'll rewrite them for you, but do it. You note several small articles on a token. This will keep membership interests!!!! Send a photo or rubbing (in black).

Next, if everyone will work to enlarge our membership. I have included additional membership forms with this issue. Let's all work to see how many new members we can get.

Which reminds me that Travis Roberts checked METCA's membership after the third issue when it began. Would you believe that they had 61 members and that our first issue will include more than ~~double~~ TRIPLE that amount?

And, if everyone works to get members we will get paid ads that will bring the results these advertisers want. We need these ads to help cover the cost of publication.

Now, some notes of interest:

(1) We will publish the membership list and directory of interests when we have reached 200 members. That could be the next issue if everyone works on memberships.

(2) Your membership number is to the right of your name on the address label. Please refer to it when writing as all names are filed by number rather than alphabetical order.

(3) Deadline for all ads: Paid or free ads ----- the 20th of month. Be sure that you get your ads in on time. Late rush ads cause deadline problems.

PAID ADS: Full page camera ready...$10.00 - $12.50 if we type
Half page camera ready...$ 5.00 - $ 6.25 if we type
FREE ADS ... 40 words each issue.

(4) We were not thinking when we said that we would have 12 issues each year. We will if you insist, but I would like a vacation so if we do not have to much objection I would like to combine July and August into one issue. I had no idea the hours upon hours that are required to edit ATCO.

(4) We had so many wishes of success and congratulations that it is impossible to print them all. Just wish to say, thanks!!!!!!

(5) If you have things that you would like to see in ATCO please let us know. We had dozens of letters and suggestions. In fact, so many that we could not list them all. All of them are good ideas but room in our publication will not allow the use of all of them.

I would like one page in each issue to be "Letters to the Editor". So, I will not publish any of those that we have received until everyone sees this issue and we will go from there. So, let's have the letters.

THE MAVERICK EDITOR:

Dear Fellow Members: Welcome to ATCO and to one of ATCO's Features, THE MAVERICK TOKEN COLUMN. This months selections, of course, contain no attributions but does list some tokens that need to be identified. Any light you can shed on any of these will be appreciated. Now, we need listings for the maverick section. Look thru your tokens and send us some listings for future columns.

A few words in regard to your listings. Send rubbings, descriptions, or photos. On the description, be sure to list the metal, size in mm, and shape.

If the description is given, then list the wording on each line as it appears on the token and end each line with a (/) mark. Also, tokens that bear more than a single bit of information are more likely to be identified. In other words, tokens that have a business name as well as a street address, or a business name and a proprietor's name, etc., are better prospects for attribution. Numbered tokens or tokens with just initials are extremely hard, if not impossible to identify. Send your listings and identifications to me:

R. B. (DICK) WORTHINGTON, 4216 WALKER, HOUSTON, TEXAS 77023

QUESTION AND ANSWER COLUMN EDITOR:

Got a question about a token (other than mavericks), want to know where to buy catalogs, etc., then send your questions to our Question and Answer editor.

Some of your questions will be answered by direct mail if you send along a SASE. Other questions will be answered in the editor's column.

If our editor cannot answer your question he will list it in his column so that some other person may be able to answer it.

Many of us have mystery tokens - write our editor.

ODD AND UNUSUAL TOKEN EDITOR:

Some of us have odd and unusual tokens that we would like to share with the membership.

If you have something in this area of interest send rubbings, descriptions or photos to our Odd and Unusual token editor.

CHARLES (CHUCK) LITTLEFIELD, 4841 HANNOVER AVE., ST. LOUIS, MO 63123

The success or failure of any venture depends upon the membership. If they participate, then you can be assured of a success, but if they sit back and wait for someone else to do it we will wind up with a publication that is full of ads and no interesting articles.

The fun of collecting tokens is not only in the personal pleasure of collecting and trading, but one very important thing is the knowledge we gain about tokens.

By sharing information we all gain in knowledge. The more knowledgeable we are the more we will enjoy collecting - SO, LET'S SHARE - SEND IN A SHORT ARTICLE OR SOME INFORMATION ABOUT A TOKEN OR TOKENS YOU HAVE!!!!

THE FOLLOWING TOKEN WAS SUBMITTED BY KENT D. JOHNSON, RT. 3 AT HUSCHER, CONCORDIA, KANSAS 66901 -

Kent felt that the token may be from the Canadian Northwest Territory and I had no idea. It is one of the most beautiful old tokens I've seen!!!

Talking on the phone to DAVID SCHENKMAN, who is a wealth of information it was quickly identified by David.

This is a Mexican Silver Mine Company - It was incorporated in Great Britain in 1885 with a capital of 52,000 pounds. In 1918 they had 26 Claims in the Alamos and several other districts of Mexico. They also had 7400 acres of ranch land.

And, another mystery has been solved!

AFTER WORKING ON THE ABOVE ARTICLE I REMEMBERED THAT I HAD ONE OF TWO KNOWN SOUTH DAKOTA GOLD AND SILVER MINE TOKENS. Anything in the way of trade tokens from the old gold and silver mines in South Dakota are rare!!!

THE GOLDEN CREST MINING COMPANY was located in 1876 by Fritz Webber, a graduate chemist and metallurgist from Heidelburg College in Germany. On the divide between Two Bit Creek and Strawberry Gulch, it lies two miles northwest of Galena, SD. By 1902 it was producing well with 256 acres of ground. Today, of course, it is a ghost mine as is the town of Galena.

NUMBER SEVEN SALOON by Travis Roberts

Pecos, Texas was established in 1881 on the Pecos River near Fort Davis. It was the center of the wild cattle-raising country and hangout for cowboys and fast draw gunmen.

Saloonery was a flourishing business in these early days.

W. W. Camp owned and operated the No. 7 Saloon about ½ block from the depot. The Number Eleven was down the street from his saloon.

The Steer was on the token for obvious reasons as this was cattle country and the "No 7" stamped on its side identified the piece as being from the No. 7 Saloon. This 12½ cent token was good for both drinks and gambling.

W.W. Camp/(Steer, No. 7 stamped on side) Pecos, Tex.

UNION, MINNESOTA .....FOUND!!!! By Calvin C. Woods - ATCO #37

In the August 1972 issue of The TAMS Journal our colleague, Ben Odesser searches for a place in his home State, Neillsville, Illinois. I hope that he has found his lost town, and ended his sleepless nights. I have shared his sense of frustration in my search for UNION, MINNESOTA!

It all started when I received in the mail a rubbing of a token from a collector which bore the inscription: F. Wanous/Union, Minn. The reverse carried the common inscription of being: Good For/50¢/In Trade. Having driven over much of Minnesota in search for tokens, my curiosity was piqued by the name of a place that I had not heard of before, and Union was new to me.

After searching all the roadmaps, atlasses and business directories at hand I still had not found Union. There was East Union, West Union, Union Hill, Union Lake and Union Springs in Minnesota, but no Union. The token was soon acquired through a trade and I went in ernest to find this elusive place; I called on the "Court of Last Resort," The Minnesota Historical Society. They generously searched their files which contained a very extensive list of forgotten places in Minnesota, and they also drew a blank.

The token was set aside for future research and things looked rather hopeless. Months later, I was busy compiling a list of old business places in Steele County for a friend and while perousing the business places in the Village of Blooming Prairie in my 1922 Polk's Directory I spyed the name of Frank Wanous. Could this have been any connection with F. Wanous of Union, Minnesota?

Then I noticed, after the listing, a note reading "5 Miles Northwest." This seemed like a clue well worth pursuing. The Village of Blooming Prairie lies in the Southeast corner of Blooming Prairie Township, so I searched my current Steel County map for any signs of a Union Northwest of Blooming Prairie. The map showed nothing! I went back to the Minnesota Historical Society, who has old county plats. They searched Blooming Prairie Township and in the Southwest corner of Section 16 they found that in 1915 (the date of the plat) a Frank Wanous was the proprietor of the "Union Store", apparently a country store across the road from the Union Creamery.

This looked like the real thing, but I needed verification of my find. This same lat gave the name of Frank's wife, Victoria, and a daughter, Mary. A trip to the Minneapolis Public Library produced a 1968 Steele County directory that listed a Mary Wanous. A letter to Mary Wanous struck pay-dirt. She was Frank's daughter, and she confirmed the existance of "UNION, MINNESOTA", and she remembered the tokens.

Her story is as follows: In 1871 Frank P. Wanous, at the age of 5 years, migrated with his parents from Czeckoslovakia to America. After spending a year in Baltimore, the family settled on a farm in Blooming Prairie Township, Steele County, Minnesota. In about 1898, at the outbreak of the war with Spain, he enlisted in the army and served with the 3rd Reg. of the U.S. Infantry.

After his discharge from the Army he worked for a time with his brother as a carpenter, and in 1900 he married Victoria Rysavy, a native of Steele County. Settling down to farm in Blooming Prairie Township, they found life very hard, and hoping to better their lot, they purchased a country store in 1906. The store, with adjacent living quarters, had been built in 1900 by William Jensen, who sold it to Frank Kubicek. Located across the road from the Union Creamery, it was soon referred to as the Union Creamery Store, or simply, the "Union Store", by the local farmers.

There never was a postoffice at this location, and the only other business was a feed mill located next to the creamery that ground feed for the local farmers.

In the early years of the Store's operation profits were modest and Victoria spent much of her time tending the store while Frank did carpentry work for the local farmers. The store sold grocerys, yard goods, men's work clothes, shoes and overshoes, some hardware, patient medicines, poultry feed, gasolene and kerosene, and many other items needed by the nearby farms. To help support the local economy and stimulate business, they purchased eggs from the farmers. When the farmer did not "trade out" the value of their eggs, he was given due bills (trade tokens) for the remainder. These due bills were issued in denominations of $1.00, 50¢, 25¢, 10¢ and 5¢, all were round aluminum. For nearly forty years these due bills played a part in the local economy being given out for eggs and redeemed for merchandise needed.

Every few days Frank hitched up his wagon and hauled a load of eggs to the rail station of Blooming Prairie or Bixby, where they were shipped to the big city. On his return trip he hauled the merchandise that had been rail-shipped to him by wholesalers. In the snow-blanketed Minnesota winters the wagon was replaced with a sleigh.

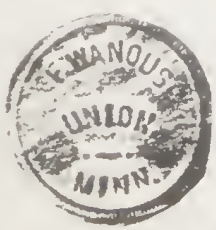

Mail for the Wanous' came by wagon on the rural route from the Blooming Prairie Postoffice and gasolene and kerosens was delivered from Owatonna by tank wagon and in the winter by tank sleigh. It was a twenty mile trip for the tanker.

In the late 1930's the method of egg marketing had so changed that the use of due bills was discontinued at the Union Store. No hoard of tokens is known, being evidently destroyed or lost some forty years ago. It is unlikely that a complete set will ever be assembled. I am familiar with the existance of only two other specimens, one being of 5¢ and the other unknown.

The Union Creamery Store was the only country store in Blooming Prairie Township. From 1906 until his death in 1946, Frank J. Wanous served this southern Minnesota farming area faithfully. In hard times at the depth of the great depression of the 1930's he extended much credit for necessities. Many of his farm customers lost their farms, but the people were honest and repaid him when they could.

The store remained in the family until 1949 when Victoria sold the business and retired. As late as January, 1972, the Union Store was still in operation.

Thus ends the tale of UNION, MINNESOTA, the little country store in southern, Steele County, Minnesota.

"SALOON KEEPER" by BINKY

We are probably all guilty and take for granted certain words that we find on our tokens. I know I'm guilty. Words such as Ltd., Inc., not transferable and Company Store appear on many of our tokens and there was a good reason for these words being there.

Another example is on our saloon tokens. When a person's name appears on the token I just assume they were the saloon keeper. Regardless of how the name was listed on the token i.e. Bill Smith, Bill Smith, Mgr, Bill Smith owner or Bill Smith, Prop., he was still the saloon keeper to me.

On this piece, Mr. Giachello didn't want any doubt as to his occupation so he had saloon keeper placed on the obv. side of his token.

TERRITORIALS, POST TRADERS & SALOONS

I'm a serious collector of Territorial tokens from Wyoming (W.T.), the Dakotas (D.T.), Montana (M.T.), Arizona (A.T.), Washington (W.T.) and most other Territorials ... except for Oklahoma. I will pay $200.00 and up for ANY Territorial token and into 4 figures ($1,000 plus) for the rarest of the rare.

Also wanted: Post Traders, Saloon tokens (including saloon "mavericks" ... send 'em on ... I'll pay good money for saloon mavericks), early classic style military tokens, and rare Alaska tokens - particularly the gold nugget tokens. I'm quite willing and able to pay TCP market price. Contact me.

I also avidly collect mavericks and will pay good prices for your accumulations of nice old mavericks ... one or hundreds of 'em. I'm not afraid to pay $5, $10 or much more for a maverick that has a nice style and appeals to me.

Note: I will also trade to obtain good tokens for those few of you that don't place any value on cash money.

FOR TRADE, BUT WILL NOT REFUSE CASH OFFERS - - -

I WILL TRADE FOR "HOUSE" TOKENS - - WITH TOWN AND STATE OR THEY CAN BE MAVERICKS.

These are not bawdy house, smoke house or opera house tokens, but simply hotels that preferred to use the name "house" rather than hotel. They can read as follows: FRANKLIN HOUSE, G.F. a drink at the bar or they can have a denomination. They can also include the cigar stand just so long as the name of the "house" is on the token.

So, if you have some mavericks or extras of "house" tokens, then let's trade.

Your Editor.

EDITOR'S PAGE - -

FIRST, we wish to thank all of you who wrote such beautiful letters of compliment on our first issue - you have really given us something to live up to - letters like that just make us work harder!!!

Well, we reached our 200 members and with this issue is the Membership list. There are no doubt mistakes and we will correct them on the master list if you will bring them to our attention. We should have a new one out in about three to four months. All new members will be listed in each issue of ATCO. So, you will be right up to date each month!!!

We wish to thank John Coffee, Jr. of the Fare Box for the nice write-up on ATCO.

Also, Krause Publications - NUMISMATIC NEWS for the nice write-up on ATCO. Numismatic News is now a regular advertiser of ATCO - we much appreciate it and you members can take advantage of a very good offer in their ad in this issue. They always have some good articles on tokens. What do you have to loose? CHECK THEIR AD!!!!

Our first issue will soon be a collector's item. We had only 225 issues printed and when they are gone, they are gone. We will publish about 250 copies of the March issue and again, when they are gone, they are gone!

While I repeat my self in another section of this issue I want to compliment those members who have sent us articles. Many of them have never written an article before. All of you can do it. You just need to quit thinking about it and do it!!! Our publication will grow as interest in what we do grows. Come on you guys and gals!

This is a short month so we have crash programs in effect to get the issue out on time. Some of you might not get your issue before the 2nd or 3rd of March - we are trying.

Also, in this issue we are placing our new application form. All of you know someone who has not joined - talk to them, or write them and send along the new application.

AND, AGAIN, let me remind you that when you send your free ads or paid ads to use your membership number (found at the right of your name on the address label). All ads from here on will bear the membership # so that easy access to the name on the membership list can be had.

If you have something you would like to get off your chest (sorry ladies) then write a "letter to the editor". Unless you use bad language it will be printed. I hate to use such things as follows to cover up those words #$$¢&*%$ - O.K.?

So, until next issue - unless something turns up at the last moment I'll say "Good Hunting".

One last comment before going to press (AM-2-22-82) - - -
There were not many free ads this month. This section is for you members USE IT!!!!

The ads that I have seen get the most successful answers are ads that run a particular token in trade for another token you can use. This type off offering attracts attention, especially when it is a rare token and generally from a state other than what you collect. Try it!

Let's continue to send in the good articles and FREE ads - O.K.?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Friend Bill - You certainly deliver! You said you would! I received my Vol. 1, No. 1 of ATCO today!

I must say that you have done a very outstanding job - a neat, well organized publication. CONGRATULATIONS!

You have taken on a monumental job, and you have my best wishes for much success with it.

I have forgotten the membership fee, so I am just going to enclose a blank check and you can fill in the amount, as I want to support your project, plus this may just motivate my interest in collecting again.

My health problems have really put a damper on even thinking about collecting.

I eat a lot of pain pills - and it is getting to the point where they don't help to much, since I had my back broken a couple of years ago - the rest of it has deteriorated from the stress, I guess.

At any rate I have faith and hopes that the doctors can keep me on my feet for sometime yet - if my money holds out long enough. I'm sure that you don't care to read my complaints - so -

I will try to give you some token input for ATCO - may not be real soon, but I'll get something rounded up, at the earliest possible time.

You might note that my penmanship has gone bad with everything else.

Kind Regards, Ford Knight (126 Takima Dr., Missoula, MT. 59801)

EDITOR'S NOTE: Ford is a very dear old trading friend from some 15 yrs. Those of you who might have some extra Montana trade tokens might send them on to Ford and maybe he can start a new collection. It would be good medicine for him.

I appreciate his, and others who have made kind comments about ATCO, however I am just the guy behind the typewriter that you have the most contact with - If it was not for the work of the directors ATCO would not be. They did an awful lot of work to get ATCO going.

EDITOR, A.T.C.O. Hi Bill:

BEST WISHES TO THE NEWLY FORMED ATCO!!!

Hope they can meet all the promises they make. We need an organization that can do that.

Thought it unfortunate, tho, that someone felt it necessary to make that comment about "A one man Show, etc." Most of us know that the "Man" works hard, and thanklessly to keep the "show" going. And on a very marginal budget, too.

"What we don't need" is any un-necessary animosity between members of the token collecting fraternity. It's a hobby! Remember?

Best Wishes! Glenn A. Rome

GHOST TOWN? Did you know that one of our members owns a ghost town? David Freed owns the ghost town of Iosepa (known as Joseph) Utah. It is in Tooele County. He needs a token from there. Anyone have one?

EXONUMIA PRICES ON THE RISE!!!!

By L. B. Fauver

Prices for better exonumia are definitely on the rise. While this trend is running counter to the U.S. coin market, which is currently in severe doldrums, anyone who has followed the prices realized in a number of exonumia auctions which have been held over the past year knows this generally to be the case.

Take for example, the recently concluded auction of the many rarities from the Forrest Dunham collection. Granted, many of the price records were set by territorials and rare Saloon tokens, but prices realized for many other types of trade tokens established new highs also. Or take the recent sale of the Buckley collection of early Canadian Tokens by Joseph Lepczyk. There too, a number of new highs were established, in some cases well over estimate. Or take the recent sale of American Store Cards by Bowers and Ruddy. Generally, prices for better pieces in high grade have more than doubled in this extensive series within the past year. As another example, prices for relatively common U.S. Civil War Tokens in XF and higher grade have also nearly doubled within the past year.

Prices realized from just one quarterly auction--that of the Civil War Token Society in the Copperhead Courier--reflect this trend. One notable exception to this rising trend in prices realized is certain soft spots in the Hard Times Token series, but this exception is largely due to the speculative bubble which the sale of the Garrett Collection of Hard Times tokens initiated.

To you, members of ATCO, these recent trends have several implications. First, you are very fortunate to have gotten in on the ground floor in the relatively early formation of your collection. Second, these rising prices at national auctions are attracting attention and we can expect that many collectors new to token collecting generally and some collectors new to the collecting of trade tokens will enter the market.

While rising prices will tend to bring some material out of the woodwork, it is anticipated that this new supply will be more than overwhelmed by the surge in new demand arising from new collectors coming into the market, especially into the auction market. Third, rising prices put a greater premium on the possession of accurate information regarding the rarity of tokens from certain states, from certain towns within specific states, from certain merchants from those towns, from certain types of businesses, and having certain compositions or odd denominations.

While the several lists of token rarity by town which have been put together cooperatively by collectors from a number of states are of great help in this regard, anyone who has been collecting trade tokens for at least several years knows that the knowledge of token rarities accumulated during that period is invaluable. Put another way, the old time collectors have a real knowledge edge, which has become much more valuable as prices have risen. Fourth, the incentive to counterfeit restrike, or produce fantasy trade tokens has also risen and we must all be more alert to any activity of this sort and pass the word along. Fifth, the incentive to persons who would rob us of our collections has also risen. While burglary of major collections is nothing new, we can expect an increase in this activity. One precaution which can be taken is to place all of your valuable pieces in a bank safe deposit box. Access can be a problem when this action is taken, but the reduced risk of loss can offer adequate compensation.

THE FREUNDS OF JOHNSBURG, MINNESOTA By Cal Woods

THREE GENERATIONS OF STOREKEEPING IN MINNESOTA - - -

In the early 1870s a family of pioneers moved from Johnsburg, Illinois to Mower County in Southern Minnesota. They settled about five miles south of the growing town of Adams, a rich farm country. Other settlers from Illinois had preceded them and these other older settlers had named this new settlement Germania. It was only half a mile from the Iowa border and on the Cedar River.

The First Generation - Peter Freund.

In 1875 Peter Freund, who had recently moved from Johnsburg, Illinois built the first place of business in Germania. It was a general store and saloon in one building. He promptly became Postmaster of this tiny community. No tokens are known from this store, but it is likely that Peter Freund used tokens both for the General Store and also the saloon.

In 1880 the community of Germania was renamed Johnsburg in honor of the town in Illinois which most of the settlers had lived prior to moving to Minnesota. Its initial population was 17 persons and many nearby farmers. Peter Freund was then the Postmaster of Johnsburg, along with his store and saloon. Peter's wife, Christina, helped him in his new venture, the only store in Johnsburg.

In 1885 Peter built a new building next to the existing one to accomodate a larger line of general merchandise, and the saloon remained in the old store. Peter and Christina sold groceries, overshoes, shoes, dry goods and many other items needed by the local farmers. Peter passed away in October of 1907. His two sons took over the operation of the general store and the saloon. They had tokens made, which read, Freund Bros., Johnsburg, Minn. These aluminum tokens were issued in denominations of 1¢, 5¢, 10¢, 25¢, 50¢ and $1.00. All were Octogon shaped and each a different size.

The Second Generation - Peter's Sons, The Freund Bros.

The Freund Bros, the sons of Peter and Christina operated the General Store and saloon from 1907. In 1914 the population had grown to 50, but there was still only one place of business in Johnsburg. In 1918 two events took place which had an effect on the store. Prohibition was declared, the saloon was closed for good. Also in 1918 one of the two brothers passed away. This left the remaining brother, John S. Freund to take over the business.

John had round aluminum tokens struck with his name, John S. Freund, Johnsburg, Minn. on each of the six denominations ranging from 1¢ to $1.00. The store tokens used by both the Freund Bros. and John S. Freund were used to purchase poultry and eggs from the local farmers. They were given to the farmers' wives who used them to purchase the groceries for the family.

In 1922 two more places of business opened in Johnsburg; a Feedmill and a repair garage. In 1933 the population in Johnsburg was 56. John S. Freund passed away in October of 1934 and his son and two daughters took over the operation of the general store.

The Third Generation - John S. Freund's Children

From 1934 until 1949 the three children operated the store together. In 1941 a blacksmith and auto repair shop was opened by William Weber. During this period some of the older type goods such as shoes and dry goods became very difficult to sell and drugs and hardware helped to take over this slow moving merchandise. Groceries remained an important part of the business. By the early 1940s egg and poultry buying, by other means, took over and the store discontinued this end of the business. No new tokens were struck by the children and the John S. Freund tokens were used by them until they were discontinued.

In 1949, the son, Isadore, and his wife Cathlene, took over the business and the two daughters of John S. Freund dropped out of the business. From 1949 Isadore and his wife operated the store until 1967 when Isadore's health failed and Cathlene (everyone called her Katie) could not handle it alone. An attempt was made to interest one of the Isadore sons to operate the business, but they all had good jobs of their own, away from Johnsburg, and did not want the business. So when Isadore passed away in 1968 the store was closed forever.

Katie had a final remark about the tokens left behind by the Freund Bros. and by John S. Freund. They were used in family card games. Katie was still living in the house adjoining the family store in 1972, and perhaps is still there?

So, three generations of Freunds served this little community for nearly 100 years - they will be long remembered by token collectors because of this story and the tokens that collectors possess!!!!

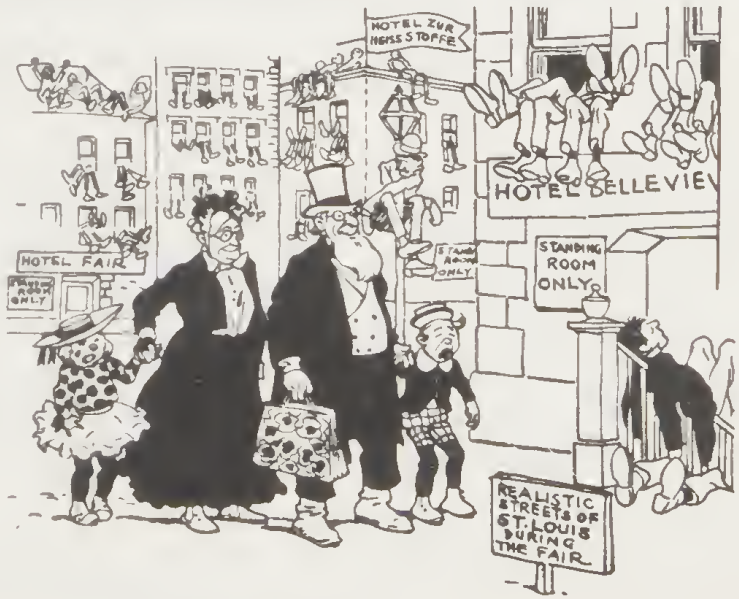

1904 St. Louis Fair

A SHORT HISTORY OF TOKENS ISSUED BY JACOB AND ADOLF RINCK GREENBLUFF, WASH. AND MEAD, WASH.

Jacob Rinck came to the United States from Germany in 1889 and homesteaded on 160 acres at Greenbluff, which is near Spokane, Washington. He soon built a log cabin on his claim. He named his place the Greenbluff Fruit and Vegetable Farm. He set out an orchard, planted strawberries, also raised hay and grain. In the year 1909 he built a permanent home on his claim.

One day, while Mrs. Rinck was out in the fields helping her husband put up hay, she had to stop what she was doing, in due time she gave birth to their son, William J. Rinck, under a pine tree in the hay field.

The Greenbluff Fruit and Vegetable Farm token was made of round aluminum, 23mm and good for 8 boxes. The "8 boxes" stood for 8 quarts of strawberries per strawberry carrier. Each time a picker had a full carrier, it was good for one token. At the end of each day the tokens were cashed in.

A cousin, Adolf Rinck, came from Germany in 1908 and purchased one half of the original homestead from Jacob. He continued to raise the same crops, but called his farm the North Star Fruit Farm. Adolf also had tokens made for his pickers. They were round aluminum, 23mm, good for 8 boxes. When Jacob and Adolf Rinck died in the 1917 flu epidemic, the use of the tokens was discontinued.

The original home is still owned by some of the Rinck descendants, who still live in the house.

Bad Girls .....Binky

Last evening our check was sixty-four dollars and the steaks were great, the ten dollar tip I didn't mind. This morning I remembered some notes I had made while researching Houston Saloons.

When Houston saloonery was at the height of its bloom, the free lunch was a custom observed by every important establishment. This was not a trick term, the designation meant just what it said. A full lunch was provided, by gift of the house, and saloons vied with each other in elaborating the menus.

The Lawlor Hotel Bar had a famous cuisine of this order. The bounty was often amazing, and drew more trade than a rodeo in Pecos, Texas. What its table afforded came free to the customer who had been or was on his way to the bar. What he frequently found was a feast that included succulent cuts of roast beef, ham, turkey or chicken; hard boiled eggs, three or four vegetables, hot french bread, and maybe a tart or a cheese danish. If the diner furnished himself with a 12½¢ drink, the establishment felt repaid for its gesture of good will. If he failed to do so.....

The point here is that for the ten dollar tip, I could have had 80 drinks and 80 meals - times have changed.

I know this little story didn't have anything to do with "bad girls" but if you have read this far, the caption served its purpose.

ODD "GOOD FORS"

Boyd's Cigar Stores-----a tri-state maverick? by Lee Bowker Atco #111

Around Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska, the "Boyd's Cigar Store" tokens are considered as quite common. However, there are a number of new varieties which have recently come to light & some apparently rare ones.

Hopefully, a little background history on the Boyd's tokens will be of interest to those of you not familiar with them & there may even be something here for the local collector.

On April 15, 1907, H.N. Boyd opened his wholesale cigar & candy warehouse at 316 W. 15th. St. in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

His first retail store is listed in the Cheyenne business directory for 1911 & '12. Business was good so before long he opened two more retail stores in Cheyenne. In the early 1920's he opened two more stores, both at about the same time. One in Greeley, Colo. & the other in Sidney, Nebr. Then in the late '20's & early '30's he opened two more stores. One more in Cheyenne & one in Ft. Collins, Colo.

With so many stores to watch over he gave them numbers. Including the wholesale house and the accounting office, there were nine stores.

Stores #1, #2, #3, #4, #6, & #9, were all in Cheyenne. Store #5, was in Sidney & operated until the late 1950's or early '60's. It was the only one of the Boyd's establishments to serve liquor. Store #7, was in Greeley, Colo. & operated until 1930. I have not been able to find where the store in Fort Collins, Colo. was numbered but have to believe it was #8. It operated from 1927 until approx. 1935.

In 1931, W. H. McInerney, a Cheyenne native, bought controlling interest in the Company & became president & general manager. The name remained the same, "H. N. Boyd Co." until its dissolvement in 1974. At that time it was only a wholesale house as the retail stores had been sold several years earlier.

The Boyd's tokens were issued only in Cheyenne but could be redeemed in the Colo. & Nebr. stores. The tokens were issued in the normal manner plus the were used in the dice game of "26", which was played frequently in the Boyd's stores.

It is not known when the Boyd's tokens were first used in Cheyenne or the Colo. stores but Mr. Harry Marsh who was president of Nebr. operations & manager of the store in Sidney states "they were first used in Sidney in 1921." Boyd's was a successful business for over 50 years & according to Mr. McInerney in 1957 the Co. was the oldest tobacco distributor in the Rocky mountain area. I am sure the tokens were used for many of these years.

I have 28 different denominations & die varieties in my collection. It is obvious from many tokens I have examined that the 25¢ tokens were the most popular & used the most.

Listed below are descriptions of the Boyd's tokens in my collection. Anyone having any that I do not list, and I am sure that there are some somewhere, please contact me.

This article brings up an interesting question. Some collectors would consider this as strictly a Wyo. token because Boyd's was headquartered there & the tokens were only issued there. However, having been redeemable in Colo. & Nebr. also, I personally believe that these tokens have all the qualifications of being a tri-state maverick.

"'CHICKEN' AND THE TUCSON TOKEN" by Bob Temarantz #57

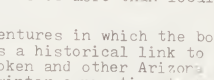

The well known novel, "Chicken Every Sunday", written by Rosemary Taylor, accounts of her life in Tucson and her father Mose Drachman, in her mother's Tucson, Arizona boarding house.

Mose and Ethel Drachman came to Tucson from Phoenix in 1904. Mose was active in Tucson's business community, and his activities became the backdrop for a number of comic episodes in "Chicken" and Riding the Rainbow".

One of Mose's business adventures was a cigar stand in downtown Tucson during the late 1900s. He issued a 22mm Klinkner style aluminum token for his cigar stand which at this time is the only known token to survive Mose's Tucson Cigar Stand.

This 12½¢ token, good for one cigar, should be of more than local interest.

The token, from one of Mose's business adventures in which the book "Chicken Every Sunday" is based, represents a historical link to one of America's greats in literature. This token and other Arizona tokens, will be displayed in the ANA's midwinter convention to be held in Tucson during February, 1983!!!

MAJOR ERROR TOKENS by John Calhoun

Back a few years we used to hear a great deal about major coin errors and some of the prices that these errors brought and I have often wondered whether there are major error token collectors.

I thought it worthwhile to share the two that I have with all our readers.

Maybe there are others who have major error tokens and maybe there are those who collect them.

If there are collectors of the error tokens - - THESE ARE FOR TRADE!!!

BELLO, TEXAS - A SHORT LIVED RAILROAD TOWN by JAMES E. KATTNER

Located about 75 miles southeast of San Antonio, Texas is the county of DeWitt. This county was formed in the year that Texas achieved Statehood in 1846. Early Settlement of this area was led by German Immigrants, whose population was to dominate the county well before 1900. The county seat was moved four times and was finally established at Cuero in 1876. Construction of a branch of the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railroad to Cuero as a terminus soon brought properity to the area.

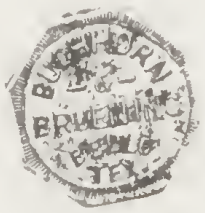

It was 33 years later, in 1906, that the Texas and New Orleans Railroad extended the line westward across the county toward San Antonio. On the extreme western edge of the county, a tent city was erected to serve as temporary quarters for the railroad construction gangs. This community became another small town along the railroad line and was named Bello by the railroad men. This name was used until postal authorities began to complain of its causing confusion with another town, Bells, Texas. To avoid further mis-delivery of mail the Town's name was changed from Bello to Westhoff in 1909.

The token illustrated was issued during the brief three-year period in which the town's name was yet Bello. This is an aluminum piece which measures 25mm. It is somewhat unusual in that a Roman numeral "V" was used to denote the trade value.

One W. C. Buchhorn had earlier established a saloon in Lindenau in the center of DeWitt County along this same T&NO Railroad line. As the line was extended westward he evidently was engaged in a partnership with a sceond business formed at Bello. This enterprise most likely also being a saloon.

It is furthermore known that by 1910, after the town changed its name, Buchhorn was involved in a new partnership - this one being the Buchhorn and Gloor Saloon in Westhoff. His business likely was abruptly ended though, when most of Westhoff burned to the ground in 1913. The town never fully recovered from this disaster, and Westhoff remains as only a small community today.

I NEED OLD COLORADO AND WYOMING BUSINESS DIRECTORIES!!!!

J. MERLIN BONDHUS 1044 S. TAFT HILL ROAD FT. COLLINS, CO 80521

TERRITORIALS, POST TRADERS & SALOONS

I'm a serious collector of Territorial tokens from Wyoming (W.T.), the Dakotas (D.T.), Montana (M.T.), Arizona (A.T.), Washington (W.T.) and most other Territorials ... except for Oklahoma. I will pay $200.00 and up for ANY Territorial token and into 4 figures ($1,000 plus) for the rarest of the rare.

Also wanted: Post Traders, Saloon tokens (including saloon "mavericks" ... send 'em on ... I'll pay good money for saloon mavericks), early classic style military tokens, and rare Alaska tokens - particularly the gold nugget tokens. I'm quite willing and able to pay TOP market price. Contact me.

I also avidly collect mavericks and will pay good prices for your accumulations of nice old mavericks ... one or hundreds of 'em. I'm not afraid to pay $5, $10 or much more for a maverick that has a nice style and appeals to me.

Note: I will also trade to obtain good tokens for those few of you that don't place any value on cash money.

EDITOR'S PAGE ---

As you can see from the new members section in the back of this issue, we are still growing and we will continue to grow as long as the members continue to put into ATCO!!! This means good short articles!!! Again, you can see that we have some GOOD short articles and again by members who have never written such articles before.

You won't ever know how good you are until you have tried. I won't let you look bad, I promise!!!!

The February issue of ATCO are gone. There will be no more. We have a few copies of the March issue and membership lists for new members who join now!

Also, new members can join now for $2.25 for the balance of the period to and to include the Janusary 1983 issue.

One member asked why I had so many ads in the March issue. When we go to press we must have four full sheets to make ATCO come out so we can staple them together, so I use the extra spaces for ads. Also, I plan to run at least three full pages each issue. So, if you see extra ads by your editor - they are space fillers.

CAMEL [illegible] 1-6 ..... By BINKY

Having a slow month, I decided to take a couple days off and hunt tokens.

I drove over to Kansas City and started hitting the antique shops. When I stop at an antique shop I usually ask to see what they have in old ash trays. Not finding what I want in ash trays, I start to brouse. I never just walk in and ask if they have tokens, this runs the price up.

As I broused in one of the shops, I noticed a token in one of the show cases. I asked the little lady what kind of coin she has there and she was quick to inform me it was a token. I asked to see the piece and as she handed it to me she informed me it was worth a "dime" because it didn't have a name of a town on it. She then told me if the token had the town name on it, a local collector would pay her "one dollar" each for the ones he needed. I thought to myself, these K.C. prices are great!

I didn't find many tokens on this trip but I will never forget the look on that little lady's face when I gave her ten dollars for the token she said was worth a dime.

QUESTION - - - - - - FOR OUR QUESTION AND ANSWER EDITOR!!!

WHAT EXACTLY ARE CARD ROOM TOKENS AND WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THEM AND WHAT WOULD BE REFERRED TO AS GAMBLING TOKENS?????

THIRD ANNUAL NEVADA TOKEN COLLECTORS MEETING - - - IN CONJUNCTION WITH LAS VEGAS ANTIQUE BOTTLE SHOW AND SALE - -
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA - APRIL 17-18, 1982 - FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CALL:

BILL WRIGHT - 220 S. BRUCE - LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89101 (Phone 702/384-2127)

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill:

Congratulations - both to you and the U.S. Post Office; to you for putting ATCO together in a timely fashion and the PO for quick delivery. Here it is 7:30AM, February 26th and already I have my March issue. Would that my other token "journals" would arrive on time on a published schedule.

The first two issues of ATCO have been excellent, and I wish you success as Editor, however the ultimate success lies with the members. Of course you can only print what you get, but what you get must be actively persued. Collectors need a constant prodding; they tend to get so involved with adding to their collections that they forget that what they get out of the publication depends on what collectors put into it.

My main interests lie in Ohio exonumia and in maverick tokens, and while I always enjoy adding to my collection, how much more interesting it is when I add to the knowledge connected with pieces I have in my collection.

If it is a maverick, what a thrill it is to finally attribute a maverick which has been bugging me for years. When it turns out to be from Ohio I have added to my collection; if not from Ohio it becomes a trader for some Ohio piece that I need.

Either way I'm a winner!!!!

In conclusion, if we members want ATCO to succeed we must put into it more than just paying the annual dues. Second, ATCO must continue to arrive once a month, on TIME!!! Eleven times a year is like once a month.

With these two ingredients the soup has to be good and we'll keep coming back for refills.

Best Regards, Sam Ruggeri

(Editor's note: Thanks Sam)

DEAR BILL: I'd like to see you and other token collectors use Commemorative stamps on their mail to each other. It costs nothing extra and I, for one, either trade mine or give them to the Church for Charity. How about it?

Best, Gerald Oswald #58

QUESTION AND ANSWER COLUMN EDITOR:

Dear Bill - The reason that I have not sent in anything for the Question and Answer Column is that I have not heard from any of the collectors. Do you think that it may be because you made a mistake in my address in the Membership list?

DAVID E. SCHENKMAN, P.O. BOX 375, BRYANS ROAD, MD 20616

Editor's Note: So sorry. David's Correct address is above. He is an expert on Store Cards, Civil War Store Cards, etc., why not give him a try and see if you can stump him?

UNEARTHED TOKENS by Wade Renstrom

In the summer of 1974 I purchased my first metal detector. After spending many hours digging up bottle caps, foil and a few shallow coins, I began to see some positive results in the form of deeper older coins. I became more proficient and graduated to a better dectector. I started to amass an impressive collection of valuable old coins, gold and silver rings and miscellaneous relics and collectables. In my spare time I spent many pleasure filled hours searching old parks, school grounds and private yards across the central part of Minnesota.

Along with toy cars, silverware, thimbles, dog licenses and lead soldiers I had thrown in a five gallon bucket, it began to accumulate a growing number of tokens. My interest in these curious aluminum and brass chips grew. I started to research them. I traded a few, bought a few, sold a few, but continued to exhume them from the ground.

I became aware that a large percentage of the tokens I was finding were sought by other collectors because I was penetrating a time zone of soil with my metal detector to unearth tokens lost and forgotten to modern recollection and availability.

I now have a modest but unique collection of tokens from well over 200 different Minnesota towns. Although the majority were acquired from trades, about a quarter ofthem resulted from the use of a metal detector.

My most valuable token is from Jennie, Minnesota. This small town of Meeker County ceased to exist shortly after the turn of the century. As far as I know it is the only known token from that town.

I've had my best luck token hunting in private yards. I would theorize that children were given tokens to play with after the business changed hands and they were no longer redeemable.

Many tokens originated far from where I found them. I found a token from the Family Theatre in Mather, PA under the sod of an old yard in Annandale, Minnesota. One can only speculate. Perhaps a traveler with no hopes of returning discarded it.

It could be of some merit to use the metal detector community as a source of rare tokens, or try treasure hunting yourself. Next time you see some one detecting an old park or playground ask them about tokens. You may hit paydirt.

Editor's Note: After reading this article I have a great desire to dig out the old detector and buy some new batteries. I have heard from many that some of the rarest old tokens come into collectors hands through this source!!!!!

TAXI!!!! by CALVIN WOODS

Among the many sub-specialties of exonumia collecting, one of the more obscure is that of charge cards. We have all run across some of them in odd boxes of flea market dealers, and we have passed some of them by because we simply did not know what they were. Many are oval or squarish, if not all, are holed at one end or the other to go on a key chain. The most obscure have simply a serial number and a monogram or a twisted pair of fancy letters. Others will have the name of a retail store.

Before the time of the Charge-a-plate and the Visa card large stores issued these charge cards to customers who had accounts with them. When a charge purchase was made, the customer showed the charge card and just signed his or her name. The charge card was the customer's identification to show that he or she had charge privileges. In the author's Minnesota token collection are a number of these charge cards, most of which being from department stores. Some years ago the author found an unusual charge card with the name of a taxicab company inscribed on it. It was not until recently that any research was done on it. It reads as follows:

Obverse: TWIN CITY TAXICAB CO.
MPLS N.W. NIC. 128
PHONES T.S. ANNEX 128
St. Paul N.W. CEDAR 1111
Phones T.S. 1111

Reverse: SHOW DRIVER THIS TAG.
SIGN TICKET YOURSELF.
Pat. Feb 12 07. Whitehead & Hoag Co., Newark, N.J.

The card is 21x36mm oval in white metal with a link chain fastened to one end for keys.

Local directories show this cab company in business in 1910, but in 1915 they changed their name to Twin City Taxicab and Transfer Company. It is uncertain if the patent date of February 12, 1907 refers to this card, or to cards of this style. So, best information at hand places this taxicab company as operating in the period from 1910 to 1915.

This card was most likely issued to fight competition. My 1915 telephone book lists ten taxicab companies on the streets of Minneapolis and St. Paul. Directories further disclose one company that advertised "Weddings and funerals a specialty." The sight of ten taxicabs following a hearse must have been both saddening and amusing to the street corner observer.

For those interested in telephone exonumia, both Minneapolis and St. Paul had two telephone companies in the teen years. N.W. was for Northwestern Telephone Exchange company and T.S. was for Tri-State Telephone Company. Most retail businesses had to have "both phones" to stay in business.

It would be interesting and informative to learn if any other collector has a taxicab charge card from some other city.

THE COON CHICKEN INNS By STEPHEN F. ALPERT

During the 1920s and 1930 there was a chain of restaurants called the "Coon Chicken Inn" with food that was "Deliciously Different" They were located in Portland, Oregon; Seattle, Washington and Salt Lake City, UT.

The white metal token was used in trade in these Inns. If anyone can expand on this group of Inns please let me know or write an article for ATO

THOSE EXASPERATING TOKENS THAT DRIVE YOU UP A WALL! By Your Editor

I have many beautiful old and beautifully styled mavericks with the name of a business and the Props. name and they bother me because I can't put them in the town and state that they belong in, but there is nothing that will bother me more than to find a nice old maverick with a business name or Props. name and a town name that is old enough that you feel you can go right to an atlas and put it in the state that it belongs in. NOT SO!

Here are two examples. They have bothered me for years. I keep them in a book that I do not look in often because they get my dander up every time I see them. I'm sure that others have such tokens.

I should have sent these into our maverick editor for listing but due to the nature of these GRRRRRR mavericks I thought I would list them. Maybe those that have such tokens should get listings into our maverick editor under a separate heading - "THOSE EXASPERATING TOWN MAVERICKS" HUH?

MORE ABOUT THE SAFETY OF OUR COLLECTIONS By Michael Pfefforkorn

The first issue of ATCO carried the notice of the theft of a major token collection. Inflation has made our collections vulnerable by increasing acquisition costs and making it profitable to steal. While there is no real solution for the former, there are some things that can be done for the latter.

Speaking from experience, I can tell you that one cannot really replace a stolen or destroyed collection. Any sizeable collection should be stored in safety deposit boxes, preferably with portions in separate locations. There should also be some type of system within the token collecting/research fraternity to discourage theft.

I suggest a reward fund be established and maintained by ATCO to aid recovery of lost collections. Such a fund could be financed by an annual assessment of as little as $5.00 per member. A trust fund would, of course, have to be established as well as guidelines for dispersal of funds.

As the ATCO board is aware, massive research-quality collections often take half a lifetime to create. Destruction of these collections also destroys the historical value that tokens have when they are placed in their proper context.

I would like to see some other comments with regard to the above suggestions.

UNUSUAL TOKEN by Charles Littlefield

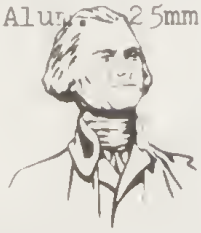

Fred Geitz started in the dry goods business about 1878 at 418 N. 7th St. in downtown St. Louis. He opened another store with his son at 308 N. 7th St. and was listed as gents furnishings in 1899. His other son joined the business in 1900. Mr. Geitz closed the store at 308 N. 7th St. and started a new store at 3755 S. Jefferson Ave., in 1911. The new store was located in South St. Louis. The Store was listed as Fred Geitz & Sons. I know they were still there in 1914.

Mr. Geitz was a merchant who operated his business downtown and also lived there. He lived at 1606 Cass Avenue in 1880. Later this area was known as "Kerry Patch" and most of St. Louis well known hoodlums frequented the saloons there.

The Paradox of Quitobaquito and it's Tokens
By Bob Temarantz

The desert. Appearing empty, void of life at first impressions. Its baked horizens. Cactus, mesquite and rock suddenly broken up by the shadows etched on the Aqua Dulce Mountains. To many persons, the sun parched stillness of this area also seems sterile of time and events.

However, a paradox exists in this part of the desert. In the extreme south central part of Pima County, Arizona, within the Organ Pipe Cactus National Monument, exists an obscure oasis buried in it's ancient past.

This is a story of a paradox called Quitobaquito and it's tokens of Quitobaquito. Quitobaquito sporadically existed during its lifetime thanks to the Quitobaquito Springs located in the middle of the dry Sonoran Desert.

It's springs were first recorded in history by the Spanish Colonialists during the late 16th century. Father Eusebio Kino, founder of the great Spanish Missions of Arizona and Sonora, Mexico, frequently stopped at Quitobaquito to replentish his water supply at the spring fed Quitobaquito Pond. From this point, Father Kino continued his journey on the Devil's Highway to discover that California wasn't an island. Quitobaquito was the only spring available along the the Devil's Highway which stretched from Altar, Sonora, Mexico to present Yuma, Arizona. The 49ers blazed the same road and stopped at Quitobaquito as they headed to the rich gold fields of California. Many 49ers never reached those fields as survivers reported deaths from the lack of water and the severe heat, thus giving the old trail its ominous title. Quitobaquito again was occupied as a network spy center by union forces during the civil war, spying on travelers suspected as being confederate sympathizers.

For the tokens of Quitobaquito, the paradox continues. Manuel Levi, a merchant from Eastern Texas, opened a trading post in the 1890s at Quitobaquito. Officially, Quitobaquito had a listed population of one. But Levi's trading post served the now non-existant Tribe of the Sand Papagos. No tokens from Levi's Trading Post were known to exist until 1963 when his abandoned adobe building was bulldozed by National Park Officials. Two tokens were found in denominations of 25 centavos and a peso. Recently, I found an unlisted denomination, the first Quitobaquito token to surface in 19 years. This 31 mm aluminum token is the now only token from Quitobaquito as the first two are presumably lost. which is reason why my discovery has created an uproar in Arizona.

QUITOBAQUITO, (ARIZONA)- En-La- Tienda-De-Quitovaquita/Vale Cincuenta Centavos, 50 cts (translated: In the Store of Quitovaquita/value 50 cents)

These tokens were issued in spanish to serve the spanish speaking Sand Papago Indians. Few tokens from Arizona are in spanish which contributes to its rarity.

Having been interested in the old Ingle System mavericks for sometime, I recently began the "Ingle System Mavericks" Clearing House. My interest in these mavericks concerns only the Ingle System pieces, and not those having "Insurance Credit System", or "Ingle-Schierloh Co." reverses. I am working on a listing of all such pieces that have been attributed, and hopefully all will be included in a future publication.

Although attributing a previously unattributed piece is always a pleasure, this effort is concentrated on assembling a list of those pieces which are already attributed. For example I know of about 50 pieces which are attributed to Indiana. I'm sure there are collectors in most states that know of pieces attributed to their state but which are unknown to most collectors in the other 49 states. With the cooperation of interested collectors this listing can become a most valuable tool in our hobby.

I have screened the catalogs of the following states and have a sizable listing of attributed pieces. Florida, Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, Oklahoma, Virginia, Montana, Illinois, California, Wisconsin, Texas, S.Carolina, Utah and Idaho as well as the Coal and Lumber catalogs and the TAMS maverick listing, and all have helped a great deal toward this effort. However most states still do not have a catalog, so many, many more attributed pieces should be reported.

If you know of any attributed Ingle System mavericks other than those listed in the above publications, I would certainly appreciate having your information. If you know of a piece, but are not sure if it is in a catalog or not, I urge you to list it to me.

Also, if you will list your unattributed pieces to me, I will check my listing and advise you of any that are already attributed. In the case of those that are not on the attributed list, I will file them in an unattributed file with your name and address also on the card and as any becomes attributed, I will advise the owner.

There will always be many Ingle System tokens that will never be attributed, but with the cooperation of collectors nationwide, making a concentrated effort to combine our knowledge, a catalog of such pieces can be put together that will benifit collectors for years to come.

I urge you to list your Ingle System pieces to me today. A complete description is not necessary. Just give the name as it appears on the token, along with the denomination and the date, either 1909, 1914, or undated. You will be doing the hobby a great service. TERRITORIALS, POST TRADERS & SALOONS

I'm a serious collector of Territorial tokens from Wyoming (W.T.), the Dakotas (D.T.), Montana (M.T.), Arizona (A.T.), Washington (W.T.) and most other Territorials... except for Oklahoma. I will pay $200.00 and up for ANY Territorial token and into 4 figures ($1,000 plus) FOR THE RAREST OF THE RARE!!!

Also wanted: Post Traders, Saloon tokens (including saloon "mavericks" ... send 'em on... I'll pay good money for saloon mavericks, early classic style military tokens, and rare Alaska tokens - particularly the gold nugget tokens. I'm quite willing to and able to pay TOP MARKET PRICE. Contact me.

I also avidly collect mavericks and will pay good prices for your accumulations of nice old mavericks...one or hundreds of 'em. I'm not afraid to pay $5, $10 or much more for a maverick that has a nice style and appeals to me.

NOTE: I will also trade to obtain good tokens for those few of you that don't place any value on cash money.

ALAN V. WEINBERG....23321 Aetna St. ... Woodland Hills, CALIFORNIA 91367

HALF PAGE CAMERA READY..$ 5.00
IF WE TYPE .....$ 6.50

REMEMBER: DEADLINE FOR ALL ADS IS THE 20TH OF THE MONTH.

ARTICLES: YOU FELLOWS ARE DOING GREAT BUT WE NEED MORE ARTICLES. LET'S KEEP ATCO INFORMATIVE AS WELL AS A PLACE TO TRADE, BUY AND SELL TOKENS.

EDITOR'S PAGE:

THIS MONTH OUR MAY ISSUE SHOULD BE GOOD QUALITY WISE. I've made every effort to get the quality of our publication up to where it will be the number one publication. Heck, if we don't strive to be the best we will never be the best!!!

When sending ads for publication please use regular 8½" x 11" sheets. THE CAMERA DOES THE REDUCTION!!!! Please make sure that you leave a margin of at least 3/4 of an inch all the way around. Otherwise it is hard for the printer to center the ads and articles so that we do have the quality we strive for. Make sure that you have a fairly new ribbon so that your print is dark. If you have an electric typewritter then try and buy black carbon ribbon. Carbon ribbon makes sharp, black copy. O.K.?

I wish to thank all our editors but especially Dick Worthington. Next to my job, his is the toughest. YOU HAVE MY THANKS, DICK, AND I'M SURE ALL THE REST OF THE MEMBERS APPRECIATE WHAT YOU ARE DOING!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

One of our new members asked that we list the Directors as he did not get the February issue - - we are out of the February issue----SORRY!

They are:

David E. Schenkman, P.O. Box 375, Bryans Road, MD 20616
Charles Littlefield, 4841 Hannover Avenue, St. Louis, MO 63123
Travis Roberts, P.O. Box 1168, Bellaire, Texas 77401
Steven C. Tureen, P.O. Box 981, La Quinta, CA 92253
Glen I. Jorde, P.O. Box 48, Devils Lake, ND 58301
Richard McFerran, 6001 29th Place N., Crystal, MN 55422
Garry Young, P.O. Box 143, Loup City, NB 68853
Merlin Bondhus, 1044 S. Taft Hill Rd., Ft. Collins, CO 80521
Robert Ambrose, P.O. Box 696, Camas, WA 98607

THESE ARE THE FELLOWS THAT MADE ATCO POSSIBLE. They are listed for a purpose. You may not like something your editor does or want changes in the way he does things. I, as editor, might not like what you suggest and might just drop your letter in the round file. (HA). In other words, you have someone else to go to with complaints, besides just the editor, or associate editors.

We do print letters to the Editor, so if you don't have anything bad to say, maybe you have something good to say about ATCO. We'll always accept a pat on the back. Many of you have said very kind things about ATCO - - We appreciate it, but remember, we are only as good as the membership. When we stop getting good articles and paid ads, then we are on the downhill turn. Let's keep things going up!!! THANK YOU!!!

THE DEN By Ford Knight

I recently obtained a beautiful old token as follows:
REBATE CHECK/2½¢/THE DEN/
W. A. SCHABEL/PROP./
GOLDFIELD, NEVADA/
Rev: BUST OF WASHINGTON
The 1908 Directory shows both The Den, a Saloon and Schabel as the owner. He does not appear in the 1912 and 1914 directory. Thought you Nevada Collectors would be interested in knowing of this.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Bill, I am interested in knowing why Binky, whoever he or she is, would get such a thrill from paying $10.00 for a token priced 10¢. . . if this was not intended to be a bit of satire then it represents a pretty gross example of why the token market is going crazy and you can bet that those "K.C. prices" won't be "great" very much longer. . . or any place else, for that matter. Is Binky a dealer? Regards, Jim Shannon #66

Editor's Note: O.K. Binky, let's see you answer this one.

LETTER TO THE QUESTION AND ANSWER EDITOR: By Lee Bowker ATCO #111

Back in 1972 I was told that the following token was questionable: LITTLE CASINO/SALOON/HOT SPRINGS/ARK./G.F. 5¢ IN TRADE. IS IT A SUSPECT TOKEN??

CAN SOMEONE SHED SOME LIGHT ON THIS TOKEN FOR ME AS TO AUTHENTICITY???

LOUIS CUSSLER AND HIS BISMARCK SALOON By Cal Woods

A couple of years ago a trader friend sent me a Minneapolis saloon token that was very unusual. It is an aluminum, round token of about 25mm. The obverse reads as follows:

L. Cussler/2½/119/Washington Ave.N.

There is certainly nothing unusual about the obverse, except that the "2½" is usually seen on the reverse on Minneapolis Saloon tokens.

But on flipping it over we find a portrait of a stern looking moustached man in military dress and a peaked cap. There is no reverse legend. My trader friend said, "I think it is the Kaiser."

When I had time to do some directory research on this token I found in a 1904 Minneapolis directory the saloon of Louis Cussler doing business at 119 Washington Avenue, North, Minneapolis. The name of the Saloon was the "Bismarck". This solved the mystery of the portrait on the token.

Otto Von Bismarck was a highly respected German stateman who died in 1898. It would have been natural for Louis Cussler, a German immigrant, to honor this recently passed away famous man by naming his saloon, The Bismarck". It certainly did not hurt business for a place of recreation for men to gather for a few hours and a handfull of pretzels. Undoubtedly many of many of Cussler's customers had served under Bismarck in the Franco-Prussian War. The portrait of Von Bismarck, whose face must have been familiar to every German-American, needed no further explanation when it appeared on one side of the Louis Cussler Saloon token.

The Bismarck Saloon operated from about 1890 at 122 Hennepin Avenue South and then moved to 119 Washington Avenue North, just a couple blocks away, about 1904. He continued in business until 1916 when he retired. Germany was still on close friendship with the United States until 1917, so Bismarck was still popular with Americans, and especially Minneapolis Germans, well into World War I. Even the State Capital of North Dakota was named after him.

A CHICAGO SHOW/CLIFFORD SALE REVIEW By Alan Weinberg

It's been a busy week for exonumia. First, the Chicago show put on by Paul Cunningham, Rich Hartzog, and Joel Reznick. Then, Bowers and Ruddy Galleries' Henry Clifford collection auction containing Mr. Clifford's Western States military, Indian and Post Trader tokens ably catalogued by Dr. George Fuld, an exonumist recognized and appreciated by all of us.

I had the good fortune to attend and participate in both events. I thought you readers would be interested in my observations, opinions, and some of the startling results of sales and their apparent impact on our hobby's future.

First, the Chicago show (March 12-14th). A very well planned and executed event with superb bourse facilities (wide aisles, carpeted floor, excellent lighting) and unparalleled publicity exposure in the various collecting media. There was an incredible variety of bourse offerings ranging from advertising novelties, dolls, pinback buttons, political collectibles, exposition items to trade tokens, Civil War and Hard Times tokens and historical medals. I'm told there was a paid-at-door attendance (entry fee over $2.00) exceeding 1,500 people. I tell you, folks, opening day found the aisles jammed with active buyers. You wouldn't believe our economy was in the midst of a severe recession. No, sir!

I heard nothing but enthusiastic comments from collectors and dealers alike (virtually all dealers are also avid collectors...they can no longer be successful dealers when they lose their taste for collecting). Dealers and collectors attended the show from the reaches of upper New York State to Southern California, from Washington State to Florida.

Some of the familiar faces in the field of exonumia: Benj Fauver (who had fun with his very first bourse table), Paul Bosco, Milt Heitman, Mike O'Hara, Glen Firestone, Steve Tannenbaum and Rich Rossa, Jerry Schaeper, Tom Durkin, David Schenkman, Steve Alpert, Joe Schmidt, Fritz Krueger, Jim Shipley, Walt Alcott, "Doc" Carberry, Kurt Krueger, Tom Hitt (dressed in coal miner's overalls and miner's helmet with light), Gay Lipscomb, Walt Korzick, Larry Elman, Robert Williams, Bruce Smith, Les Burzinski, hosts Paul, Joel and Rich, your author, and so many others in related collectible fields.

On top of a splended bourse, we attended Paul Cunningham's auction and, surprises, a thoroughly exciting doll auction held by Kurt Krueger. Some of the token collectors found their way to this sale by fortunate accident and, lo and behold, found themselves bidding!!! Larry Elman, Les Burzinski, Doc Carberry, myself and others were avid buyers of certain dolls of interest (someone said something about "bringing the dolls up to our rooms for the night" - boy, I'm glad nobody taped that comment...it wouldn't have sounded "kosher" to our wives). Les bought some Eskimo dolls, and I got a 1930's "black art" Uncle Tom doll and you wouldn't believe the floor battle over some of the Walt Disney character dolls. Boy, I sure should have kept my hand up on that set of Disney's Seven Dwarfs.

What was in demand at the Chicago bourse? Columbiana, CPIE, Illinois Trade tokens, KKK collectibles, advertising mirrors, military tokens, saloons, etc.

Prognosis of our hobby based on my experiences and observations at the Chicago show? Strong and healthy with minimum apparent effect by our current recession...totally unlike the devastated coin hobby.

Continued

One qualification, one disconcerting note. As Larry Elman and I observed, never before have we talked to so many collectors who commented that they were currently unemployed. They were still spending money. Still actively collecting. But a little more caustiously. Much of the material that was selling was in the less-than $50 category. Expensive material did not sell quite as readily as it did 2 years ago.

The following weekend Larry and I attended the Bowers and Ruddy Henry Clifford auction (March 18-20th) in Los Angeles. A very find selection of Post and Indian traders, territorials and related western Military tokens. Larry, Paul Koppenhaver, Benj Fauver, Bill Anton, George Fuld, Harv Gamer, John Hamilton, John Ford and this author were the only familiar token enthusiasts attending. Still "the book" (Mail bids) were strong, amazingly strong, just as experienced at the METCA Forrest Dunham Seattle auction where Bary Bender ably represented the METCA mail bidders.

The tokens in the Clifford auction enjoyed heavy competitive bidding with resulting extraordinary prices, in contrast to this auction's Pioneer and Territorial Gold which fared mediocre at best. Pieces in the latter category estimated at 30-40 and 50 thousand dollars sold to a very few buyers at prices generally only one-fifth to one-fourth (yes, 20% to 25%) of the auction catalogue estimate. This "price failure" was not due so much to the bad economy as to other "technical factors" too complicated to go into here.

In contrast, the tokens generally brought 2 to 3 times and even 4 times estimate although the auction catalogue estimates were not themselves unrealistic.

At the start of the sale, this author was approached by a "prominent collector" who offered to "back off" tokens not of primary interest if I would permit this "prominent collector" to buy the John London Post Trader 10¢ Fort Laramie W.T. and the C. A. Weidman Post Trader 25¢ Fort D.A. Russell Wyoming Ter. without my contesting his bids. Since these two tokens were clearly the "cherries" in the sale and of paramount importance to me, I politely declined. The resulting prices were enormous: $1300 and $1400 respectively. Plus the 10% "buyers fee". Whoo-ee! Well, folks, it's only money. What I said after the sale goes - twice or thrice the money wouldn't locate cuplicates.

Consistently, the desirable (and even the less desirable) tokens went strong. The 2 sets of the 3 denominations of W. A. Carter Fort Bridger sold for $300 and $210 to "the book" (Mail Bidders). High for "hoard" pieces. The J. K. Moore Post Trader Camp Brown tokens sold for $30, $60 and $65. Also strong for a "hoard" piece.

But the creme de la creme - the good stuff. WOW! S. E. Ward Sutler Ft. Laramie D.T. 50¢ and 25¢ each sold for $375 plus 10%.

The S. Sulnon Post Trader Ft. McIntosh (Tex.) 25¢ at $425 plus 10% on the floor. The J. Wanless Fort Sanders, D.T. 1868 shellcard (dozen known, a "hoard" piece) at $400 plus 10% to a mail bidder obviously unaware or uncaring of this piece's status.

The Geo. L. Cook Post Trader 50¢ Ft. Wingate, N.M. at $450 plus 10% to the floor. The prooflike Durfee and Durfee & Peck various denominations ranged from $220 to $350 plus 10% on the floor. The comparatively common Lee & Reynolds Camp Supply I.T. $1 at $275 plus 10% on the floor. The Lee & Reynolds Cheyenne Agency charing bison at $300 plus 10% on the floor. The Lewis & Pickett Sac & Fox I.T. at $325 + 10% on the floor. The Fort Huachuca (Ariz.) Canteen 5¢ at $200 + 10% on the floor (Hal Birt Cat.$30)

Continued

Fort Niobrara (Neb.) Post Trader 10¢ at $300 + 10% to the mail bidder. Whipple Bks Arizona 50¢ at $425 plus 10% on the floor (Hal Birt cat as scarce). A J. A. Mullen Indian Trader Halloysite Ariz. $1.00 at $400 + 10% on the floor (Hal Birt cat "rare"but some have been coming out of the woodwork and the price seems excessive).

The J. L. Polhemns Sacramento counterstamp on a very worn 1856 50¢ at $150 plus 10% on the floor. The very rare 1856 San Franciso Vigilante silver medal at an extraordinary $3,000 plus 10% on the floor.

The prognosis of the token market based on my experiences and observations at the Clifford sale - healthy, strong and enthusiastic.

With one caveat (that's Latin for "warning"), prices are reaching a level that will alienate and drive out of the hobby a lot of down-to-earth serious collectors who earn an hourly wage or a middle class living. This upward spiral will slowly (or maybe not-so-slowly) create a small elite class of collector for the good military, Indian and Post Traders, Territorials and saloons. With the rapid rise in prices of Civil War and Hard Times tokens, we've seen this "strangulation of the market" already occur to a limited extent.

Let's all remember that this is still a hobby. Let's not permit what happened to coins to happen to tokens. Isn't that why many of us got into tokens?

I guess I'm as guilty as anyone in driving up prices. I was the major buyer of the Clifford collection tokens. And, I didn't feel at all comfortable or wise paying $1,300 and $1,400 for territorial Post Traders. Of course, I didn't have any control over my underbidders and I dearly wanted the tokens. And, as I said before, double or triple the price wouldn't have located duplicates. But there has got to be a limit!

'Nuff said. Alan

Editor's Note: I agree with Alan, however, and thankfully, not all of us are interested in some of the higher priced tokens that went for top prices in the auctions that Alan attended. Most of us are just plain "trade token nuts". I've seen prices go up on our tokens too, but nothing like the prices for territorials, Post and Indian Traders and the like. We all still have time to build our collections, even the new collectors coming into our fold daily.

A new collector, today, can build a collection of his state by towns, all of the state or some of the many and varied collecting specialties that are available in trade token collecting - they are to numerous to mention here.

I do recommend that if you are building a collection that you collect like heck!!!! Who knows how long tokens will be as available as they are today and at the prices that they are today.

I follow my own advice and am building my collections as fast as I can. I'd rather not ignore my own advice and wonder what happened a few years down the road. I'd rather not have to ask my self the question "Why didn't you get the tokens while you had the chance"?

I'd like to see some other articles along the lines of types of collecting - specialties in collecting, etc. We have new collectors joining our ranks all the time and there are a bunch of "old heads" out there that could help a lot with a few simple articles.

THE 2½¢ SALOON TOKENS OF MINNEAPOLIS

By Cal Woods

Prior to 1919 when Prohibition closed down the drinking places in the United States, these drinking places were called saloons. In many of the states this term was used openly. This was especially true of the western states, and tokens issued by saloons in most western states had the word "Saloon" inscribed on them. Today's collectors value these "Saloon" tokens over most others.

In Minneapolis, however, the city directories refer to these pre 1919 drinking places as saloons, but the tokens issued by those from Minneapolis rarely carry the word "Saloon". The author knows of only one such token from Minneapolis, and only four from the entire state of Minnesota. Deceptive names such as "Sample Room" or "Buffet" are often used. The Anti-Saloon League was especially powerful in Minneapolis, and this had an influence on keeping a very low profile by the drinking places.

From the mid-1890's 'til 1919 a drink cost 15¢ or two for a quarter. With over 475 saloons in Minneapolis in 1916 this competition made this price universal in the Mill City. To facilitate this pricing, virtually all saloons issued tokens valued at 2½¢. When a customer laid down a quarter for a drink of hard liquor he was given a dime and a 2½¢ token in change. His next drink cost him only a dime if he cashed in his 2½¢ token at the bar.

From about 1895 to 1919 these saloon tokens were made in Minneapolis and of aluminum. Prior to 1895 aluminum was very expensive and not generally available for commercial purposes. It is almost impossible to find a Minneapolis 2½¢ token in anything but aluminum.

Typically, these Minneapolis saloon tokens carry the name of the owners, and possibly the name of the place of business such as the "Rose" or the "Bismark" or the "Valhalla", and on the reverse is usually a large "2½". Most were about 25 to 30mm in size. Many were lost or strayed as they are constantly being turned up in old button boxes, underground and mixed with old coins.

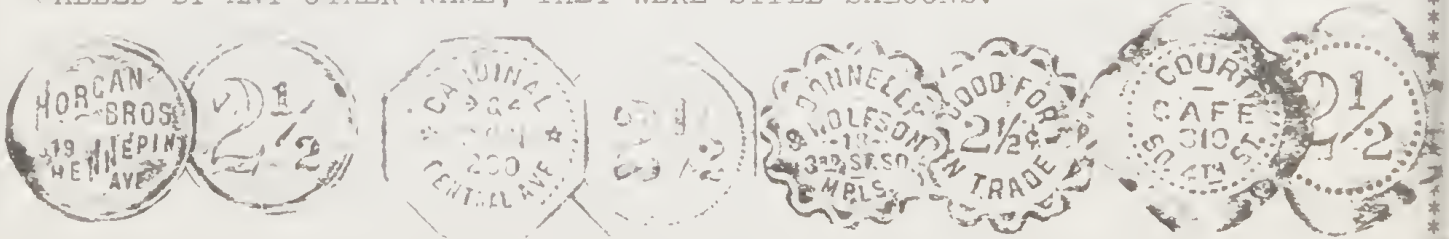

A hoard of Minneapolis saloon tokens is very rare. They should all be considered as "Scarce".

Those with the word "Saloon" are excessibely rare, and collectors from around the states who collect only those with the word "Saloon" are likely without a Minneapolis specimen, or without a Minnesota specimen for that matter.

This two for a quarter price did not entirely die with prohibition. In some cheaper drinking places in the mid-1930's bar whiskey was this price. The bartender or waitress gave you the receipt for a 15¢ first drink; if you gave her the receipt and a dime you got another cheap shot.

A glass of beer was always a nickel in the saloon period, and two 2½¢ tokens would buy you a big foaming mug of suds.

CALLED BY ANY OTHER NAME, THEY WERE STILL SALOONS!

WHEN NAMES ARE NOT CLUES ON A MAVERICK By FORD KNIGHT

When I first started collecting trade tokens, about fifteen years ago, I acquired a manverick token - KENTUCKY & TENNESSEE LIQUOR CO., INC., J.B.H. MANAGER/GOOD FOR 12½¢ IN TRADE/21mm Brass.

This did not excite me to much until over the years I was finding this token turning up in the Missoula area about once a year. This convinced me that it had to have been a local business at one time.

I started checking all the directories for western Montana, from 1891 to 1930, but never a clue to this company. I gave up about ten years ago, resigned to the fact that these tokens were no doubt brought to this area by someone from the Kentucky area.

Recently a fellow collector wrote to our Secretary of State and was able to identify another Montana maverick, as it was labeled as a corporation so I followed with his idea and found that indeed my maverick was incorporated on November 23, 1909, with its principal place of business at Missoula, Montana. This sent me to check courthouse records, where I found the Articles of Incorporation - The Capital stock was $5,000.00, divided into fifty (50) shares of the value of One Hundred ($100.00) per share. The Capital stock actually subscribed as follows:

Bruce Corbin - - - One Share

C.C. Welling - - - One Share

J.B. Harper - - - Forty-Eight Shares

Said Corporation was formed for the purpose of selling at wholesale and retail, all liquors, bar fixtures, glassware, etc.

The directors annual report was made by affidavit and statement on the 1st day of February, 1910, by Chas. C. Welling, who had requested that Samuel Huff join him in filing an annual report, however Huff declined. Welling reports the whereabouts of J. B. Harper was unknown to him, moreover, he states that it is his belief that no organization or election of officers was ever had.

In checking Polk Directories 1909 thru 1931 - none of the four men mentioned were ever listed as living in Missoula, except Samuel Huff - listed in 1911 as a bartender.

Conclusion - this business never opened, altho one wonders why or where the tokens were issued.

Editor's Note: Ha, a first class western mystery story. Thanks, Ford!

HAVE YOU ASKED SOMEONE TO JOIN ATCO?

WHY NOT?

M. C. & P. CO/GOOD FOR 1 HEAD By Bob Fairaizl

Finding such a token would certainly make one wonder whose head the bounty was on?

M.C. & P. Co. stands for Mandan (N.D.) Creamery & Produce Co. It is an old and established company of Mandan, North Dakota. The tokens were probably used in the early 1900s, and probably up to and including the 30s.

These tokens were used in conjuction with cleaning birds - turkeys, chickens and geese. Once a bird was cleaned it would be taken to the supervisor and if it was cleaned right he or she received a token for the bird. This was more expedient than trying to use other methods of keeping track of what a person cleaned. Also, it allowed the person who cleaned the birds to work at their own pace for the more birds cleaned the more tokens they received.

Each day the tokens were taken to the main office where they were paid in accordance with the number of tokens that they had.

These tokens exist in brass and aluminum.

Today, M.C. & P. Co. is called Cloverdale Foods.

Editor's Note: Bob did send along rubbings but they were so weak that they could not be brought out in photographing. Now, we all know what Good For 1 Head means.

R.J.P./C.S.B.P.J./CIS. 10/G.F. 25¢ IN TRADE.

Here is an old Minnesota trade token that has bugged me for years. Can any one tell me what all these letters stand for. Is it a society of some kind???

Bill Clapper

I want to thank the two collectors who identified the two town mavericks that I ran in the last issue of ATCO.

A. Ralph King Identified as possibly Ligonier, Indiana, however the directory spells the name: A. C. Hardenbeck rather than Hardenbrook. If it is the same person, then it is from an old saloon circa 1882.

Gaylor Lipscomb Identified the Grand Stand Bar/Chester Park as a token from Cincinnati, Ohio. He states that Chester Park was an Amusement Park on north side of Spring Grove Avenue, Winton Place, I.M. Martin, Manager. It was a very popular place from about 1900 to 1930.

Thanks for the information from these two collectors!!!!

If other collectors have old "town only" tokens that they would like to run please send a good rubbing to our Maverick Editor and I'm sure that will run a special section for them.

Also, if other collectors would like to publicly thank other collectors for information that has been furnished them - please let me know. Editor

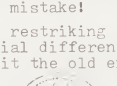

INFLATIONARY TOKENS By FRED ZINKMAN #88

Even forty years ago a penny couldn't go as far as it once did and the two tokens shown below prove that inflation can hit exonumia as well as coins of the realm.

But, in the case of Voss and Lundt (Greenville, Iowa) and the Kitty Korner Tavern (La Crosse, Wisconsin), the merchants literally struck back. Not wanting to see their trade flounder or their tokens discarded, they simply upped the face value of their trade discounts---the KKT raised its purchasing power 500%, changing the 1¢ trade token to a 5¢ trade token. Voss & Lundt made doubly certain 2½¢ would go farther; they restruck "5" onto both sides of their aluminum piece. On the 2½¢ side, however, the five slips between the 2 and the ½¢, making the amount appear "25½¢"---This may explain the other "5" strike on the obverse: "5¢" is all you get, no mistake!

Whether or not the extra work of restriking all those pieces (the brass KKT is only 18mm) made a commercial difference, I don't know. But at least those two businesses gave it the old entrepreneurial try!!!

FOR YOU COAL COLLECTORS - A reprint from the Token Hunter - Harry Campbell Editor -

TOWN TOURS - CLEAR CREEK, UTAH By Bruce Robinson

The State Coal Mine Inspector, described CLEAR CREEK in 1901 as follows:

The town itself is located in a little park in the mountains, and the buildings are all new and of modern design, and are arranged in order. The effect is indeed pleasing to all visitors. Near the entrance to this triangular park, the company has its busy office well appointed and equipped. The Wasatch Store Company occupies a portion of the commodious structure, and in addition the company has constructed twenty double houses and an equal number of cottages, which are let to employee's at a reasonable rental.

Clear Creek had its beginnings two decades prior to the inspectors report, not as a mining town, but rather as a lumber camp, to provide wood needed in the mines at Schofield and Winter Quarters. After 15 or 20 years as a lumber camp, enough dirt had been scraped away, to expose high quality coal right beneath the lumber camp.

A visitor to Clear Creek in 1901, would have found in addition to the houses mentioned earlier, a hotel capable of accomadating 150 men. Plus a store, a hospital, schoolhouse, lodge hall, barns, workshop and water system. The town was busiest between 1910 and 1920 when the population climbed to 600.

By 1930, coal production and the population started to decrease, and the last of the mines shut down in the 1950's, severing the lifeline of the town.

We have a record of four different tokens from Clear Creek. These include the Wasatch Store mentioned in the inspectors report. A token issued by J. E. Gunderson, and one by J. H. Robinson.

"MASONITE" CONVERTS WASTE INTO WEALTH

By George Chatham

A product that will revolutionize the building materials industry as regards insulation is promised by the success of Masonite, which commodity is made by the waste of saw mills. Using only materials that are unfit for any other purpose, William Mason has begun the manufacture of Masonite at Laurel, Miss.

This product is for insulation, baseboard and wall finish. The company, which was formed at Laurel eight months ago, is known as The Mason Fibre Company.

The manufacturing process is as follows: The waste products of the lumber mills - slabs and edgings are thrown into a "hog" in which they are reduced to chips by knives mounted on a heavy iron wheel and rotating at great speed. These chips are then sorted on an automatically operated double screen, and the too large pieces, the small fragments and the sawdust are conveyed to the boiler room of the plant.

The raw material to be converted into fiber is then whisked through a blow-pipe to the chip bins. From these bins the chips are fed into the "guns". After the breach of the gun has been closed, steam is admitted into the gun for a few seconds to a pressure of 1,000 pounds to the square inch.

While under this terrific pressure, the pores or slots at the lower end of the gun are opened and the moisture contents of the chips raised to a high temperature.

After two or three seconds, four small ports or slots at the lower end of the gun are opened and the contents are discharged under the high steam pressure at a speed of 6,000 feet per second. The sudden expansion of the steam in the chips as the material leaves the lower end of the gun blows the chips to tatters, tearing the fiber apart, but leaving each fiber coated with lignin.

After the wood chips are converted into pulp by being blown from one of the steel guns, they are further refined in a machine devised by John Weiner, who is superintendent of the plant, and run through beaters which further separate the fibers that are still clinging together. From the beaters the pulp is taken to the "flow box" at the head of the Fourdrinier, or paper making machine, where it is spread out on a copper screen or "wire" as it is called in the paper making industry and is rolled out in the form of a slab five-eights of an inch thick.

This slab, which comes continuously from the rollers, is cut into twelve-foot lengths, stacked mechanically in racks with twenty compartments, and wheeled to the high power steam presses where the process is completed.

The Mason Fibre Co. is now making two products on a commercial scale. One is an insulating material, and the other presswood. The presswood emerges from the steam press with only one-third the thickness of the insulating material, and with many times the strength of wood across the grain, it is declared.

* * * * *

The above article on the new product "Masonite" was published in the July, 1927, issue of THE MISSISSIPPI BUILDER. It is one of several that will appear in my listing of Mississippi tokens planned for release in the fall of 1982 or spring of 1983.

W.H. Mason developed his process in 1924. The Mason Fibre Co. was formed in 1926 and renamed Masonite Corporation in 1929.

The token below was used in a privately owned canteen on Masonite property in the 1930's. It is brass, 19 mm in diameter, and the only example known. Trantow lists it as Miss. #532C.

A SOUVENIR FROM HOWE CAVERNS

by Michael Pfefferkorn

Collectors frequently find what could be described as tourist tokens, machine-made souvenirs from various parts of the country. Although these tokens are properly classified as store cards, there seems to be little interest among collectors because of their usual late manufacture and often crude design. However, this type of token does provide two pieces of historical information. One is a record of our nation's historic sites, places of natural beauty, and frequently a commercial enterprise located in a tourist area. These souvenirs also document the wide range of travel which has become a part of the American tradition. Since tourists are transient by nature, the souvenirs that they purchase are scattered across the entire country.

An illustration of both of these points is a maverick token from Howe Caverns, which, according to the Gurnee Guide to American Caves, is located in southeastern New York, (The token was found in St. Louis, Missouri.)

Although the cave was known to the Indians, it wasn't until the first half of the 19th century that Lester Howe explored the caverns and developed them commercially with an adjacent hotel. The attraction became nationally known, but the business eventually failed. The caverns sank into obscurity, and part of the entrance was even quarried for limestone. Howe Caverns was re-opened to the public in 1929 and is currently a New York state tourist attraction.

TERRITORIALS, POST TRADERS & SALOONS

I'm a serious collector of Territorial tokens from Wyoming (W.T.), the Dakotas (D.T.), Montana (M.T.), Arizona (A.T.), Washington (W.T.) and most other Territorials... except for Oklahoma. I will pay $200.00 and up for ANY Territorial token and into 4 figures ($1,000 plus) FOR THE RAREST OF THE RARE!!!

Also wanted: Post Traders, Saloon tokens (including saloon "mavericks" ... send 'em on... I'll pay good money for saloon mavericks, early classic style military tokens, and rare Alaska tokens - particularly the gold nugget tokens. I'm quite willing to and able to pay TOP MARKET PRICE. Contact me.

I also avidly collect mavericks and will pay good prices for your accumulations of nice old mavericks...one or hundreds of 'em. I'm not afraid to pay $5, $10 or much more for a maverick that has a nice style and appeals to me.

NOTE: I will also trade to obtain good tokens for those few of you that don't place any value on cash money.

ALAN V. WEINBERG....23321 Aetna St. ... Woodland Hills, CALIFORNIA 91367

HOME PHONE: 213/348-3749 CALL ANYTIME... I like to use the phone.

TREASURE HUNT!!!!!!! NOW, ALL YOU OHIO COLLECTORS HAVE TO DO IS FIND THE LOCATION OF THE OLD STORE!!!!

THE FOLLOWING WAS SUBMITTED BY RON GREEN - VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA

A. N. KESSLER HAS A HARDWARE STORE IN PHILLIPSBURG, OHIO FROM ABOUT 1898. HE WON A NUMBER OF SALOON AND POOL ROOM TOKENS AND THE MERCHANT(S) WHOSE TOKENS THESE WERE WOULD NOT OFFER HIM ENOUGH FOR THE TOKENS SO KESSLER DRILLED A HOLE IN HIS STORE FLOOR AND POURED THE TOKENS IN TO THE HOLE. THIS WAS TOLD TO RON BY THE SON OF KESSLER WHO LIVED IN VICTORIA.

BILL CLAPPER, EDITOR

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill: - I wanted to reply to "Binky" when I saw the last issue, but cooled off after a bit and didn't. When I saw the letter from Jim Shannon in the May issue, I blew my top again.

First of all, Binky is a jerk! If he is one of my friends or customers, I'm sorry, but he is still a jerk. Over the years, as a buyer of tokens, I have run into many, many coin, antique and flea market dealers who have overpriced tokens. This is just as true in the Kansas City area, as it is anywhere else. Not to long ago, I met a coin dealer at a mixed coin and antique show who had several nice old mavericks. On the average I thought $2 - $3 dollars would be a fair price for the ones he had.

However, he had $10 marked on each and wouldn't budge 5¢. When I asked him why he was so high he said that he had bought a group of tokens and someone picked out 5 or 6 and paid him $12.50 each. He said the others had town and state on them so on the mavericks he reduced the price to $10. Upon further and careful questioning, he revealed that one of the others was a hotel to depot, one was a CCC Camp token and another was an early Military. Of course, he didn't recall specifically what the tokens were, but one can imagine from $100 to perhaps $500 worth of tokens were purchased for $60 - $70.

The mavericks were nice, but not worth $10 each to anybody, and while I would have liked to have them for research, or whatever, I'd also like to have something in return for my money. MORAL? When Binky paid $10 for a token he could have quietly purchased for 10¢, he blew a potential source of tokens for other collectors. The woman who had that token did not deserve $10. If she would have spent several hundred dollars and several years researching references, she could have sold the token for whatever it might be worth. As it is, she got it for nothing and was asking 10¢ profit.

As for Mr. Shannon, and anyone else with a similar notion, dealers don't make a practice of giving away, cheerfully, $9.90 in profit, just to play "bigshot".

The woman with the 10¢ token will now expect $10 for every 10¢ token she gets. Of course, when she gets a $50 or $100 token, someone will buy it for $10. But the lesser tokens will never be in a collection. So, Binky has successfully cornered this woman's business. He can pay for any tokens he likes and pass on the rest, leaving all other collectors the true disappointment of finding a really nice $2 token priced at $10.

SINCERELY, TOM WALL -

THE VIETNAM WAR - By John R. Shillinglaw

This is the first in a series of articles that John will be writing and the first part will establish the locations of military ground forces that served in Vietnam.

Also, it will supply a little information about the units themselves. I will list by Curto catalog number the tokens that were used in the clubs of these units.

Military Assistance Advisory Group, Vietnam - (MAAG-Vietnam)

Arrived in Vietnam: 1 November 1955

Departed Vietnam: 15 May 1964

Location: Saigon

Authorized Strength: 1,606 (1961) - U.S. Army only

The Military Assistance Advisory Group, Vietnam was formed from the Military Assistance Advisory Group, Indochina and concentrated on joint services support for the South Vietnamese Army as well as combat arms training to include field advisors at expanding rates. It existed for two years after MACV (Military Assistance Command, Vietnam) was established in order to avoid disrupting the institutional expertise it had gained, as well as to enable a smooth transition in field advisor relationships. During this group's service the authorized number of U.S. military advisors was increased from 746 in the beginning of 1961 to over 3,400 at the beginning of 1963.

U.S. Military Assistance Command, Vietnam - (MACV)

Arrived in Vietnam: 8 February 1962

Reorganized: 15 May 1964

Departed Vietnam: 29 March 1973

Location: Saigon, Tan Son Nhut

Authorized Strength:	1966	1968	1971	1972
U.S. Army Element	1,488	6,407	13,095	6,681

The U.S. Military Assistance Command, Vietnam (MACV) was established as a unified command subordinated to the Commander-in-chief, Pacific, in order to provide a joint headquarters for the expanding United States military effort in Vietnam. The Commander had the responsibility for and authority over all U.S. military activities in Vietnam. In May 1964 it was reorganized and greatly enlarged when it absorbed the Military Assistance Advisory Group, Vietnam. MACV had control over USARV, Naval Forces Vietnam, Seventh Air Force, III Marine Amphibious Force as well as the I & II Field Forces Vietnam, XXIV Corps, the 5th Special Forces Group, and a host of internal MACV projects and matters such as the advisory activities and Civil Operations & Rural Development Support (CORDS).

AN EXONUMIST-HISTORIAN NEEDED NOW! By Michael G. Pfefferkorn

An opportunity is about to slip away from the fraternity of exonumists which is concerned with the reconstruction and preservation of history as represented by tokens and medals.

Generally, access to authoritative sources of information has often posed a difficult but interesting challenge. Yet, there is a field of exonumia which has attracted little attention despite the existence of histories, government documents and records, and news articles. Literally tens of thousands of witnesses and participants in the recent Vietnam conflict are alive to contribute their personal histories to the record created by the U.S. military tokens used in the various outposts in Vietnam. Many of these brass checks are recorded in James Curto's classic two volume work on military exonumia. Unfortunately, he does not document the significance and extent of American foreign policy or the consequences of its enforcement around the world. These tokens are a register of military units, outposts, and fortifications.

They represent an expansion of American Military Might into Southeast Asia which eventually sapped both the spirit and the economy of the United States. However, no collector has come forward to take the historical challenge of making these tokens come alive to tell the story of this tragic era.

Perhaps collector apathy exists because the checks are not "old" and therefore are assumed to be lacking in "historical character".

Perhaps the bitter memories of a national failure are thought best to be swept under the rug. Perhaps we believe that if we ignore the living sources of information, the problems from that time will somehow vanish.

Perhaps.....perhaps now is the time to capture history before it fades away.

Editors note: It is interesting that Mike's article came in to us at the same time that John Shillinglaw decided to do that very thing and that John will be writing a series of articles like the one found in this issue. Maybe we have something going that will create a big interest in the Vietnam tokens.

WE ARE BECOMING THE FASTEST GROWING TRADE TOKEN PUBLICATION IN THE U.S.!

QUESTIONABLE TOKENS By ALAN V. WEINBERG

As a member of TAMS Board of Fakes and Fantasies and as a very active token collector I've become aware of an ever-increasing number of questionable "RARE" tokens on the market, such as the series of Deep River Armory ("DRA") fantasies.

This proliferation occured in the rare coin market as prices rose and the number of collectors increased. Now, we're witnessing this same unfortunate development in token collecting with its rapidly rising prices and its growing enthusiastic collecting fraternity.

Unfortunately, the Federal government's laws against faking and altering coins do not extend to trade tokens.

For a few years now I've heard from various quarters strong rumors about a man in Nevada who was striking a variety of old-style, highly deceptive and completely bogus tokens from Arizona, Nevada and California. The likes of such experienced collectors as Sam Michael, John Hamilton, Dick Ainsworth, Larry Elman, Duane Feisel, Bob Temarantz and others have condemned this man's work.

I should say that these tokens are so deceptive that opinion on these questionable tokens is not universal. Such authority as Hal Birt, Jr. insists that the Arizona tokens listed below are legitimate old pieces and they are listed in his Arizona token list.

I recently received a letter from the Nevada individual allededly responsible for producing these tokens. I did not recognize the individual's name but felt there was something "wrong" about his letter. He offered me the below Octave, A.T. token, stating it was "not for sale" but that he would trade it for a U.S. $10 gold piece, any date in Very Fine Condition. Well, anyone who knows coins knows such a $10 gold piece is so readily available (current market value around $225) that it is essentially "cash". In reality, this man was offering his "RARE" Octave, A.T. token for sale, not trade. But this man knew that since his token as a fake, he'd better not quote a price on it.

At the time I received this man's letter, I felt his offer was not "kosher" and suspected that his Octave, A.T. token was one of the questionable Arizona tokens made by the Nevada source. But, I didn't put 2 + 2 together until last night.

Last night on the phone I was advised of the specifics of the below 4 tokens and was given the name of the man in Nevada who was producing these fake "old" Arizona, California and Nevada tokens. Then it dawned on me! Son-of-agun! This was the guy who offered me his "not for sale" Octave, A.T. token for a common $10 gold piece.

As I mentioned before, there is still a difference of opinion over the legitimacy of the below 4 tokens. But the overwhelming weight of opinion is that these tokens are at least highly questionable. I felt it was important to advise readers that they should be particularly wary in acquiring these pieces.

1) Junction Saloon - Congress, A.T. - One Drink, Alum. - 25mm, square
2) Sunset Saloon - Globe, A.T. - 12½¢ 24½mm
3) The Lincoln, Octave, A.T. - 6¼¢ - 21½ mm - Center hole
4) Copper Stain Bar, Lowel (sic), Ariz 6¼

ALAN V. WEINBERG

AN INTERESTING ST. PAUL SALOON TOKEN By CAL WOODS

Minnesota saloons were places which sold hard liquor by the drink before 1919, when national prohibition closed them all down. When they reopened in 1933 they were referred to as "Taverns", "Bars" and "Lounges". Saloon also sold beer by the glass, cigars, wine, and many provided a place to play pool or billiards. Music if any, was usually provided by a player-piano. Saloons were a place for men to drink and relax, and women were rarely welcome.

St. Paul, Minnesota, saloons seemed to favor brass for its tokens, while Minneapolis saloons liked the new glamorous aluminum. They both avoided the word "SALOON" on their tokens, apparently a fear of the anti-saloon forces headed by Carry Nation with her ax-swinging ladies.

St. Paul Saloons issued tokens with a simple large 2½ on the reverse and rarely anthing more. When a man bought a drink and laid a quarter on the bar, the bartender gave him a dime and a token. Thus, his first drink cost him 15¢. When he bought his second drink he laid down a dime and a token, so the two drinks cost him 25¢. The 15¢, two for a quarter deal was basic in St. Paul and every good drinking man knew it.

In 1893, William Archibald Fonda opened a saloon in St. Paul at 321 Jackson Street, a downtown location. In 1900 Fonda decided to take a partner named Robert Pederson, and it became Fonda & Pederson. They opened an additional saloon at 172 East Third Street while keeping the one on Jackson Street. Both saloons were in downtown St. Paul. The partnership was short-lived, however. By 1904 the partnership was gone and both saloons were being operated by other persons. Both Fonda and Pederson were out of the saloon business.

While William Fonda was in business by himself, he issued a saloon token that was both interesting and unusual. It was a round brass 23mm token that reads:

2½¢/ PASS ME WITH TEN CENTS/AT

Obv. W. A. FONDA'S/321/JACKSON ST./ST. PAUL

This token can be dated between 1893 and 1899, and is probably closer to the earlier date. It suggests that the "Two for a quarter" deal started early in the 1890s, and Fonda was telling his customers what the token was worth.

It is likely that Fonda and Pederson issued 2½¢ tokens before they folded in 1904, but none have been seen by myself. Perhaps another collector has run into one and would let the author know.

SALOON TOKENS FROM FAMOUS ARIZONA SHOOTOUTS By Bob Temerantz, ATCO #57

Arizona was a wild and woolly territory. The saloons, dance halls and gambling joints were visited by cattle rustlers and the wests most infamous killers. Some unreputable saloons and other dives were run by men who boasted of notches on their six-shooters. Saloons with fitting names such as the "Bucket of Blood Saloon" in Willcox, Arizona. Gunsmoke frequently reeked the honky-tonks as many gunfights took place.

Today, these saloons are long gone as the criminals like Johnny Ringo and the Clantons....only their legends exist. However, two tokens survive to tell what happened in two actual shootouts in the Arizona Territory.

O.Z. Kane's Palace Saloon was the scene of a "shoot-it-out" between a desperado and Harry Wheeler, the last Captain of the Arizona Rangers. On that occasion, Harry Wheeler shot a robber named Bostwick in the Palace Saloon on Congress Street in Tucson. Bostwick had the Saloon patrons lined up against the wall when Wheeler burst through the swinging doors. The robber fired first, but he was brought down by two shots from the Ranger's quick gun. The only relic of this saloon is the tokens it issued. This 29mm aluminum token reads: Tucson, Ariz./ O.Z. Kane Co./ Palace Saloon/GF A Drink.

Another historical Arizona token exists in which a man with a famous name in western lore was assassinated in a Tombstone, A.T. Saloon. On March 3rd, 1882, Morgan Earp was shot in the back from ambush as he played pool in Campbell and Hatch's Saloon. Morgan's brother, WyattEarp, was an eyewitness to the assassination. Coroners verdict revealed Frank Sitwell, an old rival of the Earps, and "Indian Charlie" who actually pulled the trigger, were behind the murder of Morgan. Two days later, Wyatt Earp, bitter, left Tombstone, never to return, hauling the body of his dead brother Morgan. Upon arrival in Colton, California, Wyatt established a new home and buried Morgan in that California City.

From this saloon of Campbell and Hatch, exists a rare incused token which circulated at the time of the ambush. The brass 23mm maverick reads: Campbell & Hatch/GF 25¢ drink.

If anyone knows the whereabouts of this token please notify me at your convenience as my address is listed in the ATCO roster. ATCO #57

THE DODGE HOUSE, DODGE CITY, KANSAS By Bill Clapper

To go along with the above and the following article on Saloons I thought I would describe a beautiful old and Unique Dodge City, Kansas token that is in my "house" collection.

I often tease my boys by saying that this is where Marshal Dillon and Kitty stayed. While these two people are fictitious, the happenings in these old western towns are true.

Many of us have tokens in our collections that if the history was known about them they would surprise the heck out of us. If you are like me, I'm to busy collecting at the present - - the research will come later and our hobby can only get more interesting.

THOUGHTS ON THOSE SCARCE KANSAS SALOON TOKENS By Kent D. Johnson

Due to extensive collector interest saloon tokens have become a much-sought-after area of exonumia lately, with several collectors collecting all U.S. saloon tokens rather than just those of their particular state or region. As a result, notice has been given to the remarkable lack of tokens from saloons in the state of Kansas.

The collector is all the more puzzled by the popular image of Kansas as the home of the rip-roaring cowtowns which contained more saloons than churches as of the famous Longbranch Saloon in Dodge City.

What the collector forgets is that Kansas was also the home of CARRIE NATION and her followers.

All the "decent" citizens of the state were scandalized by the open moral climate of the wilder cowtowns, and equally outraged by the (undoubtedly much milder) goings-on in their own hometown saloons. As a result of strong anti-liquor and gambling sentiment the following amendment to the Kansas Constitution was proposed in 1879: "The manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors shall be forever prohibited in this state, except for medical, scientific, and mechanical purposes."

As one historian put it, Kansas staggered to the polls and voted itself dry; on November 2, 1880, the above Article 15, section 10 was ratified. This had the immediate effect of outlawing the Kansas saloons 30-odd years before the Volstead Act closed the saloons in the rest of the nation.

It did not, however, have the effect of closing the Kansas saloons. Like the national experience with Prohibition, many continued to operate in a clandestine (or sometimes open) manner in cities all over the state. Contemporary newspaper accounts tell of local governments levying a very small "fine"for operating a saloon, establishing in effect a license fee on the speakeasies operating in their town. At one point the state had to send enforcement agents into Wichita and Junction City to close the local drinking establishments due to lax local enforcement.

It was this official tolerance which impelled CARRIE NATION and her followers on their "hatchetations" of Kansas Saloons, the most notable being the Carey Hotel Saloon in Wichita and the Senate Saloon in Topeka during the winter of 1900-1901. There is a 12½¢ Carey Annex token in brass from Wichita which could be from this saloon as change for a quarter tendered for a "two for a quarter" drink.

In 1948 the state constitution was amended to allow the legislature to regulate posession and transportation of intoxicating liquors. Perhaps as a concession to the dry forces the last sentence of the new amendment reads, "The open saloon shall be and is hereby prohibited," a state of affairs which exists to this day.

While there were certainly saloons operating in the state after 1880, the proprietor of such an illegal operation would be foolhardy to so openly flout his defiance of the law as to openly commit his crime to medallic or token form. Despite this, there is at least one Kansas saloon token that I know of with the Proprietor's name, his occupation of saloonkeeper, and the town of West Mineral, Kansas. As it is brass, it could conceivably be from before the 1880 prohibition, but even in 1912 West Mineral seemed to be a wide open town, as in that year my Bradstreet directory lists two saloons!

My theory is that there are probably a number of tokens issued by Kansas saloons, but that with a few exceptions they are mavericks, perhaps using only the proprietor's initials, and certainly not using the word "SALOON" so as not to incriminate themselves. Examples are the "Annex" token cited above and one from Atchison "Good For 5¢ at the Bar" with only the initials "P. McA." Since in most cases a speakeasy was not likely to seek or encourage a listing in a business directory, either, I suspect that any such mavericks will by and large remain unidentified.

Editor's Comment: After reading this article by Kent and articles written by Cal Woods on Saloons, I often wonder if we are not overly legalistic to say that for a saloon token to be a saloon token it must have the word "SALOON" on it? South Dakota was dry too, but I can take a business directory of South Dakota and find hundreds of saloons listed as "Saloons". This is also true of North Dakota, Nebraska and Minnnesota.

The proprietors of these drinking places were not about to put out a token that openly said "SALOON". Carrie Nation visited these states too. She left behind large groups of women supporters who would sooner tear down a saloon than have a sunday dinner.

It is just an opinion, but an honest one - - - I think that if a Dun or Bradstreet or other business directory says it is a saloon, it is a "SALOON". In other words, if it is documented, then it is a saloon.

Let's hear from some of you diehards in defense of your argument that a saloon token must say saloon to be a saloon token after the above article and those by Cal Woods. O.K.?

SOME TIPS FOR ATTRIBUTING MAVERICKS By BRUCE W. SMITH

Those of use who attempt to attribute maverick tokens are familiar with the usual tools: R.L. Polk directories, R.G. Dun directories, and Dun & Bradstreet directories. In addition there Hotel directories, Masonic directories, and directories for other fraternal organizations, such as Eagles (F.O.E.), Odd Fellows (I.O.O.F.), Elks (B.P.O.E.), Woodmen of the World (W.O.W.), Knights Templar(K.T.) and probably others. There are also bank directories, union directories, and no doubt directories of dairies, bakeries, saloons and pool halls. Most of these business directories were compiled either to provide credit ratings (as is the case of Dun & Bradstreet) or to provide a convenient listing for salesmen and manufacturers to use to sell their goods. It is for this reason that I believe directories were produced listing saloons, pool halls, dairies and bakeries, although I've never seen such listings. I have recently seen a directory of druggists (c. 1875) for the entire USA including territories.

I personally own directories for: Masons, Elks, Odd Fellows, Eagles, Knights Templar, Woodmen of the World(incomplete), hotels, labor Unions, banks, railroads and mines---though some of these listings are only for Missouri (the state that I collect).

Of course knowing that such directories exist is only the first step; next you have to find them. Most directories came out annually and there was a tendency to throw them away. However, one can sometimes find them preserved at public libraries, business libraries (often private), banks, or old business establishments. If you want to own the books, then you need to frequent used book store (most towns of 50,000 or more have one) or ask around old businesses. Another place to check is your local or state genealogy society; they sometimes have old directories that you can use. University libraries often throw them out or sell them at annual sales. If you live in Utah, check the Mormon library at Salt Lake City. They have the largest genealogy library in the World, and have directories, local histories, and biographical material for the entire USA. The second largest library in the US is here in Ft. Wayne. I've been there frequently and its marvelous. They have directories for nearly every major city in the US from at least the 1850s. They have very few statewide directories however.

There are some other sources of information, however, that are often overlooked. For example:

(1) The Post Office. Since at least the early 1800s, the post office has published an annual directory of all towns with post offices. These are arranged in three or more sections: Towns listed by state, towns listed by county, and towns listed alphabetically. This last section is particularly useful for pinning down tokens that have the name of a town but not the state. If the name of the town is at all unusual, look it up in a postal directory (preferrably an old one). Maybe there are only one or two towns by that name in the US. Then you have only to check one or two states. Of course, some tokens were issued by towns that did not have a post office or in which there was no no post office at the time of the directory you are consulting. Many small towns had post offices in the 1800s, but lost them around the turn of the century when the post office decided to delivery mail in the county (Rural Free Delivery RFD). The postal directories published during the Second World War are useful for locating Military bases that have since been abandoned or have changed their names.

(2) The Phone Company. Although some cities have recently begun to charge for calls to the local information operator, as far as I know, there is no charge for long distance information. If you are trying to pin down a token that is fairly recent (1950's or 1960's) or one that was issued by a company that might still be in business, then long distance information is often the fastest way to do it. For example: perhaps you have a wooden nickel with "Excelsior Hotel" with a phone number of 309 443-1234, and nothing else. The area code will tell you what state the piece is from, but in addition you can call your local operator and ask her what town the 443- exchange is in. Your local operator will call an operator in the 309 area while you are on the line, and will find out in a matter of seconds.

(3) Fraternal Organizations. Many fraternal organizations assign a number to each lodge, and many do not reuse numbers when a lodge closes. This is true of Masonic lodges (at least in Missouri) and seems to be true of Elks and Eagles lodges. Knights Templar do not reuse numbers of closed lodges, unless a new lodge opens up in the same town, or unless the closed lodge is reorganized or moves to another town (the number goes with it). So, the easy way to locate an organization or lodge that has just a number is to call the local lodge and ask them to check their roster for that number. You will have the answer you are seeking with in a minute, or two.

(4) Big Companies. If a token is issued by a large company--a factory or a mine--there are various industrial directories that can be consulted. There are a series called Donnelley's Industrial direcrory or Donnelley's Red Book put out in the 1920s and 1930s. Each volume is for a specific area. I have in my library: a) New York District 1928-29 which includes all of New York, all of New Jersey, Connecticut and Rhode Island and parts of Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. b) Northwestern District 1923 which includes all of Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Wyoming and Montana and parts of Iowa. c) Central District 1930 which includes all of Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia as well as parts of Pennsylvania.

There are many more sources of information. I hope that this information will be helpful to you maverick attributers. Unfortunately, I don't have enough time to run down those little devils, though I'd like to. I am willing to assist researchers if I can (time permitting), but I must ask that you include a SASE with your request. I would also like to hear from anyone who has other types of directories or has years I do not have.

PUZZEL OF THE MONTH!!!!! Your editor

Many of us have seen or own tokens "Good For A Smile" or "A Smile" and if my memory serves me correctly it was for a 2½ ounce bottle of whiskey.

BUT, what the heck is "A Rabbit" (maybe "A Jack") or what ever? This is about the fourth token I've owned like this one. It had to have had something to do with a drink, cigar, game of pool???? WHO KNOWS???????

"THE MEDIA OF EXCHANGE USED BY OUR PENAL INSTITUTIONS" BY JERRY ZARA

Collecting all forms of the monetary exchange used by our correctional institutions can be a very interesting form of exonumia. I have been fortunate enough to have been able to purchase single items as well as collections which have taken years to assemble.

While assembling my collection I've discovered that there are many forms of the monetary exchange being used other than tokens alone. The very first tokens that attracted my attention were the "one" and "five" pieces from Sing-Sing Penitentiary (Oissing, N.Y.)

Prison money as such is quickly disappearing from the United States Penal System. This is due chiefly to modern bookkeeping machines and better accounting systems available to us today.

Prison money is rather difficult to acquire since their mintages have been relatively small and very few pieces seem to have escaped from behind the prison walls.

In the 1972 TAMS (Token and Medal Society), there were only nine prison collectors listed; which had grown to twenty-three by 1977. Only nine of the twenty-three however were active in their research. Today there are of course many more individuals who are collecting prison money, and related exonumia, making them even harder to acquire.

While trying to assemble all available information on the prison exchange system, I found that information in itself was very difficult to acquire. To date there has been only one book published, the "Media of Exhange used in State and Federal Penitentiaries"; by Jack Burns, in 1960 while working for the Carnegie Museum, Pittsburg, Penna. This booklet is out dated and obsolete, but is a good starter for someone who may want to get some background information. In the future, I hope not only to update this book, but to catalog all of the monetary systems that have been used by our institutions from the beginning.

Other than the above listed material I was very much on my own corresponding with whomever could possibly be of assistance. Prison Officials have been contacted, with little or no response at all. I must add, however, that the few that have helped, have been a great assistance.

To date my collection consists of over 200 different tokens and punch cards, with an additional several hundred tickets. I also have managed to collecto over sixty early postcards, which depict prison scenes, both interior as well as exterior. My prison exonumia consists of buttons; both inmate and officers, weapons; which were confiscated from inmates, drawings; done by inmates, badges; patches; medals and other insignia items. I have duplicates of several hundred tokens and pieces of script, which I offer in exchange for items that I do not have. A very good way of building ones collection.

I've acquired most of the items in my collection one at a time. There were some cases where I was able to buy a complete collection, adding very nicely to what I've already managed to assemble. One has to really dig into piles to come up with a prison token.

The best way, is to correspond with all that is possible, enabling many to do the research with you. Of course, at the same time you are looking for items of their interest so that you will have something to trade and so all are really helping each other.

SPRING TIME IS STRAWBERRY TIME By Michael G. Pfefferkorn

Pickers chits are a numismatic tradition which dates back to the hop pickers tokens of nineteenth century England. The American versions were used as tallies and media of exchange for producers of blackberries, cranberries, potatoes and strawberries. Canning, shucking and shearing tokens are obviously related.

In Southwestern Missouri, the economic mainstays were the zinc mines and the strawberry crops. Strawberries proved to be a major cash crop which supplemented the farmers' income from other agricultural production. The fragile nature of the delicious fruit created marketing problems until the development in the 1890's of special refrigerator cars and strains of strawberries that could withstand the long shippage by train. With the new technology came access to the eastern markets of Chicago and even New York City. Strawberries were thinned and replanted in early spring and the ripening took place in late spring and early summer. If nature did not curse the crop with snow, a late freeze, or hail, the farmer and the picker could bring home some handsome earnings. Strawberry crops dominated the economy of portions of Southwest Missouri as late as the 1950's.

The extent of the strawberry economy is witnessed by the approximately 110 tokens that are known to have survived. About one-third were made of aluminum and the remainder were cardboard. Seven different banks issued metal tokens and received them as cash. Twenty-nine issuers located at or near fifteen different towns are also on record. And others are believed to exist!

For more detailed information, the collector should refer to the two lengthy articles in the July, 1979 and July 1980 issues of The Missouri Journal of Numismatics.

END!

The "Jerk" hit a nerve ..... by Binky

Be easy with me. I'm new at this and I'm out of band-aids. Looks like I hit a nerve and got some people hot about my purchase of a simple little token. Just food for thought.....I may not have been the first to pay $10.00 for a token priced 10¢.

I know you have been to coin shows where a dealer will tell you that "Joe Jerk buys all the tokens he gets". You question the price of his tokens and he wants you to tell him what they are worth. Have you ever wanted to tell the dealer the tokens were worth much more than you would ever pay.

The same thing happens at antique shops, flea markets, gun shows, etc. You have to wonder how Joe Jerk gets his captive suppliers to start with. (Maybe like Binky and his $10.00 purchase).

You look in Token publications and see where this guy pays "highest prices" and another guy offers "top dollar". Then there is someone paying $300.00 to $1,400.00 for tokens. Whatever happened to the $3.00 token you could buy, drop a note to a fellow collector and trade it for something that would help your collection.

I am not a dealer, (to answer Jim Shannon), but a collector. I do quite a bit of trading and enjoy it. Since the price of trading material is getting so high, I may have to start collecting Washington State Tokens since they are still reasonably priced.

I may be a Jerk, but I may not be the only Jerk around. If we Jerks don't watch out, instead of tying up a supplier, we may price ourselves out of one hell of a fine hobby.

TERRITORIALS, POST TRADERS & SALOONS

I'm a serious collector of Territorial tokens from Wyoming (W.T.), the Dakotas (D.T.), Montana (M.T.), Arizona (A.T.), Washington (W.T.) and most other Territorials... except for Oklahoma. I will pay $200.00 and up for ANY Territorial token and into 4 figures ($1,000 plus) FOR THE RAREST OF THE RARE!!!

Also wanted: Post Traders, Saloon tokens (including saloon "mavericks" ... send 'em on... I'll pay good money for saloon mavericks, early classic style military tokens, and rare Alaska tokens - particularly the gold nugget tokens. I'm quite willing to and able to pay TOP MARKET PRICE. Contact me.

I also avidly collect mavericks and will pay good prices for your accumulations of nice old mavericks...one or hundreds of 'em. I'm not afraid to pay $5, $10 or much more for a maverick that has a nice style and appeals to me.

NOTE: I will also trade to obtain good tokens for those few of you that don't place any value on cash money.

ALAN V. WEINBERG....23321 Aetna St. ... Woodland Hills, CALIFORNIA 91367

HOME PHONE: 213/348-3749 CALL ANYTIME... I like to use the phone.

★YOUR EDITOR ..... BILL CLAPPER

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill:

I am enclosing an "article" that you might want to print in the next ATCO, or some later one. Weinberg is totally wrong in his statement that the federal statutes do not extend to trade tokens (his article on possible Az fakes, June issue) or so I think. It is possible that he knows of some case that said it didn't; if so, I would like to know about it.

I am not prepared to spend a day researching case law. I've read the statute and it seems plain.

Don Kaye, Attorney At Law

Editor's note: See Don's article in this issue. Thanks Don for the work and effort put into getting us this information.

EDITOR'S NOTES:

Last month I thought we had a bearcat of an issue, but it is the 15th of the month and while I have a little time I thought I'd get my two-cents worth in. At this date we have 63 pages and I don't know when it will quit. It is apparent that we are successful in getting out the things that the collectors want and I hope that we can continue to hold the membership interest in articles, letters, ads, etc.

One of our members wrote that he was concerned that we might get controversy into our publication and destroy it. Well, all I can say is, if controversy will destroy ATCO, then ATCO is not worth a hoot to start with.

This publication is for the membership voices whether it be in the form of articles, letters, or what ever. Unless the article or letter is downright stupid, it will be published. We all have a right to disagree with what is published and to muffle a voice who disagrees (unless it is stupid, as stated above) is not what ATCO stands for. So, if you have something to say, say it.

In this issue we have some good and constructive controversy. This is what we need. There will be no single rule of ATCO. We have directors to see that this does not happen and we have good and outspoken members to see that this does not happen. ATCO is an open publication. That is all I'll say on the matter.

After this issue I'll enjoy my little and short rest. Keep in mind that we will come out with our next issue in September and that all ads and articles should be in by the 20th of August. Let's not forget and then wonder about the small September issue. I'll keep up to date during my vacation so you need not wait until the 20th - if you have something ready, send it in now. Last minute rushes gets me talking to myself and you don't want a goofey editor (or maybe I should say goofier editor).

One of the directors thought of a good idea and that was to run 2 or 3 pictures of the various members each month along with a little collecting story about the member. If you have a small snap shot why not send it along together with a short collecting story about yourself?

Several have asked where I get all the time for ATCO. I have a job that gives me more time than most and I don't have a wife, but I am raising 2 boys by myself. I give my job, my boys and ATCO equal time -

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

"A SALOON IS A SALOON IS A SALOON" - It is my feeling that anyone has a right to call a tavern, a bar, or any kind of Drinkateria a saloon, however, when I purchase, sell or trade a saloon, I want it to say "Saloon".

The Joy of collecting saloon tokens is that they are much scarcer than taverns, bars, inns, etc., excepting in some of the western states.

"Fritz" Rohrman

You might also want to publish the following -

"The Relative abundance of token denominations"
After recording some 40,000 token denominations from various token magazines and journals I am able to conclude that the relative abundance of token denominations is as follows:

5¢	42.4%	$1.00	6.3%
10¢	15.5%	12½¢	4.2%
25¢	14.2%	1¢	3.4%
50¢	6.5%	6¼¢	0.8%
		2½¢	2.6%
		$5.00	0.6%
		15¢	0.5%
			97.0%

The remaining 3% can be attributed to 20¢, 4¢, 1½¢, 20¢ as well as Loaves of Bread, Quarts of Milk and odd denominations rarely seen such as, 1/10¢, ¾¢, 1¼¢, etc.

"Fritz" Rohrman Thanks, Fritz .....Editor

DEAR BILL: ATCO is just what everyone needed, and the bulletin is great! Please, please keep the present format, don't let's ever sacrifice punctuality, friendliness, etc. for a super-glossy look like TAMS! I like TAMS too but it often seems snooty, and they are the pits so far as timeliness and advertising is concerned!

Su Nadin-Davis, ATCO #259 Thanks for the kind words Su..Editor

June 7, 1982

To the Editor:

I have been sitting back for years listening to the echoes come back on various tokens called "fakes". But I just can't sit back anymore, after the Alan Weinburg article was printed.

First, his so-called "experts"--most of them don't even collect Arizona tokens, or do so in a limited capacity. Second, and probably most important: where are the facts? I have always believed that it took facts to prove a point, or in this case, prove the mentioned tokens are fakes.

I have yet to be shown one fact on any of the tokens. Everything said so far in the Weinburg article is what one person told another, who told another, etc. I seriously doubt this is proof that the tokens are fake. If Weinburg, or any of the others can prove they are fakes, where are the facts to back it up?

I'm really sorry to see something like this, to have to respond to. I guess this happens in just about any hobby nowadays, but I just hate to see good tokens called fakes. I wonder if the A. T.'s and other Arizona tokens I have, which are unlisted, are fakes, too. Try to buy them--or better yet, find one. Although I don't have any of the A. T.'s mentioned in the Weinburg article, I would like to buy any of them, if any of you out there has one for sale. I've seen a lot of tokens called fakes, until the person calling them fake owns them. Suddenly they are not fakes anymore, but genuine tokens.

I have to also believe that if Hal Birt, Jr. says they are genuine, they are. Here is a man who has spent his lifetime cataloging Arizona tokens. Why haven't we seen the tokens in large amounts? I believe if a man were to make fakes, why would he only make five or six in 20 years? Is he going to live forever?

I leave you with one thought: Right now, I have one of the best unlisted and unique transportation pieces from New Mexico. I have the only one, and know of no others; yet, someone has the balls to call it a hoard token. Well, if it's the first one to show up in 90 years, try to find a second one. Obviously, most people don't believe it's a hoard token because there are no facts to prove it. Why is everyone offering $800+ for the token? Because they know there are no facts to prove the hoard token story.

Sincerely,

STEVE PERSELLIN

THE McILHENNY COMPANY

by Cindy Grellman

The McIlhenny Company is located at Avery Island, Louisiana. Avery Island is in south Louisiana (Iberia Parish), west of New Orleans.

Even as early as the turn of the century the McIlhenny Company was known for its Tobasco brand pepper sauce, which it still makes today. However, the company was also involved then with packing vegetables and seafood. Some of the items they packed were oysters, okra, tomatoes, and onions.

Different tokens were issued by the McIlhenny Company as a form of payment to its employees. Primarily the company used migrant laborers in its canning activities. When one of the laborers cut a bucket of onions, for example, he was given a token like the above rubbing. The token could be redeemed at the end of the week for its equivalent in cash.

Tokens known to exist from the McIlhenny Company are as follows:

OBV:	McILHENNY CANNING/&/MFG./CO.
REV:	Good For/5¢ /Not/Transferable	Round, Brass, 21mm
	Good For/25¢/Not/Transferable	Round, Brass, 27mm

The Hobby Protection Act

There seems to be a good deal of confusion current concerning the Hobby Protection Act, a federal statute that was meant to help protect collectors of numismatic and political material. Not long ago I read in the TAMS Journal that the Act covered fantasy items, and the last issue of ATCO (June) carried an article by Alan Weinberg warning of possible fakes, and in passing Mr. Weinberg said that the Hobby Protection Act did not cover trade tokens. I disagree with the author of the TAMS article (which had to do with some Colorado silver slugs) and with Alan Weinberg. My reading of the statute and some of the legislative history of that statute tells me that it does not cover fantasy items and that it does cover trade tokens.

The statute, among other things, prohibits the manufacture in or the import into the United States of "any imitation numismatic item which is not plainly and permanently marked 'copy'."

The statute defines "imitation numismatic item" as "an item which purports to be, but in fact is not, an original numismatic item or which is a reproduction, copy or counterfeit of an original numismatic item."

The statute defines "original numismatic item" as "anything which has been part of a coinage or issue which has been used in exchange....such term includes coins, tokens..."

Clearly then, a fake trade token is encompassed by the plain words of the act. The "Background" section of House Report 93-159, which is part of the legislative history of the Hobby Protection Act, starts " In the United States today it is estimated that there are well over a million persons who collect coins, tokens, paper money and commemorative medals..." So it seems to me equally clear that token collectors were meant to be protected by the Act. At least trade token collectors were, since such tokens were used in exchange.

B ecause the statute as quoted above uses the words " used in exchange", whether or not store cards and the like are covered is subject to speculation.

As for fantasy items such as a silver slug that has been incused with the words "Gold Bug Mines" or the like, I have no doubt that such is not covered by the Act. Such as fantasy item is not nor does it purport to be "...part of a coinage or issue which has been used in exchange..." It isn't a copy of anything, so it would be absurd to have to mark it "Copy", would it not? Admittedly, if a person tried to pass such an item off as an old historic piece, that person would be engaging in a fraud, but not a violation of the Hobby Protection Act - at least not in my opinion.

As far as enforcement goes, a private person can sue for damages for a violation if he is damaged, that is, if he can prove damages (i.e., paying $500.00 for a fake Arizona token) and prove the violation itself. A private person can also seek injunctive relief (i.e., a court order forbidding further manufacture of fakes). In addition, the statute charges the Federal Trade Commission with enforcement of the Act. I have not looked up the FTC regulations, but enforcement of most such responsibilities is usually triggered by a well-documented consumer complaint.

I have not researched the case law on all of this (if there is any) and there well may be some token-collecting attorney who disagrees with me. But for what it is worth, the above is what this token-collecting lawyer thinks, and I hope that this article might be helpful to anyone who has been damaged by fakers. The Hobby Protection Act is a tool to use, if one has the evidence to use it. There are other tools, such as mail fraud, and there is no real difference between offering something for sale for cash or in trade for value. Fraud is fraud. For those interested, the Hobby Protection Act is 15 U.S.C. 2101 et seq., and the background of the Act can be found in H.R. 93-159, which is in 1973 U.S. Code Congressional & Administrative News at 2719. Both sources are available in any law library, and many good public libraries.

CEDAR SPUR - A MINNESOTA GHOST TOWN By CAL WOODS

When I first obtained the Cedar Spur token I knew I had a real problem on my hands, but did not know the half of it. My 1922 Polk's Directory showed that this place was three miles east of Williams, Minnesota. I found Williams on the Canadian Border but could not find Cedar Spur. Hunting many old maps, I found Cedar Spur on the end of a railroad spur which was about two miles long. But further investigation showed that it was on the Canadian Northern Railroad.

Many letters later I found this place as a "landing" on the Canadian Northern, and the first Post Office was established there in 1909. When built, The Canadian Northern jogged down into Minnesota for a few miles to avoid very rocky terrain on the Canadian side of the Rainy River. By 1914 its population had increased to 50 people. My token is as follows:

E. C. Weatherby/ Cedar Spur,/ Minn.
Rev.: Good for/ 5¢ / in Merchandise

21mm., Round Aluminum

Weatherby was the first postmaster, in 1909, and listed as owning a general store.

From all references to businesses of nearby towns, Cedar Spur was a cedar logging village, and shipped timbers out on the Canadian Northern. Poles were evidently another important product.

In 1930 the general store burned. It seems to have faded away after that date. Neither The Minnesota Historical Society, nor the county society has any record of this place and the editor of the "Williams Northern Light" knew anything.

An antique dealer from Beaudette, Minnesota understands that it is now a part of a farmer's field, with no buildings or trackage left. After about 20 years of existance the cedar timber must have been all cut, the general store gone, and there was no reason for the little population to remain.

THE "LITTLE CASINO SALOON" HOT SPRINGS, ARK.

AL ZAIKA answers the question of Lee Bowker as to the authenticity of the above token.

Charles Kappen confirmed that the token was authentic a number of years ago. Charles is an avid collector of Arkansas tokens and an authority on the subject.

So, Lee, you have an authentic saloon token of Arkansas.

A FASCINATING DISCOVERY - By Alan V. Weinberg

Over the years I've seen and handled a lot of Good-For-Trade mirrors and alot of saloon tokens and a lot of territorial tokens, but nothing like this.

Something arrived in the mail today that I've been chasing for 3 years.

It is a very probably unique Good For 12½¢ in Trade pictorial celluloid mirror issued by the Arcade Saloon, Hobart, O.T. (Oklahoma Territory).

The center picture is a colorful scene of a balding white-bearded old man with pants suspenders down, stooping down, peeking through the key-hole of a bathroom door at a young lady with bare behind stepping into her bath.

This rather risque scene is known to appear in variations on other Good-for mirrors, though the scene is very rare. Jim Wright of Colorado exonumia fame tells me that a picture of a Colorado Good-For mirror depicting a similar risque scene was censored by TAMS in Jim's classic Colorado mirror article, TAMS February, 1979 issue.

The mirror depicted in this article is, to the best of my knowledge, the only known extant pictorial Good-For Saloon Territorial (Territorial indicated) advertising mirror. It will date approximately 1905.

I thought fellow members would like to see it ----------ALAN

Editor's note: We won't censor it. If it is an item that is of interest to all collectors, then it should be printed and pictured!

"HEY, FRED, YOU GETTEN ALL THE TOKENS YOU NEED FOR YOUR COLLECTION?"

"YUP, I'M BUYING SOME, BUT IF YOU REALLY WANT THEM, YOU HAVE TO GO OUT AND RUT FOR 'EM."

"THE MEDIA OF EXCHANGE USED BY OUR PENAL INSTITUTIONS" Continued from June issue. By JERRY ZARA

Many of the tokens I have available are of various sizes, shapes, denominations, compositions and design. Many being struck in either aluminum, copper-nickel, copper, brass, bronze, fiber or plastic. Their sizes may vary anywhere from 16-40mm, while their shapes can be square, round, scalloped or octagon. Some may even have a design which can be a small center hole, a 5 or 6 star cut-out, a shamrock or letter of the alphabet. You may even find a few with a counter-stamp. The denominations may vary from one-cent to as high as five-dollars, while others may have no monetary value at all, which are used for specific purposes.

Coupons are contained in books generally in the amounts of $1.00 - $30.00 per booklet. The coupons themselves are found in amounts of one-cent through $1.00. The coupons are torn from the book by the commisary clerk at the time of purchase, and not the inmate. Generally, loose tickets are invalid.

Punch cards may vary in size, color, amount and shape. Each card contains a given amount which is punched out in the amount of the purchase. Some prisons may also utilize special tickets, sales slips or any other form of paper script.

Tokens have been used from approximately the turn of the century, and some may still be in use today. There are no specific dates of use, as some prisons used tokens for many years, while others have only experimented with them for a very short period of time.

Prior to 1960, many prisons used tokens, chips, coupons or script of some sort. Today the system most utilized is a paper transaction known as the "account transfer" system, which can be compared to that of our local bank. An inmates account will be credited for a specific amount each period, depending on the institution, with a withdrawal slip being completed by the clerk in the commisary for each sale an inmate makes. This withdrawal or sales slip is then forwarded to the accounting department where the amount will be deducted from the inmates account. By utilizing the "account and transfer" system, theft of prison money is prevented and gambling kept to a minimum.

Most prisons today have a canteen system of one kind or another. There are a few prisons that have no facilities at all while others are very elaborate. The amount an inmate can spend is regulated on a monthly basis. Of course, the inmate must have funds in his account, as there are no charges allowed.

Some prisons will allow an inmate to receive a very smallamount of "Free Money" (U.S. Currency), from the outside. There are also some prisons which allow an inmate to spend only that amount that has been earned from within the prison walls.

While it has been mentioned that most of our institutions today are utilizing the modern accounting and transfer system, I will provide you with some special information from the past, which I believe you will find very interesting.

Dear Bill:

Belatedly, I have gotten a copy of the supplement to the Texas Tokens issue of the TAMS Journal. It is certainly a masterpiece, and reflects a good deal of intelligent work, BUT.....

The authors decided not to include price estimates or rarity estimates, citing a few errors in the original issue, and some changes that took place. Nonetheless, I'll bet a nacho from Ojinaga, or even one from Texas that most of the price estimates in the first book were generally indicative of the rarity of the token.

A token book, no matter how complete, no matter how detailed the descriptions and excellent the photos - well a token book with no price or rarity guide is just a list. And who needs a list? If you have a token or see it in a shop or elsewhere, you know it exists, and you can presume it does if one is offered for sale by mail. But without some kind of rarity or price guide, even a pretty general one, you don't know how much to bid or whether or not to buy unless you are already an expert on that state's tokens. And if you are, you don't need a list to tell you what you already know.

I certainly hope that those hard workers who in the future will write token books or update their's that are out will in some way indicate rarity or price. Even though the rarity might change in some instances, and the prices change, the information will tell the majority of collectors who are not experts whether or not they are looking at the commonest or the rarest token . There will be errors to be sure, and the authors -poor souls - will take some flak, butthey will be doing most of us a favor.

Sincerely,

Don

E. Donald Kaye

Editor's Note: There was a reason for the catalogue coming out as it did and I would prefer to let the Texas authors answer this letter.

THE "FOR TRADE ONLY" PHENOMENON By ALAN V. WEINBERG

I've just received a letter offering me an Alaska token that I'd like to own. But it is available to me "for trade only." I'm angered because all along I've sold tokens and priced tokens to this collector. In return what do I get? FOR TRADE ONLY!

It is a phenomenon that pervades our hobby. And it is "strangling" the free flow of tokens to collectors who want them. It creates a huge bottleneck. Collector "A" has tokens that collector "B" wants. Collector "A" will trade only but collector "B" has nothing Collector "A" wants. Collector "C" does have what collector "A" wants but will trade only. AND neither collector "A" nor "B" have what collector "C" wants. Thus, all three collectors sit stubbornly with tokens they don't need for their respective collections and can't acquire those tokens they do need.

It's hard on the nervous system, isn't it? And it does create friction and hard feelings among collectors who should be friends.

Another problem develops. Artificially inflated prices. You'll recall the warning I expressed in my Chicago show/Clifford auction article concerning the hobby rapidly pricing itself out of reach for the average collector. Well, a significant cause of the rapid rise in price of saloons, transportation, saloons, military, Post and Indian Traders, territorials, scarce/rare towns and the like is the pursuit of these collectors interested in obtaining good traders.

I've seen it in auctions, public and private, and I've seen it over and over again in my correspondence and phone conversations. Indeed, I'm quite guilty of it myself.

So, for example, when a certain reasonably tradeable token comes up for public or private auction, instead of the 5 collectors competing who are actively interested in adding it to their collections, there are 20 collectors competing, most of whom really only want it to trade. What is even more disturbing is the fact that a determined collector will pay more than it really is worth just to have it as a trader. This too is increasingly common.

Indeed, an intense collector, such as I, frequently will find that he is competing with himself! He wants a certain token coming up at public or private auction. He finds himself competing with several correspondents who want to buy the token in order to trade it to him!

It sounds like a humorous problem. It isn't. It's discouraging and depressing. The way things are going, one day no tokens will be for sale. And everybody will be sitting stubbornly with arms crossed on a pile of tokens of no particular interest to themselves.

SOUNDS EXTREME. BUT, COULD IT HAPPEN?

ANOTHER ARIZONA SHOOTOUT TOKEN

By Sam Michael #84

Reading last month's article by Bob Temarantz on famous shootouts of Arizona inspired me to write this short article about a token that I have in my collection. It is 24mm and reads: Cottage Saloon, T.M. Pickett, Holbrook, A.T./G.F. One Drink, Brass, rd.

I have an old newspaper clipping given to me by a token collecting friend, Ron Zumwalt. It is from the Silver City (N.M.) Enterprise, dated November 6, 1891. It reads as follows:

"Ramon Lopez and Rafael Chavez, two sheep raisers from Concho, in the southern part of Apache County A.T., were shot and killed at Holbrook yesterday forenoon. They had just sold their wool clip and were engaged in a game of monte in Tom Pickitt's saloon with two cowboys, Joseph Crawford and W.C. Bell. The betting was heavy and drinks plentiful. A row took place between the sheep men and the cowboys, when Crawford and Bell pulled six-shooters and fired simultaneously at Lopez and Chavez, who fell corpses to the floor. The murderers backed themselves out of the saloon with their smoking revolvers in their hands, and on getting outside mounted their horses and escaped, going eastward. A posse is in pursuit. Crawford was in the employ of Hill, of Springer, N.M., and is well known by all stockmen. Bell has for the past year been in the employ of the Aztec Cattle Company - New Mexico."

Bill:

In our phone conversation last evening you mentioned the many fine articles that you had received from the members. I think it is great that so many members are participating.

One of the articles you mentioned was someone being dissatisfied with "For Trade Only" ads. I feel trading is what our hobby is all about. Without trading, would there be any collectors? Would there only be dealers and buyers? I guess we would just go to token shows, buy our tokens and go back home. That doesn't sound like much fun to me. Also if you bought every token in your collection, could you appreciate it?

Bill, I have sold lots of tokens over the years, but I learned long ago to hang on to some traders. What if I sold all my good traders and then a new and unknown collector comes along who is interested in adding to his collection and wants to trade me a good town I can use and I've sold all my traders ------. What in the hell do I do?

Then there is the new collector that I sell tokens to help him get started, then he comes up with a token I can use and he tells me it is for trade only.

In conclusion, if a collector has a policy of trading only, we shouldn't complain because he can do whatever he wishes with his own tokens.

Keep up the good work. I am enclosing herewith a "House" token for your collection - kind of a thank you for your hard work.

Regards,

Binky

BAKERY TOKENS OF MIDDLETOWN,IN.
Charles Littlefield ATCO # 1

John L. Berry run the City Bakery in Middletown,In. He was running the bakery in 1896 according to the local newspaper. He issued a token.
Obv: J.L. Berry/5¢ (Within circle of dots)/Loaf
Rev: This Check Made By The Wadsworth Eng. Co. Springfield,O./SixPointed Star

25mm Rd. Alum.

The City Bakery was located on North 5th St. There were no street numbers at that time but it would have been in the 100 block. The building has been torn down.
Mr. Harry Sheriff came to Middletown about 1896. He was born in Delphi,In. June 20,1868. He learned the bakery trade at Seven Mile,Ohio. He went to work for Mr. Berry at the City Bakery.
Mr. Berry was getting quite old and asked Mr. Sheriff in 1901 to buy him out. Mr. Sheriff told him he didn't have the money. Mr. Berry told him to take over the bakery and pay what he could a little at a time. So, Mr. Sheriff bouhht the bakery. He was successful and soon paid Mr. Berry off. He issued a token.
Obv: H. Sheriff/Middletown,Ind.
Rev: Good For/One/Loaf Bread

25mm Oct. Alum.

Mr. Sheriff retained the name City Bakery and moved to Locust St. which was becoming the main st. The address would have been about 518 Locust St.
Upon moving Mr. Sheriff purchased a new oven as the old one was not the kind that could be moved. The new one was fired with wood bought from the local farmers. The fire burned in the same chamber the bread was baked. So,the fire would have to burn out before the baking could begin.
The bread was one pound loaves,wrapped in brown paper as the customer purchased it. The price was 5¢ a loaf. The tokens were 6 for 25¢. Mr. Sheriff baked what was called cream bread which was square like our sandwich bread. He also baked a round loaf called corragated bread. The loaf had grooves to show you where to cut it. Mr. Sheriff run the City Bakery from around 1901 to 1922. During World War 1 he sold the bakery twice but purchased it back as the owners could not make a go of it.
1922 Mr. Sheriff's health was bad so he sold the bakery and opened a pool room. The pool room was less work and less hours. Mrs. Sheriff disliked the idea of him running a "pool room" so he called it the City Cigar Store. He ran a strict place and you had to be 21 to get in. He issued a token * see Indiana Trade Tokens Middletown M-4990. Mr. Sheriff ran the pool room until he passed away in 1932.
The J.L. Berry token is very rare. The H. Sheriff token is fairly common.

A TALE OF TWO NORTHWESTERNS

BY PAT PETERSON

RECENTLY, I RECEIVED A KEY CHAIN I.D. TAG FROM CALIFORNIA. The owner's name imprinted H. J. Kiekhoeffer, Naperville, Ills. N.W.C. The sender of the tag commented "wonder what N.W.C. stands for?" Lucky for me I happened to know and started to do some phone research. One call gave me more than I could have hoped for.

North Western College....N.W.C. came to Naperville, Illinois in 1896, continuing to grow until 1923. That year an upstart Evanston, Illinois college also claimed rights to the N.W.C. name. I don't need to tell you who won, but our college is now North Central College. Because of that we lost Ann Margaret and Chuck Heston.

So, who was Kiekhoeffer of N.W.C.? He was the president of the college from 1879 to 1910. In 1924 he retired to the ministry in Pasadena, California where he died in the early thirties.

Even I was surprised at how much history came from one tag. I wish that they were all that easy. I'm sure many of the I.D. tags are interesting if the history behind them were known.

ANOTHER DIFFICULT MAVERICK SOLVED

BY CAL WOODS

When I first encountered T-M-A, it was on a little aluminum 5¢ token nestled in my favorite hunting grounds, the flea market junk box. This token was 19mm in diameter and reads as follows:

T - M - A / Lodge No. / 50
Rev. GOOD FOR / 5¢ / IN TRADE

After buying this token and playing with the inititals in my mind for a few days, I decided that I needed some help with the solution. My only clue was the Lodge number that suggested an organization of some sort. I did not know where to turn.

It happened by shear accident; I was chatting with the bosses scretary one morning and told her of the mystery token that might be a fraternal organization of some sort. She hauled out a thick book from the bosses library and handed it to me. It was a catalogue of names of thousands of various types of organizations, all nicely alphabetized. I took the book back to my desk and made a list of every organization whose initials were T.M.A. There were lots of them, but it was a start. I studied the list and decided to concentrate on a name that was a national organization that may have local chapters. I set it aside for several weeks, and in the meantime I picked up another T.M.A. token, this one with the word "Minneapolis" on it, and having the same lodge number.

Now I had it nailed down to location. It was where I could put my Minneapolis directories to work. One T.M.A. that seemed to stand out was Theatrical Mechanical Association. I pulled out my 1916 city directory, and headed for the "T's". BINGO! I immediately found the name listed and having an address at 614 Hennepin Avenue. More research showed that it was a labor union for stage hands, and Lodge No. 50 was the local for the Minneapolis based stage hands.

The movie house has long been driven out of this union, as stage plays, that were once popular in Minneapolis are no longer being produced.

MINNEAPOLIS /T / M A / LODGE NO. 50
Rev. 25 CENTS / T / MA / TRADE CHECK 24mm

There must have been many local lodges of the T.M.A. around the country, and their tokens should be scattered far and wide for exonumists to find and atribute now that they know that it does not stand for The Texas Manure Association. Will we get some collector response?

BEER TOKENS - - MODERN OR OLD? BY BILL CLAPPER

I received a letter from one of our members who collects Beer tokens: GOOD FOR ONE BEER, GOOD FOR ONE BOTTLE OF BEER, ETC. He noted that all the beer tokens that he had were modern and asked if not all beer tokens were modern from the 1960's 70's and early 80's.

I have a lot of modern beer tokens that are from the 60's and 70's as I have tokens that are "Rain Checks", Good For a Drink, etc., all modern, but not all beer tokens are modern.

We do not see, for example, as many beer tokens as we see "Good For one Drink", Good For a 12½¢ drink, etc. of the old tokens issued from the 1890's up to the national prohibition of 1919.

Here is an impression of an old Minneapolis firm which issued a token that stated just what it was for - A BEER TOKEN.

I'm sure that other collectors have old beer tokens and if you would send me nice rubbings or impressions I'd like to run a page of them.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Sure do enjoy ATCO, and the articles are great too! I agree with Tom Wall about "Binky" to a point. I also cultivate certain antique dealers. They in turn call me first when they get tokens. Last week I got a call and went to see what she had. There were six very common local tokens and one old Peru (Ill.) token that I did not know existed. I bought all seven of them to keep her happy - - and, I was happy too.

Now, just a comment. When people type up lists how about State and City first. I have, in the past, missed good tokens on a list because the state, like "ILLINOIS" was buried in the middle someplace.

And, your asking comment about Saloon tokens. I have a few from this area but most of my pre 1920 tokens have just the man's name. I feel all tokens listed in the business directories as "SALOON" should be SALOON TOKENS, and if the word Saloon is not on the token, then Saloon should be listed in brackets, such as: E. J. Brown (Saloon) Peru, Illinois/GF a 12½¢ Drink, and list the source.

PHIL KLABEL, ATCO #44

A RUNNING RABBIT, A JACK OR WHAT EVER - - - The Following letters came in suggesting what the Saloon token that I listed in the June Issue could be.

*My guess concerning your rabbit token is that it depicts a "hare" which, as you know, is somewhat like a rabbit in appearance and it's depiction is a reference to the phrase, "GIVE ME A HAIR OF THE DOG THAT BIT ME" as it applies to the belief of some that a shot of whiskey can help cure a hangover.
JIM SHANNON, ATCO #66

*"A RABBIT IS A QUICK ONE, MEANING A DRINK - THE ONLY PUZZLE TO ME WAS YOUR SPELLING OF THE WORD PUZZEL - HA, EXCUSE ME."
LEW EGNEW, ATCO #76

Editor's Note: So, until something else comes in to disprove the two above logical answers, these will stand. So, we have tokens issued for A DRINK, A (Denominational, such as 5¢, 12½¢, etc.) DRINK, A SMILE, A HARE, A QUICK ONE, A RAINCHECK AND whatever else there might be out there.

As for you, Lew, just wait until you make a musteak.

EARLY 1900'S SENSES OF HUMOR By YOUR EDITOR

Did you ever wonder whether people had a sense of humor in the early days of the ranches, farms, mines, saloons and gambling halls? I think to live in those days you had to have a sense of humor and the impress below seems to prove that people did have a sense of humor.

And, I'm sure that some of you wonder where some of the expressions that we use today came from. Many of us today use the word "Burf" some say puke, but that word is more crude. I like the word burf. You won't find it in the dictionary and most of us were not born when this token was minted. So, for what ever it is worth, you now know one source of the word burf.

INTRODUCING -

Susan A. Nadin-Davis

P.O. BOX 95, STATION "A",
OTTAWA, ONTARIO, CANADA

TELEPHONE (613) 235-1916

ATCO #259

Hi! Allow me, if you will, to tell you a little about my work in the token and medal field.

First, my interests are very widespread. As one of Canada's busiest token and medal dealers, I am always seeking nice material in several categories: Canadian pre-Confederation and merchant tokens, British trade tokens and historical medals, European tokens and medals of many kinds, Masonic medalets and Mark Pennies from Canada and the U.S.A., Civil War, Hard Times and Colonial tokens, Canadian medals from the 19th Century and before, British Calendar medals, medieval German material, in fact almost anything. Naturally, I also sell a good deal of this kind of material!

There are also a few things I definitely don't deal in. One area is Military medals, another is dime-a-piece junk.

I issue a price-list about 10 times a year, which always contains some nice exonumia and an extensive listing of Canadian trade dollars. The lists also contain extensive offerings of world coins. Three times a year, I hold a mail bid sale of world exonumia. Our next sale is to be held in November 1982, in conjunction with the Toronto International Coin Fair.

A one-year subscription to our fixed price lists and auction catalogues costs just $5 ($10 overseas).

If you wish to purchase nice numismatic or exonumismatic material, or would like to talk about selling your own holdings, one piece or an entire collection, why not get in touch with me? There's an excellent chance we could help one another out.

Well, I hope to hear from you soon. In the next couple of pages, you'll find a nice selection of inexpensive material from my current stock, and an indication of some of my key needs at present. Good hunting!

Su

THE TOKENS OF QUEBEC, CANADA

Quebec, perhaps today Canada's most controversial province, remains a source of great delight to token collectors. Settled early by French-speaking and English-speaking inhabitants, the subject of numerous battles, a prosperous nineteenth-century trade centre, and the seat of deep religious faith, momentous exploits and great pride. The tokens and medals of Quebec, also featured in our upcoming November auction, tell tales of these and many other aspects of the beautiful province. I list a few here for your interest. B-numbers refer to Bowman, The tokens of Quebec.

TERRITORIALS, POST TRADERS & SALOONS

I'm a serious collector of Territorial tokens from Wyoming (W.T.), the Dakotas (D.T.), Montana (M.T.), Arizona (A.T.), Washington (W.T.) and most other Territorials... except for Oklahoma. I will pay $200.00 and up for ANY Territorial token and into 4 figures ($1,000 plus) FOR THE RAREST OF THE RARE!!!

Also wanted: Post Traders, Saloon tokens (including saloon "mavericks" ... send 'em on... I'll pay good money for saloon mavericks, early classic style military tokens, and rare Alaska tokens - particularly the gold nugget tokens. I'm quite willing to and able to pay TOP MARKET PRICE. Contact me.

I also avidly collect mavericks and will pay good prices for your accumulations of nice old mavericks...one or hundreds of 'em. I'm not afraid to pay $5, $10 or much more for a maverick that has a nice style and appeals to me.

NOTE: I will also trade to obtain good tokens for those few of you that don't place any value on cash money.

The FOOD STAMP CHANGE NEWSLETTER tells about new discoveries in, types, and history of this modern series of U.S. and Puerto Rican merchants' tokens. Its third year begins July, 1982. For a number of readers it has been providing the latest information on how to find tokens through their own efforts, information on possible rare types and general historical and legal data on this presently low-cost series. Many readers have gotten an early start and developed large collections or major inventories from going directly to the issuing stores. Many tokens remain in their drawers and cigar boxes waiting for you to get them.

Each quarterly issue contains eight printed pages plus free ads, names and interests of the subscribers. Topics covered up to now include Personalized Plastics and Tropical Lab token types, both english and spanish varieties, reviews of paper scrip types, special reports on Guam and New England States and the first catalogs of New Jersey and New York State tokens, the latter as supplements to the four issues. A mavericks column is being developed. The annual subscription is $4,50 which runs from July to June.

A 20¢ stamp will get you a free Xerox version of Issue No. 2 which gives tips on finding your own tokens, plus a bonus of two free sample tokens. You can't lose for a 20¢ stamp. Hope to hear from you.

As ever,

Jerry F. Schimmel

Dear Fellow Collector:

I wish to solicit your vote for the TAMS Board of Governors.
We need Trade Token Collector representation on the Board!
I am 57 years old and have been collecting trade tokens for many years. I will represent you if I am elected to the Board!
I am a past member of the Board and the one that pushed for free ads in TAMS,which we now have.
I have served with METCA and am one of the founders of ATCO.
Simply,a vote for me will help our trade token hobby.

Sincerely,

Charles Littlefield

THE FOLLOWING MAVERICK TOKENS ARE OFFERED FOR BEST CASH OR TRADE OFFER - Closes 3 weeks from publication - Minimum bid $3.00.
So that I do not take up room which can be used by the membership in the ATCO MAVERICK SECTION I am running a bunch of old mavericks. There are many of you who are experts in maverick attribution and I would like to have your help in attributing these. Over the years of my travels I picked up tokens from all over the country and when I did not get careless I put down the town or state that I got the tokens in. It is hoped that this will give a clue as to where they are from. Any of you who have "house" tokens to trade, please keep me in mind - mavericks welcome!

SPECIAL NOTE FROM THE EDITOR: Bob writes us that he has done a thorough study on the rarity of Texas Lumber tokens. Some of the Texas Lumber tokens previously listed by others were way out of line as to rarity and this study shows a correct listing and rarity rating.

Bob has offered this new listing to ATCO and we will accept it for publication in ATCO. If it is to long for one issue we will publish it in a series of articles, if that is O.K. with Bob Fleet???

We appreciate your offer Bob and the great amount of work that you put into it. So, members, look forward to this work in the September issue if it is ready to go by then.

THE ONLY WAY TO ATTACK A PROBLEM IS HEAD ON! ATCO has financial problems! The July/August issue cost over $800.00 to put out and that is greater than the income from new members and paid advertising.

The same thing happened to METCA when it first started. I know, I was the Chairman of the Mail Auction which helped keep METCA going until there were rate changes, etc. Today METCA is successful because the members backed it

A lot of discussion has been going on with several of the directors and it was finally agreed that they should vote on one of two proposals.

Following is the proposal that won, exactly as they voted on it:

* (X) An immediate raise in the dues to $15.00 and not change the advertising rates. Ask for a voluntary dues assessment of $5.00 per member.

* We ask that everyone send $5.00 into ATCO as soon as possible and that will get us through our first year. The new dues will keep us from having any further problems.

* So, it comes down to one main thing. You like ATCO as it is and want to keep it as it is. If so, you will support ATCO's need.

There is a lot of "free" space in ATCO in the form of articles, good information, free ads, etc. We do not wish to cut any of this out. It is what made ATCO and will keep us the BEST!

ODD AND UNUSUAL TOKENS

By CHARLES LITTLEFIELD

Submitted by: Fritz Rorhman, 225 La. Esperanza, San Clemente, CA 92672

Here is a strange SALOON token. Can Anyone tell Fritz where it is from:

CALL AT/design/TEX SALOON
Rev. GOOD FOR 12½¢ AT JUMBO SALOON
Rd. Alum.

Submitted by: Lee Bowker, 515 Malibu Ct., Cheyenne, Wyoming 82009 ATCO #111

GOOD FOR/ONE/25¢ LOAD/CINDERS
Rd. Brass-28mm incuse/uniface

Some enterprising company sold cinders to someone???? Maybe for sidewalks or drives in the winter? Anyone know where it was used or for sure how?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR ---

Dear Bill- I'm sure glad to see much contraversial discussion in ATCO. There are so many things that need to be threased out, Bill. I think we will soon find out what is important in exonumia, what aspects of tokens interest the collectors most, and what direction the hobby is going. God help us if we find ourselves mired down in some sort of GRADING mess the way U.S. Coins are now in. The ads are wonderful for all collectors as we begin to see what is common and really scarce, and puts a good perspective on values.

Cal Woods

Dear Bill: As long as I am writing to you I have a few comments about ATCO. It is going great, a lot of members involvement. I appreciate all your time and effort and look forward to each issue. Though I have not put many ads in myself, I respond to many ads each issue trying to work out trades with tokens that I have or putting bids in, usually on Bi-Metals.

I am happy that ATCO is an open publication, even when opinions are published that I disagree with.

I am opposed to running stories about members. It gets too sappy! I have seen this done by the wooden nickel money collectors and it has repulsed me from that group. I propose the following instead: that a section be added called "My Favorite token and medal collection" where a collector can write in and in a page or page and a half describe one of his token collections. I have a collection now of over 250 bi-metals and would be happy to start off the collection articles. In this way others can appreciate my collection and I can learn more about their collections and develop an interest in them. I find, as I collect, that I am becoming more and more interested in all kinds of tokens and medals.

Rocco A. DiGiacomo

Editor's Note: GO TO IT ROCCO!

Dear Bill: I really enjoy ATCO, particularly the "Binky" controvery and articles relating to historical events to particular tokens (i.e. Bob Temarantz and Sam Michael's articles on Arizona Shootouts).

One area I hope ATCO can pursue is the question of "fake" tokens. I have been personally "burned" at least three times by fake Arizona and Nevada tokens. A listing, by state, of known fakes would certainly benefit the new collectors as well as the older collectors. Nothing is worse than to lay out a considerable amount of cash or even more dreadful an irreplaceable token and find out later it all went for a FAKE! Hope to hear more from the collectors in upcoming issues on this subject.

Martin Kenney - Olympia, Washington

JOHN CALHOUN IS BACK IN THE HOSPITAL IN SEATTLE. You can write to him at: Veteran's Hospital, 4435 Beacon Avenue, Seattle, Washington 98108

There is a good possibility that John will have a further operation on his hip which will mean that John will be out of the token collecting and running mail bids for as long as a year.

If you can visit him while in Seattle please do so!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill - I have been running mail bids in ATCO on a fairly regular basis and I have had some problems that maybe others who run mail bids have had. When I have a winning bid and it is for only one token that is not a high priced token I send the token first class (no reason to stick the collector with insurance on such a token). When I do not receive payment in a reasonable time I write and ask what happened. I get the story that they did not receive the token. This has happened four times in the past five months.

The other complaint is that some do not send remittance right away. I feel that remittance should be sent within five days of receipt of the token or tokens. I've waited as long as a month and in a couple cases for well over a month.

I feel that there could be a way of curing this problem. If those who run mail bids have problems with a collector they should send the name of that collector to the editor. He could keep a list and if the same name appears several times, then we have problems and that collecter should be dropped from the rolls of ATCO. What do you think?

PLEASE WITHOLD MY NAME, THANKS!

*Editor's Note: I agree. If we have problems like those mentioned above we should do something about it.

I'll agree to keep such a list.

Remember, ATCO is for ACTIVE TRADE TOKEN COLLECTORS and we have no room for those who are just going along for the ride.

ARIZONA'S ONLY 'GOOD FOR A SHINE' TOKEN By Bob Temarantz #57

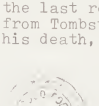

There are numerous unusual "Good For" tokens of Arizona, often repeated by merchants in different Arizona towns. Some say 'good for a shave', 'good for a bath', or a meal.

But there is one Arizona token with an unusual "good for" that is known in only one case, 'good for a shine', a maverick from Tombstone, Arizona. This early token was issued by N. DeMartini. Little is known of N. DeMartini, except that he is listed in the Great Register of Cochise County in 1886 as a Porter.

DeMartini was a prominent family in the Tombstone Mining District. Originally from Italy, the family first settled in the west at Storey County, Nevada. During the early 1880's they moved to Southeastern Arizona to the boom town of Tombstone. One member of the DeMartini family was a Restauranteur on Allen St, owning the elegant Maison Doree. Another member had a vague connection with the Crystal Palace Saloon in Tombstone during the late nineteenth century. This vague connection to the Crystal Palace leads to believe that N. DeMartini was a "Bootblack" in the Crystal Palace Saloon, and henceforth issued this brass 24mm token for his trade. Chances are he did a thriving business as the Crystal Palace was the place for tired dusty miners with their dry throats. Only two examples are known from N. DeMartini's business.

No record survives to tell what happened to the person who issued Arizona's only 'good for a shine', as the last remaining DeMartini, R.A., died in Fairbank, Arizona, nine miles from Tombstone. R. A. DeMartini was Mayor of that town at the time of his death, but no relationship is known to N. DeMartini

TOKENS, LIKE GOLD, ARE WHERE YOU FIND THEM By Jim Shannon

Have you noticed that tokens have a way of turning up in the darndest places?

Recently I placed an ad for Waco tokens in a "buy, sell or trade" magazine which is distributed at local supermarkets and shopping centers. It didn't cost anything to place the ad but, frankly, I wasn't overly optimistic about the number of contacts which might result from it. True to my expectations there were only a few responses...but one of those telephone calls made it worthwhile.

A local college boy called and said that he had found a token while spading in a flowerbed in an older section of Waco and asked if I would like to see it...indeed I did, and as a result was able to add to my collection a really nice brass P.R. Napier, No. 123 So. 5th/GF 5¢ IT, unlisted token. Although the token did not read Waco, Texas a little research revealed that Napier had been the owner of a cigar store and pool hall at the above address during the 1890's.

A very nice unlisted Waco token at very little cost...a very nice combination! You never know, do you?

SALOON TALK

By Jerome Schaeper, Jr.

S-A-L-O-O-N .....The very word conjures up a social setting right out of the Old West. A handlebar mustached barkeep, player piano, several pocker tables, sawdust on the floor ... are all in the picture.

As I understand it, a number of years ago, a certain collector from a Western State began noticing the relative scarcity of tavern tokens having the word SALOON in their wording. He began to gather all he could without drawing too much attention. After his happenchance collection grew stagnant, he began actively advertising for SALOONS, offering a minimum of, say, $10.00 for pieces he needed.

Obviously, the idea struck the fancy of many. The TAMS Journal Directory of October, 1979 list no less than 79 collectors under the category of SALOON TOKENS. It has reached a point where the word SALOON on a token will increase its' value by about 5 times, by my own conservative calculations (Civil War Storecards excluded).

The point I'm getting at is in reference to the recent controversary concerning whether a token, minus the word SALOON, but listed in a directory as such, should be labeled a SALOON TOKEN...Absolutely not! I know of no serious SALOON token collector that does not demand the word SALOON be on the piece. With this in mind, aside from establishing the era and type of business the merchant was engaged in, I feel the researchers' effort in this regard will be in vain.

Now you have my 2½¢ worth!

Some time back a collector asked about the token listed to the left. No one responded and we did not have a good copy to make an impression with.

It is heavy iron(?) and gold plated. The 20 is incused on both obverse and reverse. There had to have been a reason for this piece. Does someone know. If so please write:

HELP!!!! Does anyone know where these two "house" tokens are from? They are the type that drive me bugs in that there is enough information to make them look easy, until you start some research.

There were a lot of States who had an Edgewater, but what I need is one who had D.D. Mason or Edgewater House.

EDGEWATER HOUSE/D.D. MASON/EDGEWATER/5/Oct. Brass

What western town had a Montana and Gold street?

Any help will be appreciated.

ARIZONA DISSONANCE By JOHN T. HAMILTON III

Steve Persellin's letter in the July/August issue prompts this article.

Persellin belittles the opinion of collectors: Ainsworth, Elman, Feisel, Mickael, Weinberg and myself. I have dealt with the aforenamed collectors for many years; read their books and articles and consider them to be among the most knowledgeable of collectors. I don't know what Persellin's qualifications are and have never heard of him until recently.

For the record, Weinberg does not say the four Arizona tokens are "fakes" but that they are "fantasies". Fantasies are even more of a treat than fakes as there are no originals to compare them to.

Weinberg has done the hobby a considerable service by publishing the list as several people have already been hurt by Birt listing them in his thamphlet as genuine and at huge prices. Weinberg has done further service to the bobby by not publicly stating why they are fantasies as to do so would only give aid and comfort to the Nevada meadow muffin who makes them and tokens of Nevada and California.

The Congress and Globe A.T. tokens were the first two tokens to show up and I was the first victim. At first glance I was delighted to add them to my collection of territorial tokens. The artificial ageing and mutilation fooled me completely. So did my inability to obtain any more of them. The Lincoln Octave A.T. I have never owned as by the time it appeared I knew what to look for.

I have examined one and have no doubt it is a fraud. I also have a Copper Stain Bar and it is likewise stinko.

Persellin casts aspersion on the character of all the aforenamed collectors by stating that they change their opinion when they own a dubious token. He also states that he would like to buy all of them. I have one each (only one) of three of them and will sell them to him (or Birt) provided that they sign a statement saying I am selling them as fantasies.

Many years ago I adopted Birt's law, "The coin(token) always speaks for itself". I find it excellent advice. Put another way, never believe the seller's story or circumstance. Birt has apparently forgotten it in this case... I find it hard to believe that Birt who has examined thousands of Arizona tokens can not see what so many others do. Perhaps to reverse himself would not be in keeping with his image of ommniscience to his small circle of idolaters.

There is another controversial Arizona token: Ft. Huachuca, A.T., 5¢. On that token I think the token is genuine and agree with Birt, not Weinberg.

I was also the first collector to obtain that token. The Ft. Huachuca question whatever the truth of it is a very different case, as the disagreement is over the piece being either an original or a restrike, not a fake or fantasy. I don't regard Weinberg or others who agree with him as fools or as having intent and I trust he returns the same presumption of good will.

In fifteen years of token collecting I find the more I learn the more I am aware that I will never know even a significant percentage of all there is to know about tokens. In fact, for me, that is the biggest appeal of token collecting.

To over simplify when one has seen one proof Morgan dollar one has seen them all, but any virgin coffee can or cigar box will in all probability yield tokens previously unknown to collectors. The collective knowledge of ATCO members is staggering, but I doubt if even the most newly minted collector does not have some unique knowledge. Such is certainly not true in collecting U.S. Coins.

We all learn from each other and our hobby is not a cult. We do not need any ayatollahs who claim infallability. We can all judge for ourselves "Those who knows and those who throws".

Editor's Note: Since the Arizona suspect token controversy has been going on I have learned that Hal Birt is listing the four tokens in question as "Suspect Tokens" in his new listing.

There have been some pretty heavy challenges made and answers received. I think that the questionable token question has been pretty well settled, especially when you view the following letter from Alan Weinberg.

If some got their feet stepped on, they will heal. Mainly, we all learn from this type of discussion. Let us go on and build our token hobby.

MORE ON SUSPECT TOKENS By ALAN WEINBERG

Dear Bill: I received the enclosed letter from - - - - - - and thought you might like to use the information enclosed.

I certainly did not intend to do anything but let my fellow collectors know what tokens I, and others, believed to be suspect. I was offering a service, not attempting to beat someone into the ground.

ALAN - - -

Editor's Note: I do not have permission to publish the letter that Alan enclosed, but it is from a recognized authority on Nevada tokens and I have no doubt that what he says is the truth.

The letter contains the name of the person who is suspected of striking the tokens in Tonopah, Nevada, how he does it and how he deals in them. None of the Nevada collectors will have anything to do with the tokens he has and will not deal with him.

The writer provides the following list of suspect Nevada tokens:

Bullfrog, Nev./A. Akin, One Barrel Water/Brass 39mm
Bullfrog, Nevada/G. & K/One Drink/Sq. Alum.
Carrara, Nevada/The Ribbon Counter/6¼/Brass 21mm

Tonopah, Nev./G. Gregovich/GF 1 Drink/Brass 24mm
Tonopah, Nev./Guisti & Fall/At The 6¼¢ Bar/Alum. 23mm
Tonopah, (NEV.)/The Lobby/25¢ In Trade/WM 24mm Center Hole
Tonopah, Nev./Red Front/GF 10¢ Drink/Oct. Alum.
(Tonopah, Nev.)/Tonopah Club, Billiard & Pool Parlor/GF 12½¢ IT/Alum.21mm
Tonopah, (Nev.)/The Victor/GF 25¢ IT/Brass 26mm, Center hole
Tonopah, (Nev.)/Villa Bar/One Drink/Alum. 6 sided
Vernon, Nevada/Lee Mann/GF 5¢ IT/Alum. 23mm

The writer states that the above tokens are probably modern made and artificially aged. All have been obtained from a Tonopah source. There may be others not included above. All are fairly crude, especially on the reverse. Some of the descriptions are incomplete since I have not seen all of them. At least one example of a modern made California token has surfaced from the same source.

FINDING AN UNLISTED TOKEN IS EXCITING! By Don Valenziano #235

Being able to date that unlisted token compounds the enjoyment.

A few weeks ago I purchased a token that reads: C. TUCKHORN/& CO./ BILLIARD & POOL/TABLES/35 5th AVE/CHICAGO./Rev.: GOOD FOR/5¢/A.O. WHEELER (circled)/IN/TRADE. It caught my eye because it looked old, it was interesting, and the address seemed odd.

When I got home with my find I looked at a map of Chicago from the turn of the century. There was 5th AVE, where Wells street runs today. First step was to call City Hall where I was informed that the change was made by ordinance, December 13, 1916. Next, I visited the Chicago Historical Society library where I was directed to the Lakeside directories. Looking backwards from 1916, I found Charles Tuckhorn listed as a dealer in billiard tables at 35 5th Ave in 1886 to 1895. The years before and after he was at a different address.

Married to Caroline Tuckhorn, they made their home at 103 Warren Avenue. In 1888 the company name was changed to H & A Tuckhorn & Co., possible sons.

A. O. Wheeler is listed in the 1885 directory as being a barber at 405 State Street with his home at 515 Wabash Avenue. It appears possible that what I have is a double merchant storecard from the 19th century.

If anyone has information on this, or any other early Chicago tokens, I would enjoy hearing from you.

Editor's Note: Many of the early Billiard Suppliers furnished tokens to those who bought billiard tables of them, such as, Brunswick, Balke and Collender Co. And, it was not unusual for these old barber shops to have billiard tables. Some even had a combination of barber shop, billiards and bowling, plus a cigar stand and newsstand.

EARLY HELENA, MONTANA THEATRE TOKEN By Lew Egnew #26

Usually we make one or more trips to Montana each year looking for tokens and doing token research. On one of our 1978 trips to Helena we met Mr. Rex C. Myers of the Montana Historical Society. While we were discussing tokens, he told me of an early one which he had known of for many years. It's existance was known, but it was so elusive he had never seen a token. He gave me the particulars, it had only the issuers initials "J.T.H." and was issued by Josephine T. Hensley for use at the bar of the coliseum theatre in Helena. This was all I knew about the token. I put it all down in my pocket notebook and kept it in the back of my mind. Only recently, in 1982 while reviewing "maverick" tokens with Bob Farrell of Seattle, I ran across the token - just as described. I found my notebook, showed it to Bob and was able to add the token to my collection, and also forwarded rubbings to Mr. Myers at the Montana Historical Society.

This article was prompted by seeing the same token listed as #125 in the last issue of ATCO MAVERICKS by Dick Worthington. Some collector out there has a very desirable Helena, Montana token.

I have not yet pinned down the exact date for use of the token - but should hear soon. Being WM it is certainly an early token as indicated by the style. If the owner of this token wishes to trade it, I'm very interested - Contact me:
Lewis L. Egnew P.O. Box 123 PORT TOWNSEND, WA 98368

Dear Bill:

I wish to convey my feelings to the Alan V. Weinberg theory of thought regarding his article in the last issue of ATCO concerning "The 'For Trade Only' Phenomenon".

It is through his theory that the forestated does not own that Alaska token, because he refused to trade with me. Yes, it was I who offered a super Alaska token for trade, or bid, not only to him, but many other collectors. The true ABC's of the matter is that greed and lust were the bottleneck of trading, not Mr. Weinberg having any material to trade with.

Mr. Weinberg the "B", has good Arizona and New Mexico trade tokens which he refuses to sell, or trade. Therefore, the "B" sat stubbornly with his tokens, brooding, while I made a good deal with "C". I am sorry that Alan was nervous and all that, but it was Mr. Weinberg's refusal to trade or bid which led to his nervous enviornment, because he knew he would not get a token he wanted by his rules. Mr. Weinberg has offered me material for sale, but I felt no obligation to return the favor as his prices are outrageously high beyond "market value". Well, I am told to believe prices are "artificially high" on Post Traders, rare unique towns, territorials and other good stuff, because it is the result of trading, not market value caused by demand.

Mr. Weinberg does not buy $1400.00 territorials to use as traders for Red Goose Shoes tokens, nor do I know of other collectors guilty of paying fancy prices for tokens in hopes of a "someday" trade. If a collector does buy a token for a prearranged trade, the demand curve remains the same slope, and isn't altered to reflect artificial demand, or as Alan says, artificial high prices.

I like trading as trading has helped my collection of Arizona tokens swell to 400 different tokens in less than two years. I also enjoy the aspect in trading by communicating with people in which leads me to say as Binky feels, that trading is what a hobby is all about, not just buying tokens.

In closing, Mr. Weinberg was offered the Alaska token as per his last full page ad in ATCO, page 38, in which he notes "I will trade to obtain good tokens for those few of you that don't place any value on cash money". I guess my only guilt is taking Mr. Weinberg up on his offer because I had a token of particular interest to Mr. Weinberg, not to myself.

Sincerely,

Bob Temarantz

Dear Editor: I have something to say, here it is:

I feel that when a collector runs a mail bid sale, he should only accept a good firm bid, and not accept any bids that increase the bids to 20% or 50% over, or whatever it takes to win the bid.

I do not feel this is fair to our fellow collectors, and that running a mail bid with this kind of bidding should not be allowed.

Good tokens are difficult enough to find, and when this kind of bidding is allowed, the collector does not have a fair chance to up-grade his collection.

Think this over, and let's all run a good and fair mail bid sale. I would like to hear other comments on this from the bidders who have lost tokens to this kind of bidding.

TEXAS COUNTERFEIT TOKENS By Leo J. Warren #282

I notice that quite a number of dealers and collectors in ATCO continue to run some of these tokens in their lists as genuine. These are modern fantasies or counterfeits whichever you care to call them and were expressly made to deceive the collector. They were struck to the order of one J. R. Luker of Houston, Texas some 12 to 15 years ago, by some jack-leg die-sinker down in Louisiana.

Mr. Luker is now dead - God Rest His Soul. Outside of this sin against token collectors he seemed like a fairly decent man. Any advanced Texas token collector can testify to the above facts.

I have the following "Luker" tokens in hand and will describe them:

(1) The/Little/Bar/Houston, Tex./Rev: GF/5¢/In Trade/Rd. Alum. 23mm
(2) J.R./Luker/Houston, Texas/Rev: 25¢ (in bar) In Trade/Rd. Alum. 29mm
(3) Bevo's/Place/Lott, Texas/50¢ (in bar) In Trade/ This particular token has "R S" on the obverse which is supposed to mean "Restrike". He was forced to punch this on the ones he had left in stock after collectors complained and legal authorities pressed him. The worse thing about the above token is that he conned someone in TAMS to write a rather lengthy article about the token and to the best of my knowledge it was never stated that the tokens were counterfeits. Of course, it is quite possible Mr. Luker could have found an original from his home town of Lott, Texas and this is what the TAMS people saw for their write-up. He then had copies made of the original.
(4) Jim Watkin/Rosebud, Texas/Rev: In Trade/15¢/ Rd. Brass 26mm
(5) Pete's/Saloon/On/Square/Waco, Tex/Rev: Good/12½/For/Rd. Brass 26mm

There are probably others that I do not have or recall at the moment. They are not difficult to recognize in that they look modern and the die work is very poor. The phrasing on the "Good For" part does not follow the patterns used by an experienced die-sinker.

TO CLEAN OR NOT TO CLEAN TOKENS

By Ed Kampen

Having been a coin collector for many years, one of the big sins in the hobby is to clean a coin of value. Is it also a no-no to clean tokens, especially those made of brass???? Of course it is O.K. to clean the dirt off coins and tokens. Did you ever see a dirty coin in a dealer's case?

In a recent newsletter a prominent token collector suggested using a suede brush with brass bristles to clean tokens that have rust or light corrosion. I tried that but did not care for the scratches and the general appearance of the token after cleaning.

My wife dabbles some in antiques and collectables and often cleans brass items. When I have had a tough looking brass token and wanted it cleaned, I would turn it over to my wife who seemed to do a good job of cleaning. The other day I asked her to show me the method. Here's what she does (and I have tried it): Into a cup or other glass or china container which can stand the harsh cleaner, put enough SAN-TEEN (de-limer and toilet bowl cleaner) to cover the tokens to be cleaned. Handle the stuff with care!! It acts like acid and is poison. When the tokens appear clean (in a minute or so), rinse in clear water and transfer to an old wash cloth Sprinkle Comet or a similiar cleaner on the token and rub with the corner of the wash cloth until rust, etc. is removed. Rinse token and dry with a cleancloth or towel. (Pour back the solvent used into the container and use again).

I suspect that this method of cleaning tokens is too drastic and most token collectors will (or should) avoid cleaning except for dirt, tar, etc. The Patina built up on brass tokens by natural oxidation tells something of its age and enhances its beauty.

Is there a standard that is used by seasoned token collectors in regard to cleaning tokens? If so, haven't heard about it.

EDITOR'S NOTE: THE CLEANING OF TOKENS, I FEEL, IS A DECISION OF EACH INDIVIDUAL TOKEN COLLECTOR. I CLEAN MY DIRTY AND CORRODED TOKENS.

I'm a little more rough on tokens than the prominent token collector mentioned in paragraph two and maybe a little less rough than Ed Kampen.

I use brass bristle pot scrubbers to clean brass tokens, plus Ivory dish soap. It does a good job and if done lightly will make the tokens look beautiful. If they have corrosion or stains I use plain old TWINKLE copper cleaner which can be found at any grocery store. After rubbing the token with Twinkle with my thumb and fingers I rinse and then rub with the brass brush. I can take the most rotten looking old brass token and turn it into a token that looks like it came right off the stamp press. Some collectors would not care for this appearance as it would take away from the old look of the token, but I'd rather have a nice looking token that a dirty old mess.

If it is a token that has been buried and is not to badly corroded and a brass brush will not take the corrosion off I put it on a red hot coil of an electric stove for about a minute and then pick it up with tweezers and immerse into a cup of cold water. This chatters the corrosion off and then I brush with a brass brush. There is danger to this if the token is badly corroded in that you may chatter everything off the token - name and all, and you have an awful looking piece of brass. NEVER, NEVER DO THIS AN ALUMINUM TOKEN. THE EARLY ALUMINUM TOKENS WILL MELT!!!

On aluminum tokens I use only a nylon brush and Ivory dish soap. A light, A LIGHT brushing with a brass brush will take off the frosty look

NADIN-DAVIS RELEASE 1983 TRADE DOLLAR CATALOGUE

Nadin-Davis Numismatics of Ottawa, Ontario, have announced the release of the 1983 edition of "Canadian Trade Dollars". The acknowledged leading checklist for all trade dollar collectors, the booklet is available for $2 postpaid from Box 95, Ottawa, Canada K1N 8V1. The print will be limited to 200 copies: the 1982 edition sold out in less than four months, and demand is expected to be heavy for the new edition.

The 1983 edition of "Canadian Trade Dollars" contains listings for all issues available to the end of 1982, including some issues dated up to 1985! As such it outstrips all other available checklists of these fascinating and inexpensive pieces. The Nadin-Davis list also scrupulously lists major new discoveries, some unknown even until May 1982, and has been anxiously awaited by collectors now feeling the inadequacy of the 1982 edition.

Some new features, and several familiar facets, characterize the 1983 edition. The authors have developed an unique characterization for the pieces of questionable status and/or special manufacture, resulting in an organization of the book into six parts: Basic Type Municipal Trade Pieces, Private Issues, Plated Issues, Trade Note Issues, "Minor Die Varieties" and Restruck Issues. The inclusion of the section on die varieties is particularly helpful in avoiding over-complication of the main listing by minor varieties of interest only to regional specialists, and the section listing restrikes will be valuable indeed in assisting collectors to avoid the pitfalls created by the practice of restriking key items recently undertaken by at least one major supplier. Not only are all known restrikes listed, but issues known to have been restruck are highlighted in the main listings to caution collectors using the work as a reference in the excitement of the bourse or in the comfort of their homes.

The book contains some surprises for seasoned collectors. Su Nadin-Davis, the "brains" behind the project, is reputed to have one of the largest and most complete collections of trade dollars in the world, and also has a busy dealership specializing in these pieces. As a result, there are few new discoveries either of unknown types or special varieties which escape her attention.

Continuing the tradition of the first and second editions, the booklet also contains annotations of rarity for key pieces in the main listing, with recent auction records where available. In the "plated" section and the listing of paper issues, mintages (where available) are given in parentheses. Finally, the authors have scrupulously gathered information on municipal trade pieces with values other than one dollar, and reveal their findings with regard to off-metal strikes and private issues of pieces ranging in face value from 25 cents to $5.00.

Mrs. Nadin-Davis's standard catch-phrase, "exonumists are the last of the real numismatists" appears on her lists, gently poking fun at her world coin specialist husband. Certainly, her continuing efforts on behalf of trade dollar collectors, manifested in the production of this handy (5 x 4 inch) checklist and guide, qualify her for both titles. It is an invaluable guide to collectors of Canadian trade dollars the world over, and should be on the reference shelf of every serious exonumist.

A SOLUTION FOR A MINNEAPOLIS MAVERICK

By Cal Woods

Most exonumists (junk pickers) have spent hours in plowing thru flea market junk boxes only to find nothing interesting. Now and then an item is about to dribble out of your hand when you have to give it a second glance. It is usually a seemingly insolvable maverick and you pass it up. I don't know why a thought to buy this little aluminum token that looked modern, probably because the dealer wanted a dime for it.

Weeks or months later I gave it more than a glance in my mavericks, and found that is read:

O.D.H.S./HALL/1429-2nd St., N.E.
Rev: ONE/FREE/GAME
20mm, round aluminum

The token looked unusual and the lettering looked fairly modern, san seriff style but there were no other tip-offs. It then occured to me that there is a 2nd Street Northeast in Minneapolis. Could I work from street addresses to find something that would make these initials speak? Directories from the 40's onward told nothing except that there was such a street address of a vacant house. But that was a bit of verification that drove me on.

Finally, in a Polks directory of the 30's under the address listings I found that at 1429-2nd Street, N.E. in Minneapolis was a listing for ORDER DAS HERMAN SOHNES. This had to be the German language. A good deal of research with the Minneapolis Public Library revealed that this was a German-American Club that existed in the 20's and 30's, prior to Wold War II. Many German-Americans were under a witch-hunt type of suspicion in Minneapolis by vigilante groups, and were rounded up for questioning. This certainly accounts for Order Das Herman Sohnes disappearing from the directories after the late 30's. This club was entitled Fortschrit No. 4. Evidently there were three other branches around town. There was a ladies auxiliary, and as far as I could tell, it was strictly social, without any dark political implications. The Free Game on the reverse was probably pool or bowling, as the light aluminum seems to rule out being a pin-ball or slot machine chip.

My only point to all this is, it is possible, with bull-dog tenacity, to run down mavericks that seems impossible at first blush.

"THE MARSHFIELD (HOTEL), MARSHFIELD, OREGON"

By Your Editor

I have reason to believe that this token has been wrongly attributed and is in actuality a MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA TOKEN. Today I received the third piece of this token. All are alike (except for one that had two holes punched in it), all came from Minnesota (two from Minneapolis and one from St. Paul) and at three different times over the past 10 years.

Also, each has the following small stamping on the obverse: WM'SON MP'LS. The maker, therefore must have been WILLIAMSON OF MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA.

That is pretty good evidence for putting the token into Minneapolis, unless someone else has some strong reasen for the Marshfield, Oregon attribution????????

MINNESOTA SALOON TOKENS By Richard McFerran

I read, with great interest, the recent article by Cal Woods (ATCO, Vol. one, number four, Page 8) regarding Minneapolis and Minnesota Saloon tokens.

A careful review of my own collection of Minnesota tokens yielded only 20 different Saloon tokens, including two modern plastics. While it appears that Minnesota Saloon tokens might not be quite as rare as Cal suggests, they are still very difficult to find and, individually, all are scarce to rare.

While I don't know the contents of the various collections of Saloon tokens held by various specialists, I would venture a "guess" that only 30 to 40 different Minnesota Saloon tokens are known to collectors at present.

For the record, and to assist cataloguers of these interesting pieces I've listed the 20 Minnesota Saloon tokens I have.

I would appreciate listings from other collectors. Let's see just how many really exist.

COLLECTING MUNICIPAL CANADIAN TRADE DOLLARS - AN INTERESTING AND INEXPENSIVE NEW HOBBY -

By JERRY REMICK ATCO #307

Some 730 Trade Dollars have been issued by 220 Canadian Municipalities since the first one was issued in 1960. During 1982, 78 Canadian Municipalities issued trade dollars. Mintages range from 2,000 to 200,000 per issue, with most being in the 5,000 to 25,000 range. Almost two million trade dollars were struck in 1982.

During the past three years the hobby of collecting these trade dollars has become quite popular in the United States and Canada. There are now somewhat over 1,000 collectors of Canadian trade dollars and six dealers issuing price lists on them. About 20% or more reside in the United States.

There is a great range in design on trade dollars including portraits of famous Canadians and Indians, municipal crests, animals, fish, birds, ships, automobiles, trains, air planes, festivalscenes, flowers, agricultural scenes and various mascots and charicatures.

Trade dollars are a good investment as mintages for quite a few issues are 5,000 or less. Several 1980 issues are now selling for upwards of $10.00. A number of earlier issues which were selling for $5.00 or less a few years ago when interest was just beginning in the trade dollars series are bringing upwards of $25.00 or more at auction. However, collectors should not be discouraged by the higher prices for some issues as there are a great many issues available at $1.50 or slightly more. Most dealers offer beginner's collections at most reasonable prices. Also, collectors have about 100 different yearly issues to choose from as some municipalities issue more than one trade dollar each year.

A trade dollar is a community coin, issued under the authority of the local municipal government and is valid as currency or in trade at stores in the issuing municipality for a period of several weeks to an entire year. The dates they are valid is inscribed on the dollar. In actual practice, few are spent. Most are retained as souvenirs by tourists or as keepsakes by residence of the issuing municipality. In addition, over 1,000 of each issue now goes to dealers and collectors.

Trade dollars are issued to mark a municipal festival, sporting event or important anniversary; as a yearly souvenir for tourists; to mark a municipal project for the restoration of a building of historical interest, or to commemorate a great Canadian. Nearly all pieces are of $1.00 denomination, however a few issues of $2.00 pieces are made each year for issues with mintages of 1,000 to 3,000.

Only a few cities in the United States now issue trade dollars yearly.

23d ARTILLERY GROUP (FIELD ARTILLERY) By JOHN R. SHILLINGLAW

The 23d Artillery Group arrived in Vietnam 16 November 1965 and was part of the 2nd Field Force Vietnam Artillery. It served at Phu Loi until May 1971 when it was moved to Long Binh. Other artillery battalions that served at one time or another under the 23d Artillery Group Control were:

6th Bn., 2d Artillery	1st. Bn., 27th Artillery
7th Bn., 9th Artillery	6th B., 27th Artillery
7th Bn., 9th Artillery	2nd Bn., 32d Artillery
2nd Bn., 11th Artillery	2nd Bn., 35th Artillery
2nd Bn., 12th Artillery	5th Bn., 42d Artillery
2nd Bn., 13th Artillery	3d Bn., 197th Artillery
4th Bn., 15th Artillery

The 23d Artillery Group was previously stationed at Ft. Lewis, Washington. Its authorized strength was:

	1966	1968	1970
Headquarters & Headquarters Battalion (HHB)	114	114	141

The 23d Artillery Group departed Vietnam 28 January 1972.

Tokens used in their club were Curto #R209

The 5th Bn. of the 2d Artillery arrived in Vietnam in November 1966 from its previous station, Fort Bliss, Texas. Its authorized strength was:

	698	692	667

The 8th Bn. of the 2d Artillery was a self-propelled automatic weapons battalion consisting of M42A1 dual 40mm antiaircraft guns mustered from Reserve and National Guard assest to be utilized in a ground support role. The battalion, serving with II Field Force Vietnam Artillery, arrived at Cai Mara and located to Long Binh. It was augmented with a battery of .50 Cal quad machine guns, Battery D, 71st Artillery. It departed Vietnam on 22 June 1971.

The 7th Bn. of the 8th Artillery arrived in Vietnam on 29 June 1967 from its previous station, Ft. Sill, Oklahoma. Its authorized strength was 505. It departed Vietnam 27 July 1971.

The 7th Bn. of the 8th Artillery ("Automatic Eighth") was originally an 8-inch self-propelled M110 howitzer battalion but was later converted in early 1969. It was located at Bear Cat with the 54th Artillery Group but moved to Bien Hoa on 14 October 1967, where it remained until it departed Vietnam. However, the battalion was transferred to the control of II Field Force Vietnam Artiller on 17 October 1969, and served the 23d Artillery Group from May 1971 until redeployment.

The 7th Bn. of the 9th Artillery arrived in Vietnam on 23 October 1966 from its previous station, Fort Riley, Kansas. Authorized strength for this battalion was 529 (1968).

The 7th Bn. of the 9th Artillery ("The Mighty Ninth") was a towed 105mm howitzer battalion under the control of the 54th Artillery Group of II Field Force, Vietnam during the majority of its Vietnam Service. It arrived at Phu Loi and moved on 13 November 1966 to Bear Cat, where it remained until being relocated to Tay Ninh on 15 August 1969, and came under the 23d Artillery Group's Control there until it departed Vietnam 1 April 1970.

The 2d B. of the 11th Artillery arrived in Vietnam on 13 December 1966 from its previous station, Fort Campbell, Kentucky. Its authorized strength was 598.

The 2d Bn of the 11th Artillery ("Dragon Regiment") was a towed 155mm howitzer battalion at Dau Tieng which saw service first as part of II Field Force Vietnam Artillery and later was Task Force OREGON. It was deployed to Duc Pho on 19 April 1967, Bien Hoa in January 1968 and on 8 March 1968 to I CTZ and 23rd Artillery Group's control at Gia Le.

On 10 June 1968 it was assigned to the 101st Airbourn Division.

The 2d Bn. of the 12th Artillery arrived in Vietnam on 13 September 1969 from its previous station, Fort Lewis, Washington. It departed Vietnam 29 August 1971 and it authorized strength was 598.

The 2nd Bn of the 12th Artillery was activated in 1969 using the assests of the New Hampshire National Guard's 3d Bn., 197th Artillery when the latter unit left Vietnam. It was composed of towed 155mm howitzers and was stationed at Phu Loi, assigned to the 23d Artillery Group. It rendered support for the 1st Cavalry Division.

With an authorized strength of 523 (1966), 529 (1968) the 2d Bn of the 13th Artillery arrived in Vietnam from its previous station, Fort Sill, Oklahoma on 30 October 1965.

The 2d Bn., of the 13th Artillery ("The Clan") was assigned to the 23d Artillery Group of II Field Force, Vietnam and composed of towed 105mm howitzers. Upon arrival at Tan Son Nhut it was posted to Phu Loi on 11 December 1965. On 6January 1967 it relocated to Tay Ninh, but in December was posted to Saigon. It then returned to Phu Loi. This Bn. formed a "Jungle Battery" (Battery D) composted of mixed 105/155 mm howitzers from the assests of its Battery A, with 155mm weapons out of Battery B, 3d Bn., 197th Artillery. It departed Vietnam on 16 March 1970.

The 6th Bn. of the 15th Artillery arrived in Vietnam 22 May 1967 from its previous station, Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Its authorized strength was 529. This battalion (The "Indianheads") was a towed 105mm howitzer Bn. initially placed at Lai Khe and attached to the 1st Infantry Division there. The battalion was transferred on 15 July 1968 to the 23d Artillery Group and posted to Tan Son Nhut and then to Tay Ninh. On 15 August 1969, with the 54th Artillery Group, it was located to Long Thanh, and on 21 October 1969 it was assigned directly to II Field Force Vietnam Artillery. It departed Vietnam 22 November 1969.

The 1st Bn. of the 27th Artillery was a 155mm self-propelled M109 howitzer battalion which arrived in Vietnam from its previous station, Fort Sill, Oklahoma on 14 April 1967 with an authorized strength of 537. It was attached to the 23d Artillery Group of the II Field Force, Vietnam. The battalion served at Phu Loi until November 1967 when it was moved to Dau Tieng. On 7 February 1970 the unit left Dau Tieng and located to Cu Chi, where it remained until departing Vietnam on 4 December 1970. Its primary function was to reinforce the 25th Infantry Division.

Conclusion of this article will be in the October issue. As you can see, this token fits into a lot of different states as it was used by these groups who were from a number of different states. Editor.

"THE MEDIA OF EXCHANGE USED BY OUR PENAL INSTITUTIONS"
By Jerry Zara, P.O. Box 248, Brick, N.J. 08723

The State Of Illinois has reported the use of special tickets issued for the purchase of ice cream, milk and pie. These tickets are limited to seven milk, two ice cream and one pie ticket per week. There are exceptions, when a holiday will fall in a given week. These tickets are filled out by the inmate, delivered to the commisary clerk the day prior to the requested delivery date. The requested items are delivered to the cellhouse runner and distributed to each inmate by the runner the day of requested delivery.

Some tokens were distributed for a specific purpose, such as those of the Anamosa Men's Reformatory, Anamosa, Iowa. There is a ten-cent token strictly for ice cream; a twenty-cent token for soda; and a thirty-five and fifty-cent token for the movies. Each token is so marked.

While most tokens were in payment for work received, the Mississippi State Penitentiary had some that were issuedfor blood, called "Brozines". The inmates voluntarily gave plasma and in return would receive $4.00 in Brozines; $1.00 put into their savings account; and $1.50 would be put into the Vocational School Fund. This is the only source of income for the supplies and materials used by the eighteen departments of the Vocational School, located at the penitentiary for the inmates. It is also the only source of income for a number of the inmates.

There are also tokens that visitors must use for transporation to and from the insitutions. There are some issued for newspapers and magazines only.

Some tokens were issued for a very short period of time for experimental use, and quickly withdrawn. While others were manufactured and never issued, such as those of Deer Lodge of Montana, where 100 pieces were struck for a trial order. While the State of Utah issued their tokens, but withdrew them within the year.

At Nevada State Prisons, on the outside of Las Vegas and Reno, gambling was legal up until 1965. The gambling laws however were controlled by the Prison. The inmates used brass tokens in denominations of one-cent through five-dollars. The only games allowed were cards; stud or draw poker; low-ball, or "21". A dealer (inmate) purchased a table for seventy-five cents a week, and split his take with the prison. The prison in return used the money to purchase items for the recreation area. Players were limited to a withdrawal of brass tokens up to the amount of $20.00 a week, from their personal accounts.

Nevada's tokens were reported as being used the longest, probably prior to 1900. They were also minted as late as 1962, and came in round and octagon shapes. It has been reported that they were retired when scrip came into use in 1967. All tokens withdrawn from the inmates were offered to the public, at a special sale price. All money received from the sale was used for the recreation fund.

Editor's Note: We promised a conclusion in our last issue but in order for shorter articles we will conclude Jerry's article in the October issue

FORD KNIGHT - - -
I just received a short note from Ford Knight. He is still in and out of the hospital and is not feeling well. Letters and cards from some of the members would certainly be appreciated by Ford. Ford is member #173. A few minutes writing a short note to Ford would be super medicine!!!!!

TOPICALS OF EVERY KIND

FROM SUSAN NADIN-DAVIS, BOX 95, STATION A, OTTAWA, CANADA K1N 8V1

Hi again! If you're a topical collector, and would like to add a new dimention to your collection, allow me to introduce, or re-introduce, you to the Canadian trade dollar. With over 700 different types issued, over a period of some two decades now, there's almost bound to be at least one piece that falls right within your area of interest. On our mailing list are people who collect angling, canoes, ships, motor vehicles, planes, Indian themes, churches - in fact just about anything crops up from time to time on these inexpensive pieces. So, to give you an idea, we've listed a good sampling of trade dollars below, with an indication of the theme represented on each one. And please, write me if your theme does not appear - I'm real hopeful that I'd be able to find something for you!

Terms of sale appear at the end of this ad. By the way, you can subscribe to my almost-monthly (at least ten a year) lists (including exonumia auctions) for just $5 per year. And I'm always in the market for all sorts of material - please see my ad in last ATCO Bulletin.

Now for the goodies. My best wishes to all fellow token-nuts.

Welcome! Welcome to our November sale of Canadian and world exonumia, as fine a selection of tokens, medals and miscellaneous material as it's ever been our privilege to offer. You'll allow us, no doubt, to say a few words about various pieces as we go along. Whatever you collect, from almost any part of the world, you're going to find something to interest you here. Please go right on ahead and send in your bids, and we'll do our best to see that you get something you will be proud to add to your collection. And if we don't hear from you in the mail or by telephone, we look forward greatly to seeing you in Toronto. Now, on with the show!

PRIMITIVE AND UNUSUAL MONEY

1. Canada Nail, yes, a simple iron hand-made nail. One of the earliest forms of common currency in Canada due to their scarcity, this believed removed from the wreck of an old wooden ship in the Red River, Winnipeg. Weak spot in middle. (12)

2. China "Coin Charm". S13 type. Replica of Northern Chou Dynasty (561-577) Wu Hsing Ta Pu -S246. Rx snake, sword, turtle, constellation. 31 mm, 7.37 gm. Two lead plugs in casting imperfections, F. (15)

3. Siam "Bullet Money", 1 Baht, Rama IV (Mongkut). C-137, 14.61 gm. Fine. (30)

4. Zaire. Katanga Cross in copper. A cross-shaped cast copper ingot, used in the former province of Katanga for hundreds of years, both in ordinary commercial transactions and in wife-purchasing ceremonies! Measuring nearly 8 by 8 inches, a quite magnificent, nicely patinated example with no encrustation. Becoming very difficult to obtain as these are now classified as "heritage property" in Zaire. Current market in Belgium, the centre for this kind of art, is 5,000 Francs. XF. (150)

PRE-CONFEDERATION FOREIGN COIN CIRCULATED IN CANADA

5. France. 5 sols of Louis XIII, dated 1643a, Thimonier 611. VF/F. A piece similar in design and appearance to the Edict piece of 1670, which almost certainly circulated in Canada prior to the edict. (85)

CANADIAN BRETON TOKENS AND MEDALS

6. B-102. Quebec Governor-General's medal, in silver, L.A. Jette, 1898-1908. Very scarce, unfortunately mounted on reverse. Obv. toned VF+ and quite attractive. (75)

7. B-103. Quebec Governor-General's Medal, J.I. Tarte, in Bronze. Rx. Paris 1900 Exposition Internationale, wreath, beaver. Toned EF. (40)

14. B-517a, rev.B-511a. Restrike in silver, AU. (25)

15. B-517a, rev.B-511a. As last, EF. (25)

16. B-519a, restrike of "Eagles in flight" jeton in silver. EF, lt carbon spots on obv. (25)

17. B-526a. Mule Bank of Montreal Penny, dated 1837, but with City Bank on ribbon. A rare Quebec token, in nice VF+ condition but with typical roughness at the edges. (175)

18. B-527. Bank of Montreal 1/2d 1844, EF/AU, small rim nick. (16)

19. B-520. Magdalen Island penny, VG for this type. Usually found with severe edge knocks when located even in lower grades, this piece surprisingly has none, and virtually all legends clear. (75)

20. B-563. Montreal, Mullins 1/2d. About Fine, and quite scarce. Underrated in Haxby. (25)

21. B-569a. Devins and Bolton counterstamp, F, on U.S.A. large cent, 1846, G. (20)

22. B-569a, Devins & Bolton counterstamp on U.S.A. 1c, 1853. F on VF. (14)

23. B-609. Quebec, Montreal Witness penny, "Time of our Lord". In aluminium. VF, with a rim chip emanating from poor manufacture from 1 to 2 o'clock on obverse. (16)

24. B-720. Bank of Upper Canada 1/2 penny, 1852. About EF, but cleaned (?) leaving some scratching in centre. Nevertheless very attractive. (6)

25. B-720. Bank of Upper Canada 1/2 penny, 1854. VF with small rim nick, but showing an unusual and very interesting die crack. (5)

. B-720. Bank of Upper Canada 1/2d, 1857. F, a slightly scarcer date. (8)
. B-732. Province of Upper Canada 1/2d, 832. VG, still plenty detail on portrait. (9)
. B-853. Halifax. Jas Christie, Scotch akery, 1 loaf. VF, brass. Scarce. (16)
. B-854. As last, but for 1/2 loaf. VF-EF, old lettering. (16)

. B-859. British Colonies Anchor Money. 8 dolla 1822, VF-EF with light steel toning, ery attractive. (18)
. B-871. Nova Scotia 1/2d, 1832. VG+, mnick. (6)
. B-872d. Nova Scotia 1/2d 1832/1382, arce overdate. Fine for issue. (35)
. B-875a. Nova Scotia 1d, 1856 L.C.W., with -engraved date. VF, edge bump but very easing light overall colour. (13)
. B-876. Nova Scotia 1/2d. EF or better, ated 1856, some original colour. (18)
. B-883. Halifax, Hosterman & Etter 1/2 enny 1815. VF, cleaned. However, this piece splays the most unusual lamination or die- eak, dating from original striking. Probably nique, a most significant error. (35)
. B-909. New Brunswick penny, 1843, F/EF. he ship side is quite magnificent! (20)
. B-910. New Brunswick 1/2 penny, 1843. F+. (10)
. B-911. New Brunswick 1d, 1854. VG+. (6)
. B-919. P.E.I. 1c, 1855/55. The overdate ariety, Courteau-43. Really nice EF. (12)
. B-921. P.E.I. 1/2 penny token - ship, no ate (issued 1858). F-VF. (8)
. B-921, P.E.I. Ship/Fisheries and griculture token, F/VG. Sold with Bouquet sou, -704, Fine. (9)

55. B-various, bulk lot. 22 copper pieces, mainly Breton tokens G-F (2 culls). Also includes one British token, 2 U.S. large cents, one confederation medal. Est. $70 retail, $50 wholesale. (60)

LEROUX TOKENS AND MEDALS

 We are proud indeed to present the following selection of Le Roux material. One of the country's leading collectors, who recently viewed this material on its way to auction, commented that he had not seen any dealer with such a high-quality lot of Le Roux material for years. And he'd been busy looking for it! We realize the descriptions may not always to sufficient to tell you what you wish to know about these pieces - so please call us any time and ask us -or leave your questions on our answering machine for a prompt response!

RAY MORTIMEYER P.O. BOX 545 CUBA, MO. 65453

TERRITORIALS, POST TRADERS & SALOONS

I'm a serious collector of Territorial tokens from Wyoming (W.T.), the Dakotas (D.T.), Montana (M.T.), Arizona (A.T.), Washington (W.T.) and most other Territorials ... except for Oklahoma. I will pay $200.00 and up for ANY Territorial token and into 4 figures ($1,000 plus) for the rarest of the rare.

Also wanted: Post Traders, Saloon tokens (including saloon "mavericks" ... send 'em on ... I'll pay good money for saloon mavericks), early classic style military tokens, and rare Alaska tokens - particularly the gold nugget tokens. I'm quite willing and able to pay TCP market price. Contact me.

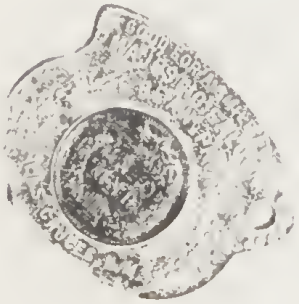

I also avidly collect mavericks and will pay good prices for your accumulations of nice old mavericks ... one or hundreds of 'em. I'm not afraid to pay $5, $10 or much more for a maverick that has a nice style and appeals to me.

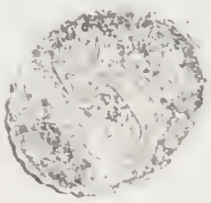

Note: I will also trade to obtain good tokens for those few of you that don't place any value on cash money.

HAVE YOU FORGOTTEN TO SEND YOUR $5.00 DUES ASSESSMENT TO ATCO?????

Your Editor: Bill Clapper

Editor's Page - - -

FIRST, I wish to thank all those members who so generously sent in $5.00 or more to help ATCO. I cannot say enough for you!!!! Some even renewed their membership for 1983 and that is called SUPPORT! I could not print all the letters. There were just to many of them. JUST THANKS!!!

FOR THOSE WHO DID NOT RESPOND I hope that it was just a case of not reading my last editorial or you put it off and did not get around to mailing $5.00 to ATCO.

Our plea was genuine and we need your help!

I did not go into the editorship of ATCO as an expert, but someone trying to do what I and others felt was needed for the hobby. We learn by experience. I'm just a regular person like everyone else, maybe with a few more talents than some and less than others.

There is nothing that will "kill off" enthusiasm more than some members who do not realize the amount of work involved in putting out a publication like ATCO, and so they just sit back and do nothing. I put in no less than 80 hours a month on ATCO.

I'm in no way gripping about the amount of time, etc. I love doing what I'm doing, but I need the support of those who have not answered. O.K.?

Enough said!

There were some excellent letters and suggestions and those who wrote them are to be commended for their interest in making ATCO a number ONE organization.

We are getting good and interesting articles and more are promised. Our November issue should be an excellent one. Thanks to you members!

* DEADLINE FOR ALL ADS IS THE 20TH OF THE MONTH!

ARTICLES ARE ENCOURAGED! We have not heard from a lot of states.

There are some mighty interesting tokens in the collections of every collector that other collectors would like to hear about. There are some interesting aspects of collecting that many new collectors would be interested in. How about it?

Your Editor

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill: Enclosed is my check for $5.00. I hope that most of the members come up with it as I would hate to see ATCO go down the drain. You're doing a fantastic job - many thanks!

Will repeat a suggestion that I have written to AVA, TAMS, METCA, etc. A few years ago I saw a postcard collectors roster. They had astericks alongside collectors names that didn't wish to correspond. I've written to a number of collectors who had ads in ATCO and also to the new members some who had a lot of !!!! after their collecting interests without getting the courtesy of a reply. If a collector doesn't wish to correspond for trading, fine, but they shouldn't run ads and give those that do run ads a pain in the neck with rubbings, postage, etc. There are serious collectors out here. Do hope you'll consider this. Many thanks.

Philip Mandel

Editor's Note: We can do this with the new form membership card that we will have with the January issue.

Dear Bill: I agree that you should keep a confidential list of deadbeats, slow payers, no payers, etc. If three or more complaints appear then that person should be expelled from ATCO.

Richard McFerran - ATCO Director

Dear Bill: I was so enthused by your wonderful new ATCO Journal that I wrote it up for the current issue of Canadian Coin News which has the date of August 24, 1982. I enclose a copy. I'm sure you will get a few subscriptions from our 27,000 readers in the USA and CANADA.

I also sent data to 7 of our dealers in trade dollars and urged them to join and take out a ½ or 1 page ad.

Jerry Remick - Ste-Foy, P.Q., Canada.

Editor's Note: THANKS JERRY!

Dear Bill: The Louisiana Catalog will be available very soon and the information will be available in regard to a pre-publication price and an expected date of delivery. I'll let you know just as soon as I hear anything so that you can publish the information in ATCO. THANKS

*LOUIS CRAWFORD

Dear Bill: How about running a little series on which states still need catalogues for merchant tokens, who's working on them, etc. For example, is anyone doing Vermont.

Also, I'm trying to complete a decent state collection of Merchant Tokens and rarely see New Hampshire, Vermont, Maine, Conn., etc. How Come?

FRED ZINKANN

Editor's Note: Well, Fred, you asked a couple good questions. The last question I can't answer but maybe some of our members can.

With regard to the cataloguing of states. That information can come from the members also, and if those who are doing updates of states or are in the process of cataloguing states will send in the information I'll publish a page or what ever it takes to bring everyone up to date as to what is going on in that area. O.K.?

Dear Bill:

First, here is $5 for my additional dues. Next, here is my ad for the next issue.

FINALLY, I'd like to comment on the plan to keep a list of collectors whom dealers report as a problem. (Editor's Note: I did not use the word "dealers". The bulk of our mail bids are from collectors). While I'm sure that the intent of the plan is noble, I question the ethics of it.

As I understand the plan, a dealer will merely give the name of a collector with whom he has had problems. The dealer will get to tell his side of the story. What ever happened to the concept of "guilty until proven innocent"? Doesn't everyone deserve a "trial"?

I don't think that a secret list is a solution. I've sensed for a long time that there is a need for an arbitrating committee to help members resolve problems, etc., and maybe that is the solution. Or, maybe there should be an ethics committee who would receive complaints, investigate them and keep a record of the results. Whatever comes to pass, there has to be a chance for both parties in any dispute to give their sides of the story.

Gary Ascher - - -

Editor's Note: If two of the directors and three members (including you, Gary) will volunteer to be the ethics committee, we will have an ethics committee.

So, let's have some volunteers. When the names come in I'll forward a form letter to those who volunteered and they can select a chairperson. Any complaints that come in can come directly to the chairperson or to the editor. The Chairperson can send copies of the complaints to the members of the committee for action. O.K.?

Dear Bill:

I am really enjoying the open discussions. There were a couple letters in the editors pages that I would like to comment on.

First, Mr. Weinberg's letter about the phony Nevada tokens. I think the person who is doing this injustice to our hobby should be brought into the light by publishing his name. Those of us who do not know him and the unsuspecting new collector is going to be hurt eventually if he is allowed to remain in business.

Second, I am 100% behind the person that put the letter in about persons not honoring their commitments to mail bid auctions.

Third, I would like to comment on Mr. Calhoun's letter. I fully agree with him as I have lost tokens to this type of bidding myself. In fact, I find myself bidding higher in an auction that reduces your bids to a certain amount over the second highest bid.

And, finally, the token I put in the "odd & unusual" section of the last issue was identified by George Hosek as Lincoln, Nebraska. It is for trade.

Please keep up the good work with ATCO. I am enclosing a check for $5.00 to help ATCO out of the hole!!!

Lee Bowker ATCO #111

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill: Enclosed is my check for $5.00 additional dues. I'm very happy to pay this, as ATCO is a bargain at any price! If you need more $$ don't hesitate to ask for it. Or, have an ATCO auction with tokens donated by members & 100% of the proceeds going to ATCO? I would be happy to donate a token to a worthy cause! THANKS AND KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK!

Cindy Grellman - -

Editor's Note: You are a sweet lady! We received many letters like that from Cindy. Will comment on other letters, etc., in my editorial toward the end of the month.

Dear Bill: I agree with you that you did just right in meeting ATCO's financial problem head on. Any right thinking business person should have known (and now they do) that one cannot pay all the high postage rates, envelopes, etc., and deliver a first class book for a little $9.00 dues a year.

Even at $15.00 a year, I think you are going to be cutting it thin because you are delivering "QUALITY".

If a man is a real token collector he won't hesitate to pay $25.00 a year, so I am certain that few, if any, will drop out because of the yearly dues.

Enclosed is my check for $5.00, and this is getting off light.

Gene Whittington

Editor's Note: Thank you Gene. Like any new business, you don't know what is ahead until you get there. We knew what we wanted and what the collectors wanted, but we did not know what the cost would be to reach that point, until we reached it.

Dear Bill:

Here is my $5.00 assessment on the dues. I don't mind paying it because we have too good a thing going to fold up for lack of a little cash from each member. I, for one, and I'm sure every member feels the same way, that you are doing a bang up job and putting in a lot of hard work.

William A. Kelly

Dear Bill:

The extra $5.00 for membership dues is a small price to pay for such a great little publication. I hope you can keep up the excellent job you have done in the past.

John A. Staggs

Editor's Note: It would be impossible to print all the good letters that we have received. I've printed a few to give those who did not respond a little idea of what some members feel about ATCO. I must give them the benefit of a doubt - - they did not read the editorial, did not take us serious or have just not gotten around to it. IT WAS A SERIOUS AND URGENT REQUEST!!!!

THANK GOODNESS I'M NOT A QUITTING-TYPE PERSON OR TWO OF THE LETTER I RECEIVED WOULD HAVE DONE IT. THE PERSONS WHO WROTE THEM WERE NOT THINKING OR THEY DID NOT READ THE EDITORIAL CORRECTLY.

Dear Bill,

The article "Arizona Dissonance" by John T.Hamilton,III needs some clarification.Sept.1982 ATCO page 7,"Persellin belittles the opinion of collectors:Ainsworth,Elman,Feisel,Mickael(sic),Weinberg and myself.I have dealt with the aforenamed collectors for many years;read their books and articles...",none of the five have written any books on Arizona tokens and as Persellin points out in the July,1982 ATCO page 4 "..most of them don't even collect Arizona tokens,or do so in a limited capacity.".The sixth collector named by Alan V.Weinberg in June 1,1982 ATCO is not listed by Hamilton,Bob Temarantz wrote the editor he did not say the tokens were fake.My own source of information that the tokens were genuine in 1979 "Arizona Tokens" was one of the five collectors named by Hamilton.

Hamilton states "For the record,Weinberg does not say the four Arizona tokens are 'fakes'...",read Weinberg "..the man in Nevada who was producing these fake 'old' Arizona,California and Nevada tokens.".Hamilton writes "...several people have been hurt by Birt listing them in his phamphlet(sic) as genuine...",I thank the editor for pointing out the tokens will be listed as suspect (suspicious but proof is lacking)because my source has changed his opinion.Hamilton writes "Weinberg has done further service to the bobby(sic) by not publicly stating why they are fantasies...", Alan Weinberg never saw the tokens before he wrote his article. Hamilton notes "Persellin casts aspersion on the character of all the aforenamed collectors by stating that they change their opinion when they own a dubious token." but Persellin wrote "I've seen a lot of tokens called fakes,until the person calling them fake owns them." which is the case where one of Hamilton's five traded these tokens as genuine and now says they are fake.

Hamilton writes "He(Persellin) also states that he would like to buy all of them.",but Persellin's request is based on his opinion they are genuine and Hamilton continues "...I am selling them as fantasies.". I reject Hamilton's offer to sell them to me "(or Birt)" as fantasies.Rule 4 of the American Numismatic Association Dealers Code Of Ethics reads "To not knowingly handle for resale forgeries, counterfeits,unmarked copies,altered coins or other spurious numismatic merchandise that is not clearly labeled as such.".

The paragraph beginning "Many years ago I(Hamilton) adopted Birt's law,'The coin(token) always speaks for itself'." in which Hamilton indicates he is quoting my writings and further "Birt has apparently forgotten it in this case...",let me say it is no wonder I forgot it,I never wrote it.Finally Hamilton writes "Perhaps to reverse himself would not be in keeping with his image of omniscience to his small circle of idolaters." does not agree with Editor's Note the tokens will be listed as suspect nor with the statements I did write in 1979 "Arizona Tokens".See "This checklist of Arizona tokens,...is the effort of nearly one hundred contributors since 1961." and see "Anyone who enjoys this checklist is asked to contribute: ...(3) differences of opinion regarding prices,attributions, or descriptions.".All of Hamilton's collectors are among the nearly one hundred contributors to "Arizona Tokens" as is the Editor himself.

Sincerely,
Hal Birt, Jr.

This checklist of Arizona tokens. scrip, medals, and bars is the effort of nearly one hundred contributors since 1961. The elusive pieces are marked with an asterisk (*) indicating a photograph of a fine specimen still is needed. All undescribed tokens can be considered round, brass, and 21mm except those listed as "same" or "similar" in a set. "Dr" is drink, "c'o" is cutout, punched through, centerhole, or holed, and (IT) is Indian trade token. "Al" is aluminum. "WM" is white metal, "oct" is octagonal, "sq" is square and "scal" is scalloped

The first half of the checklist contains the self described Arizona items the second half has the attributed Arizona pieces and the town names (in bold capitals) The brief descriptions do not reflect the way the tokens actually read.

Anyone who enjoys this checklist is asked to contribute.

(1) the opportunity to photograph any item marked *.
(2) the information of any unlisted item.
(3) differences of opinion regarding prices, attributions, or descriptions.

Dear Bill:

Enclosed is my check for $5.00 for the dues assessment. I hope you get overwhelming response from the members as ATCO is an excellent publication and its loss would be just devastating to the token collecting field. We really enjoyed every copy and they seem to get better each month. The open publication and the point-counterpoint from the membership is both enjoyable and informative. With the loss of METCA in the coming months I hope all the collectors will rally around ATCO and make it the strongest publication in the field.

Bill, keep up the good work, without you I'm afraid we collectors would become a little lonely.

Sincerely, Michael L. Shong #179
Editor's Note: Thanks for the kind words, Michael.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill: Noticed in the last issue of ATCO there is a listing of fantasy and suspect tokens. I have a few listed in my four page token auction that I've already sent you. I bought them in good faith from a Canadian collector and either you can delete them or you can make a note of this in the Letters to the Editor.

It sure makes me sick when these $%#@¢&¢%$*($# try to spoil the hobby by trying to make a dishonest dollar by manufacturing these pieces.

Thank God this terrible habit has not caught on here in our country It happened with wooden nickels and most of us wooden nickel collectors gave our collections away or stopped collecting them.

THANKS - - - RALPH R. BURRY

Editors Note: I agree with the word you used Ralph, but I better not print it. Your honesty in sending the above letter will correct the listing by you. THANKS!

CAMP OMAHA - - NEITHER MILITARY OR NEBRASKA! By George Hosek

Several months ago I had an opportunity to trade for a Camp Omaha maverick. Before attempting the trade I checked the following sources...no luck with any of them. Nebraska business directories from 1866 thru 1954, Omaha directories spaced from 1882 thru 1966, books on Omaha area & western States military installations. The Curator at the museum at Fort Omaha, military writers & historians in the Omaha area. I visited the Nebraska Historical Society in Lincoln, checking their card files and talking to the people there. Finally I wrote to James Curto, author of numberous Military Books and catalogs to see if I could find out who submitted & attributed the token listed in his catalog. His reply was "he had no record nor did he know."

I had a strong feeling that it was a Nebraska token bearing that name - possibly it was YMCA, Sokol, BSA, WOW or some other fraternal organization as there have been numerous such camps in the Omaha area. I made my trade.

After completing the trade another idea struck me. I had the local daily paper run a small article about the token in the Sunday paper. On Monday I received a call from a gentleman in his seventies, a Mr. Paul Jones, who said, "he used to go fishing and stay at a resort in Minnesota with that name - this was in the 1930's." He said, "the people used to live in Omaha so they named their resort Camp Omaha." I understand the title "Camp" was used a great deal in the early days for fishing resorts. He said, "they had a little store in conjunction with the resort and in this store they had slot machines where they used these tokens." He gave me the name of their daughter who still lives in the Omaha area, a Mrs. June Trent. She too, verified his story and said, "I still have one of the tokens"and described it to me, and sure enough it was the same.

The resort "Camp Omaha" was located on Lake Ida, which is 8 miles from Alexandria, Minnesota and was operated by Vern & Kate Jones (no relation to the above mentioned Paul Jones).

The token is listed in Curto's book, Military Tokens of the United States, 1866-1978, Book II as: C118.

PERIODICALS LISTING NEW ISSUES OF CANADIAN TRADE DOLLARS - - -

By Jerry Remick, ATCO #307

A description of each new issue of municipal Canadian Trade Dollar and how to order it from the issuing municipality is given in regular articles in two publications that I write for. Subscription to one of them would keep you informed on the over 80 issues of new Canadian Trade Dollars that are turned out yearly.

The Canadian Association of Token Collectors, (Ken Palmer) 10 Wesanford Place, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, L8P 1N6, publishes 6 bi-monthly 50 page issues of their Journal with over 10 pages devoted to Trade Dollars. Membership is now 295 and there are free ads for members. Dues are $15.00 yearly. Twenty five percent of the members reside in the U.S.A.

Canadian Coin News, McLaren Publications, Box 10,000, Bracebridge, Ontario Canada, publishes an issue of their newspaper every 2 weeks with a circulation of 27,000. My column Trade Dollar News describes all new Trade Dollars in each issue. Subscription is $18.00 for Canadian residents and $21.00 for those living in the United States.

THE "MARSHFIELD" MAVERICK

By HARRY CAMPBELL

I was very interested in your reference to the "Marshfield" maverick in the current issue of ATCO. So in regard to this I would like to add the following fuel to the fire in regards to this mystery.

In the past ten years of recording the tokens in the state of UTAH, I had until some six months ago, recorded having seen seven of these tokens in Utah. One I listed in the maverick section of my Utah book. It was some six months ago that a bottle digger friend dug the outhouse behind the Los Angeles Bar in Salt Lake City, as the building was being pulled down, found some 43 of these tokens. It came to me that due to the wide diversity of the tokens, that could not these pieces have shown up like this due to it being part of a vending machine operation? This would explain the area covered in distribution. In Alperts vending token book, he lists a Earl M. Bush from Marshfield, Oregon, as a token vender. Perhaps research may show some possible connection on this unknown piece.

Editor's Note: Well, Harry, looks like we have a continued mystery and maybe some day this poor orphaned maverick will find its rightful home.

THE BLAKE AND COMPANY PIECE LISTED IN CURRENT ISSUE OF ATCO

By Eldon Schuttler

Since the impression appeared in the September issue of ATCO I have heard from several colle tors including Harry Campbell and Bob Swain, Sr. Harry purchased a set of these replicas from a coin dealer in Las Vegas some five years ago for $1.00. He also lists an address where they can be purchase, but the most interesting bit of information came from Bob Swain.

On the following page you will see one page of the advertisement put out by Chrysler-Plymouth in the late 1960's advertising the "DUSTER" PLYMOUTH.

Whether these are still available after some 20 years I do not know, but the information is there and you now have knowledge of these replicas.

THANKS HARRY AND BOB!!! Eldon

During the 1800's, pioneers who had "gone West" to seek their fortunes were cut off from the great commercial centers of America. The exchange of money was a problem, and repeated requests to Washington for assistance brought no relief. With typical frontier directness, they

Dear Bill,

The one thing that burns my A-- worse than a three foot fire is the way some people bid in our sales. As you know I run quite a few "Mail Bid" sales and I get some of the darndest bids. For example, I will get a bid on a token "IF XF OR BETTER $25.00, IF VF OR LESS $15.00". I have never seen a grading chart for tokens. My grading probably wouldn't agree with his so I just throw his bid in the S can. If I have a chance to bid on a Placerville, Colo token, I don't care what grade it is.

As John Calhoun mentioned in the last ATCO, I receive "buy bids" as follows; $20.00, IF NOT HIGH, RAISE MY BID TO 10% OVER YOUR HIGHEST BID. I'm like John, thats "BULL".

The all time favorite is the one where you have a $20.00 token for sale- someone places a bid of $100.00 expecting his bid to be reduced to 10% over the next highest. Then here comes a bid for $75.00 (expecting the same as the $100.00 bidder) you throw both bids out and then you get a call wanting to know why they didn't get the token.

I think we should all work together. The one holding the sale should throw out all the bids as mentioned above. The bidders (myself included) should bid what a token is worth to our collection or our trading stock.

Bill, I only had those tokens in my possession, they were not for sale nor did I go to jail. If some of those guys would form AFCO (Active Fantasy Collectors Organization), sounds like they would have quite a few members. I think the info provided through ATCO will be helpful to everyone.

Regards,

Binky

Dear Bill:

Now, to my contribution. Was it me who suggested the voluntary dues Assessment? (Editor's note - Yes, Sue it was!). I had better practice what I preach. Well, enclosed is not $5, but $10. That is because I reckon I get twice as much enjoyment out of ATCO than any other member does. Any member who wants to challenge this is welcome to do so - - By sending a bigger contribution! (Editor's note: a couple have already done so)

BEWARE

BRUTALITY AT A BISBEE SALOON By BOB TEMARANTZ #57

In the past, I wrote of how criminals in the Arizona Territory would start trouble in a saloon which would lead to a confrontation with a sheriff or an Arizona Ranger, a shootout.

But, in this case, as reported in the Bisbee Review of July 6, 1904, one of Bisbee's most famous saloons, Turf Saloon, was a scene of law enforcement brutality involving Jeff Kidder of the Arizona Rangers.

One night in the Turf Saloon, a young miner much admired in the Bisbee community, was assaulted by Ranger Kidder for no apparent reason.

This miner, named Radebush and his companion were walking out of the saloon towards the sidewalk. Along came the great peace preserver of Arizona, his ever ready shooting iron in his pocket, prepared for business. With a gruff 'you'll have to get off the streets here', he pushed Radebush off the sidewalk, where he had a perfect right to be, reported the "Bisbee Review". Radebush turned and said: 'Why, what's the matter with our standing here?' This was enough for Ranger Kidder, the big man with the gun.

Arizona had been deadly insulted by a common fellow who works for the Calumet and Arizona Company who came to the Turf after his work. For this dreadfully insulting remark of Radebush, Ranger Kidder pulled out his .45 and smashed Radebush over the face with his deadly weapon and killed the young man.

Ranger Kidder was soon surrounded by a thousand men, so reported the Review, and cries of 'get a rope', 'hang him', 'string him up', came from a hundred throats. But Kidder was saved by the Bisbee Police, as Kidder was almost hanged from a big tree in Main Street, just outside the Turf Saloon.

Ranger Kidder was convicted in a Tombstone court for murder, but after a year in jail, the ex-Ranger of Arizona was released. He retired to Naco, Arizona. The Turf Saloon issued a 21mm brass token, a maverick from Brown and Robinson's Saloon, good for 12½ cents in trade.

F is for Flicker - - By J. W. Baum

The Coal Miners lament, making money not yet earned, but already spent.

Issued in all denominations, to a dollar sometimes more, The Only place to be redeemed is at the company store.

Running out of money, in the middle of the week forced him to the company store, for the flickers he did seek.

Working all the week until the day of pay, Used up in services and flickers, is what the pay slips say.

TOOZE IS THE GREATEST!!

By CAL WOODS

The best known SALOON keeper in Minneapolis before 1913 was John E. "Tooze" Rogers. He appeared on the Minneapolis Saloon scene as a bartender in 1891. By 1892 he was the proud owner of a saloon called the Mint which was located at 8 Washington Avenue North. Tooze Rogers owned this saloon until only 1893, when he bought another saloon called the Hub which was located at 516 Hennepin Avenue. The Hub was located on the ground floor of the West Hotel, the largest hotel in Minneapolis at this time. The Hub had been owned by J.T. West, the owner of the West Hotel.

Tooze Rogers also opened a saloon at 301 South Third Street and he named it "Tooze's".

By 1900 he had purchased a third saloon at 34 South 5th Street. In the same year Rogers continued to expand his empire and opened a restaurant at 820 Nicollet Avenue; this was a very swanky location for a place of business.

Not satisfied with the saloon and restaurant businesses he started the Unique Theatre in 1905, at 520 Hennepin Avenue, which was also in the West Hotel, on the ground floor. A small hotel was to his liking, so he built the Rogers Hotel in 1905 at 24 South 4th Street.

He was the owner of the West Hotel, having purchased it from J.T. West, and he made his business headquarters in the hotel at 518 Hennepin Avenue

Tooze had not forgotten the food business; in 1910 he opened a delicatessen store next to the Unique Theatre, at 518 Hennepin. He was a well-liked man in the business district of Minneapolis, providing entertainment, food and drink to his customers.

Every Christmas, in the Unique Theatre, he held a grand party for the newsboys of downtown Minneapolis, and he had presents for all of them.

In my collection, I have only two styles of tokens issued by John E. "Tooze" Rogers. Tooze pronounced his nickname 2-Z, and his trademark was always "ZZ" in a diamond.

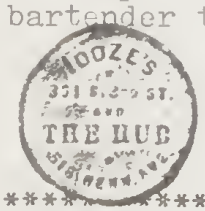

One token is simply: TOOZE'S /ZZ/(In a Diamond)/Minneapolis
Rev: Trade Mark /ZZ/(In diamond) 25mm Rd. Alum.

There are also 25mm and 33mm in round aluminum.

The other Rogers token in my collection is:

TOOZE'S/301 S. 3rd St./AND/THE HUB/516 Henn. Ave.
Rev. Trade Mark/ZZ/(In a Diamond)

The first of these two tokens seem to be the most frequently seen of all Minneapolis saloon tokens. Tooze Rogers had gone, in 20 years, from a bartender to a business tycoon, and passed away in 1912.

DID YOU KNOW THAT RAY MORTIMEYER OF CUBA MISSOURI TAKES HIS ATCO TO BED WITH HIM AT NIGHT? NOT MANY PEOPLE KNEW THAT.

RARITY LISTING OF TEXAS LUMBER COMPANY TOKENS By ROBERT FLEET

Dear Fellow Collectors: As you can see, the rarities on many of the tokens in this survey are high. I am not surprised, however, since some may find this information difficult to believe, I sent a survey to Texas collectors and also information was received from those in other states who collect lumber company tokens. The results were tabulated as you see on the following pages.

I believe this listing to be as accurate as is possible. Much information about lumber tokens remains to be discovered. At best, this survey can be current only for a short while and should be used as a guide only.

This survey has confirmed my suspicion that Texas Lumber Company tokens are presently much rarer than previously thought.

RARITIES:

10- 1 to 4 tokens known
9- 5 to 9
8- 10 to 24
7- 25 to 49
6- 50 to 74
5- 75 to 99
4-100 to 149
3-150 to 199
2-200 to 299
1-300 or more

Note: I have added an additional scale as follows: any token falling within the upper half of any range will receive a + by the #, and any falling in the lower half will receive a - by the #. Further, any token appearing to be unique will be marked by circling the 10.

The rarity scale used in this project was developed by the Evaluation Committee of the National Scrip Collectors Association (N.S.C.A.) and was later used in Terry Trantow's book on Lumber tokens.

It should be noted that there are several deficiencies in this listing. Most notible of these is the fact that I have not tried to do this study by varieties. This will frustrate the variety collector, however, the original survey I sent out did not allow for me to receive this information in that kind of detail. Also, since I have not listed tokens by exact wording or description, other token books will need to be used with this lising.

Only denominations known to exist have received a rarity number. I will be happy to receive any corrections or additions to this listing and prepare this new information for publication in ATCO.

MY FAVORITE TOKEN COLLECTION By Rocco DiGiacomo #23

I save and trade for many different types of tokens, but above all I enjoy adding to my BI-METAL TOKEN COLLECTION. To date my collection numbers 382 different bimetallic tokens, and represented are trade tokens from 37 different states.

By far the best represented state is Illinois with 60 different trade token bi-metals from various Illinois cities. I suppose this is due to the fact that most bi-metals came from the Illinois diesinker, Childs, based in Chicago. The least represented states are Conn., Rhode Island, New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona, Wyoming and New Hampshire with one each.

It is an interesting collection because it crosses the collecting lines of so many other token collectors thus making more trades possible. Included in the collection are 2 Military (Fort Sheridan 5¢ and Fort Adams, R.I. 5¢), 9 transportation, 18 coal, 1 colonial, 17 mavericks, 39 amusement, 10 manufacturers samples, and an unbelievable 83 different lumber related tokens. All are bi-metal.

Most are the usual round brass casing around an aluminum center, but some have square centers, some copper centers, some are oblong and some are octagonal. Denominations include 1, 2, 2½, 3, 12½, 5, 10, 25, 50, 1.00, 5.00 and 10.00.

I never realized when I started saving bi-metals, about 6 years ago, that so many existed. The fun part is that 70% of the collection has been put together by trading rather than purchasing. If you have an extra bi-metal to trade or would like a listing of my collection, drop me a line.

Following are some of the bi-metals in my collection:

"THE MEDIA OF EXCHANGE USED BY OUR PENAL INSTITUTIONS"- CONCLUSION
By Jerry Zara

Sing-Sing Prison (Oissing, N.Y.) has issued paper script in the form of $1.00, $5.00 and $10.00 notes, besides its tokens of 1, 5, 10 25 and 50 denominations. Each carried the monogram of "MWL" (Mutual Welfare League) The words "Cents" or "Dollars" do not appear on either their tokens or notes. At Sing-Sing, inmates were expected to pay for everything, including cell rent, and meals. In 1915, cell rent ranged from $1.00 - 1.50 a week, depending on tier and location. Wages at that time were $1.00 per day.

Recently there was a brass token released for use in the Coca Cola beverage machines. These tokens are used by inmates at the Maximum Security Pentitentiary at Waupun, Wisconsin for coke machines located in the various recreation areas. These specially set up machines will not accept cash, but will dispense a paper cup of coke when one of the tokens are inserted.

The State of Kansas at one time issued punch cards, which were different from other states because they required a thumb print instead of just an inmates name and identification. These cards like others were issued for one inmates use only, and were not transferable.

The State of Hawaii issued forms which were used to order specific items, such as; medical supplies, shoes, newspapers and fruit along with the regular commissary slips.

Most States are represented in one form or another and only by searching and many hours of correspondence will one ever really know how much is really involved in putting such a collection together. I hope to fulfill my curiousity, so that I can publish a catalog which will be a reference for other individuals who may be interested in the collecting of the media of exchange in our penal institutions.

As you can see, the study of prison money can be very interesting and has had very little publicity. I have displayed and spoken about my collection many times before various groups, because I really enjoy the topic and am willing to share it among my fellow collectors.

If I can be of any help to those interested in collecting prison money please contact me.

MINNESOTA DAIRY TOKENS By RICHARD McFERRAN #7

Following is a listing of all metal Minnesota DAIRY (and related) tokens, known to me.

I wanted to get this published to assist researchers and cataloguers of these pieces and to identify several mavericks, as well.

Pieces marked * are not in my collection and I would be interested in purchasing them as well as any dairy tokens from Minnesota which are not listed herein.

I would also be interested in receiving listings of any not listed even if they are not for sale or trade. I plan to compile a catalogue of Minnesota tokens and would appreciate these listings.

23d ARTILLERY GROUP (FIELD ARTILLERY) By JOHN R. SHILLINGLAW

Conclusion

The 6th Bn. of the 27th Artillery arrived in Vietnam on 3 November 1965 from its previous station, Fort Bliss, Texas. This battalion was originally an 8-inch self-propelled M110 howitzer battalion but converted to the dual 8-inch self-propelled howitzer and 175mm self-propelled M107 gun configuration. Arriving at Bien Hoa it became part of the 23d Artillery Group at Phuoc Vinh in November 1965 and was posted at Saigon in June 1966. The battalion went back to Phuoc Vinh and on to Quan Loi in January 1968. While at Quan Loi it became part of the II Field Force Bietnam Artillery on 21 October 1969. In March 1970 the battalion was posted to Phu Loi and there in April 1971 was reattached to the 23d Artillery Group. It primarily reinforced the 1st Infantry Division while in Vietnam. It departed Vietnam on 25 September 1971.

The 2d Battalion of the 32d Artillery arrived in Vietnam on 3 November 1965 from its previous station, Ft. Fill, Oklahoma. It had an authorized strength of 555 (1966), 565 (1968) & 565 (1970). This battalion was originally a self-propelled M107 175mm gun battalion located at Cu Chi. The battalion was part of the 23d Artillery Group of II Field Force, Vietnam and relocated to Tay Ninh in April 1967. In early 1969 it was converted to the dual 8-inch self-propelled M110 howitzer and 175mm self-propelled gun configuration. On 21 October 1969 it was made part of II Field Force, Vietnam Artillery and posted to Cu Chi and Phu Loi under the 23d Artillery Group, where it remained until its departure from Vietnam on 22 January 1972. It primarily reinforced the 25th Infantry Division.

The 2d Battalion of the 35th Artillery arrived in Vietnam on 17 June 1966 from its previous station, Fort Carson, Colorado. Its authorized strength was 575 (1966), 537 (1968) and 537 (1970). This was a self-propelled M109 howitzer battalion and was first stationed at Xuan Loc with the 23d Artillery Group. While at Xaun Loc, the battalion was placed under the 54th Artillery Group and in April 1970 was moved to Long Binh, where it remained until leaving Vietnam on 13 March 1971.

The 5th Battalion of the 42d Artillery ("Straight Arrows") was a towed 105mm howitzer battalion assigned to the 54th Artillery Group and then to the 23d Artillery Group within II Field Force, Vietnam. It arrived in Vietnam on 2 April 1968 with an authorized strength of 598. Stationed at Bear Cat in 1968, it was at Long Thanh in 1969 and at Long Binh in 1970. It departed Vietnam on 1 April 1972. Its previous station was Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

The 3d Battalion of the 319th Artillery arrived in Vietnam on 20 September 1968, from its previous station, Fort Bragg, North Carolina. It was a towed 155mm Howitzer Battalion of the New Hampshire National Guard. It served with the 23d Artillery Group of II Field Force, Vietnam at Phu Loi. It had an authorized strength of 598 and departed Vietnam on 3 September 1969.

A REVIEW OF THE BOSTON COLLECTIBLES SHOW AND THE ANA - By Alan Weinberg

The hobby was alive and well in Boston, August 14-22. I spent a very pleasant week and a half there immersed in all aspects of our hobby.

The second National Collectibles Exposition put on by Rich Hartzog, Paul Cunningham and Joel Reznick was an unqualified success, even outdoing their May Chicago show.

Bourse facilities were spacious, well lighted and attendance by collectors and dealers (and most dealers are collectors) was excellent. In fact, a lot of coin dealers and collectors in Boston who attended the Bay State Coin Show and The American Numismatic Ass'n coin convention visited the collectibles show and marvelled at the interesting variety of tokens, medals, buttons, mirrors, paper collectibles and other American ephemera.

I do believe our hobby acquired quite a few converts; coin collectors fleeing high prices, pumped-up rarity, pompous "big coin dealers" and roller-coaster price fluctuations.

Most people thought that just too much good exonumia in too many auctions, one after the other competing with the collectibles bourse, was sold Saturday afternoon. True. But in all fairness to the show sponsors, Massachusetts "Blue Laws" prevented the auctions from occurring on Sunday, thus forcing all 4 collectibles auctions onto a Saturday afternoon schedule.

There was no pattern of prices realized. Some high, some low. However, a Saranac Michigan Civil War Storecard legitimately sold at auction for $3200 and an Oconomowoc, Wisconsin Civil War token sold for $3300.

A lot of good material changed hands on the collectibles bourse floor. I acquired an unlisted Teddy Roosevelt elongated, an R-8 Katolla, Alaska token (nuts, just missed an unlisted Tanana, Alaska), a Wyoming Territory Post Trader, a Douglass Alaska Saloon, and other goodies. Most everyone else added significantly to their collections.

There was some evidence of lower prices, price resistance and tight pocketbooks by the buyers. This is to be expected. Economic times are not good and your typical exonumia collector is a middle-income "working Man." It takes a dedicated collector to spend money on a collectible when next month "he" may need that money for food, rent or clothing.

In general, prices are down somewhat. GOOD! The hobby needs a "cooling" down period from the Clifford Sale heights I spoke of several issues ago.

The ANA convention, in contrast, was a cold, impersonal, massive show of high priced, touted rarity coins. A vivid reminder of why so many of us used to collect coins and now "fool" with tokens. There was little in "fresh" exonumia to be found at the ANA show. A lot of dealers just did not want to fool with it. A number of coin dealers admitted to having significant lots of exonumia "back home."

They didn't want to bring their stocks to the ANA as these "low revenue" items wouldn't pay their show costs and the token collectors tend to monopolize their bourse tables preventing viewing of "high revenue" coins in the bourse tables. They have a point - ANA tables costing $775 and up.

Another Collectibles Show is scheduled for Chicago in December. I look forward to it.

TERRITORIALS, POST TRADERS AND ALASKA

I'm a serious collector of Territorial tokens from Wyoming (W.T.), the Dakotas (D.T.), Montana (M.T.), Arizona (A.T.), Washington (W.T.) and most other Territorials ... except for Oklahoma. I will pay $200.00 and up for ANY Territorial token and UP TO $1,000 for the rarest of the rare.

Also wanted: Post Traders, Saloon tokens (including saloon "mavericks" ... send 'em on ... I'll pay good money for saloon mavericks), early classic style military tokens, and rare Alaska tokens - particularly the gold nugget tokens. I'm quite willing and able to pay TCP market price. Contact me.

I also avidly collect mavericks and will pay good prices for your accumulations of nice old mavericks ... one or hundreds of 'em. I'm not afraid to pay $5, $10 or much more for a maverick that has a nice style and appeals to me.

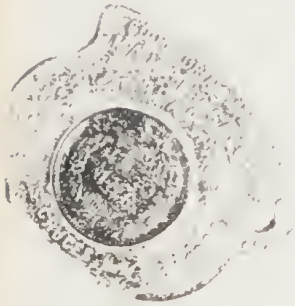

Note: I will also trade to obtain good tokens for those few of you that don't place any value on cash money.

I AM NOW ACCEPTING CONSIGNMENTS

FOR OUR NEXT MAJOR AUCTION

- to be held in February or March 1985. Anyone can claim to get you the highest prices for your tokens - instead, I just promise good coverage. Certainly our next major auction will be printed in the ATCO Bulletin just like the sixteen-pager last issue - and, if warranted, in the Journal of the Canadian Association of Token Collectors. We are currently negotiating to hold a public auction in conjunction with a major show, but in any event our mail bids are always successful.

- minimum single lot value is $10 on consigned material, commission rates are negotiable for large collections and choice rarities. On lots which receive winning bids of less than $100, however, we generally charge 25% with a minimum charge per lot of $2.50. Over $100 our rates drop back to 15%, over $500, we negotiate. We do not encourage shipment of "junk", badly mutilated items or "job lots" of common material as these almost never sell.

- please think NADIN-DAVIS when you think about selling by auction.

NOTE: THERE WERE SO MANY ARTICLES THAT WE HAD TO CARRY SOME OF THEM OVER UNTIL NEXT MONTH ISSUE. YOU GUYS ARE SOMETHING ELSE!!! KEEP THEM COMING!!!!

I WANTED TO CLOSE THIS ISSUE OFF AT 60 PAGES AND YOU SEE WHAT HAPPENED. TO GO BEYOND 60 PAGES INCREASES THE PRINTING BILL AND THE POSTAGE BILL BY SOME $100+. I THINK THAT WE ARE GOING TO HAVE TO CONSIDER 60 PAGES AS THE LIMIT AND IF YOUR AD OR ARTICLE COMES IN AFTER THE 60 PAGES ARE REACHED IT WILL HAVE TO BE CARRIED OVER INTO THE FOLLOWING ISSUE. IF WE HAD TONS OF MONEY IT WOULD BE NO PROBLEM - - -WE DON't HAVE TONS OF MONEY, DARN!

YOUR EDITOR: BILL CLAPPER

EDITOR'S PAGE - - -

Some of you will get tired of my harping on those who have not sent in their $5.00 assessment - we need it to put out issues like we are putting out.

With the $15.00 annual dues we can put out issues like this but in the meantime we are going to have to have full cooperation by all members or we will have to greatly reduce the December issue and January issue so far as free space - GOOD ARTICLES, ETC.

It seems apparent that some few members do not feel that they are getting their monies worth.

In talking with a couple of the directors it was suggested that we just list those names who have not contributed toward the good of ATCO in the December issue.

Again, enough on that.

MANY, MANY THANKS TO ALL THOSE MEMBERS (THE LARGE MAJORITY) WHO HELPED WHEN WE ASKED FOR THE HELP. WITH YOUR KIND OF SUPPORT WE CAN'T DO ANYTHING BUT BE SUCCESSFUL!!!

This issue is a big issue again, and loaded with good articles, letters, ads, etc., and I doubt that our super article writing members can top it. THAT IS A CHALLENGE!!!!!

As we grow we should be thinking of things that will keep us out of trouble as the years pass, so we have formed the ETHICS COMMITTEE,THE FAKE AND FANTASY PANEL, ETC. And, if there are other things that we should be thinking about please let us know.

Thanks Bary Bender for the kind words in the last issue of METCA.

* MEMBERSHIP IN ATCO .....$15.00 (11 issues)

* ADS IN ATCO:

FREE ADS FOR ALL MEMBERS	40 WORDS PER ISSUE
FULL PAGE, CAMERA READY	$10.00
FULL PAGE IF WE TYPE	$15.00
HALF PAGE, CAMERA READY	$ 5.00
HALF PAGE IF WE TYPE	$ 7.50
QUARTER PAGE	$ 3.00

DEADLINE FOR ALL ADS AND ARTICLES IS THE 20TH OF THE MONTH!

ARTICLES ARE ENCOURAGED! These issues do not get as interesting as they are all by themselves. It takes members writing good articles. We'll type them if you are not a typist. We will not let you look bad, so send us an article!!!

Dear Mr. Clapper:

I am writing in regard to Page 25 in your Volume 1, Number 8, October, 1982 issue of ATCO. We do not care for anyone implying, even in the remotest possible way, that there is any illegitmacy in any of our auctions. If this was a slip of the pen, fine; however, if it is a question of our integrity we do not care for it. No one operates an auction with as high a set of standards as we do and we are very proud of that fact.

Sincerely,

Kurt R. Krueger

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill: I have STRONG opinions about what should be done with those making fake tokens of any kind!

I would be willing to set on a panel to examine supposed "FAKES". I have a background in token manufacturing - - ALL STAGES, and I believe I have enough experience in collecting tokens (some 100,000) to spot any phony ones, whether they are doctored-up or not.

My experience includes working at "Puget Sound Stamp Works" at Seattle during active token issuing years up to my entry into WWII Service in 1941.

One thing bothers me especially about your recent listing of fake tokens, that is the various sizes, shapes, and materials, each requiring special blanking dies, etc. Also, required in manufacturing is power presses and striking machinery with tons of pressure.

There is NO WAY to make tokens out of your garage or basement. There would have to be a regular stamp works doing the actual die work. No reputable firm would do this. A lot of unanswered questions - RIGHT?

LEWIS L. EGNEW P.O. BOX 123 PORT TOWNSEND, WASHINGTON 98368

EDITOR'S NOTE: I talked to a couple of the directors and it was suggested that we do not let this experience of Lew's get away or miss the opportunity of using him where it would benefit the hobby so much.

It was therefore decided that Lew be appointed as: CHAIRMAN OF THE FAKE AND FANTASY PANEL.

We will need a couple more good volunteers to work with him and get the best information back to ATCO for publication.

If you have some experience or feel that you could serve with Lew please write him at his above address.

Each month we will publish the list of Fantasy or Fake tokens that the panel has made a determination on.

THOSE WHO HAVE FANTASY OR FAKE TOKENS (OR HAVE WHAT YOU FEEL MIGHT BE A FAKE OR FANTASY) SENT IT TO LEW EGNEW, ALONG WITH POSTAGE FOR ITS RETURN TO YOU. If you want to send the token or tokens by registered mail and money for return the same way, then it is to your advantage to do so. You will be the one gaining in knowing what you have. And, the members will be aware of any activity in this area.

I THINK IT IS A SUPER IDEA LEW, AND THANKS FOR VOLUNTEERING! Bill.

VOLUNTEERS FOR THE FAKES AND FANTASY PANEL TO WORK WITH LEW EGNEW:

JOHN HAMILTON III, P.O. BOX 2191, LA JOLLA, CALIFORNIA 92038

Dear Bill: I don't want to complain but it seems to me that you have to many pages in ATCO that don't pay the way with postage rates so high. I'm sure that it is eating up a lot of costs. I really enjoy ATCO.

JACK HARVILL - - -

I AGREE WITH YOU, JACK, BUT TO HAVE A GOOD PUBLICATION IT MUST ALSO BE EDUCATIONAL, BUT WE DO HAVE TO MANY PAGES THAT DON'T PAY. THAT WILL HAVE TO CHANGE IF WE CAN'T GET THOSE WHO HAVE NOT SENT THEIR $5.00 TO ATCO TO DO SO. Editor

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill: Enclosed is my $5.00. I agree that ATCO must be kept on a sound financial basis. However, I do not agree that all the funds of the increase should be on the membership in the form of dues; I believe that the advertisers should shoulder part of it. Dues went up 50% - ad rates should also go up 50%, while keeping the free ads for members. In this way the treasury will build up somewhat and there shouldn't have to be another increase for some time.

You might say that this would discourage advertisers - and it would to a degree, however, I feel that the advertisers have more to lose than the members were ATCO to fail, so they shouldn't object to assuming their fair share. A page ad costs $10.00 and is seen by 326 members. A first Class Mailing to 326 people would cost $65.00 in postage alone, not to mention the cost of printing, envelopes, addressing, etc. So, $10.00 is a terrific bargain and $15.00 would still be a terrific bargain.

I personally want to see more ads - since they are an excellent source of information for my research on mavericks and Ohio tokens. But the good of the organization comes before the good of any one member. Too, with an increase in advertising rates we could have more excellent articles like we have had in the past.

I hope your directors will give this matter further consideration and raise the rates at this time so as to forstall another increase in dues in the foreeable future.

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK.

BEST REGARDS, SAM RUGGERI

Editor's Note: If the directors have some comments on the above please let me know.

Dear Bill: I have been waiting to mail you the additional $5.00 until I could get a page ad typed up, but now that the 20th of the month, the deadline, has passed, and the ad was not ready, here's the $5, but no ad. There are not enough hours in the day, it seems, to get everthing done that I want to get done. Too many projects in the fire.

You are doing a swell job on the publication and I just hope you have the time, the energy, and the motivation to keep it up.

CHARLEY V. KAPPEN

Thanks Charley. I have all of the above and will keep all of the above if I get the support of the members. It still takes all of us to make any organization good! Editor.

Dear Bill: Just got home from a trip and was reading my ATCO and am enclosing my check for $5.00. Am sorry I was late.

You are doing a great job - keep up the good work - ATCO is the best little publication that I have seen since I started collecting tokens.

George Lydick (Thanks George - Editor)

Dear Bill: I sent my $5.00 dues yesterday. Sure hope you can keep ATCO ACTIVE. I have recommended ATCO to five or six individuals, and at least two became members so far to my knowledge, and I will continue to recommend it. KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill: ATCO is a fine publication. Bill it would be a great help if you would relist the Board Members of ATCO along with their addresses. Many times we would like to write to a certain Board Member but don't know who to contact.

As a two year President of IKO-TAMS I would be glad to serve on the ethics committee. (Editor's Note: Good you are elected).

I am certain your organization has a bright future, and continue to be a great service to the membership. Keep up the Good Work! Enclosed is my $5.00.

Dear Bill: Would any of the ATCO members have a token as follows: Geo. C. Sempel/ town removed/N.D. GF 5¢ Drink or Cigar/Rd. Alum. I would like to have the town name of North Dakota for this token.

Bill Craig P.O. Box 233 Powers Lake, ND 58773

Editor's Note: I had a particular reason for running the above request by Bill Craig other than just satisfying a members request.

There is an acid for raising the letters of worn Buffalo Nickels. Is there an acid that would do the same for brass and aluminum? Over the years I have found tokens that had the town name or merchant filed off the tokens. I have also found tokens that were worn in the town area to the point that I could not read the town name. Is there any known help in this area???????

Dear Bill: I plan to become an active contributor to the magazine, which seems to have rapidly become an "honest" sounding board for the hobby.

PLEASE, don't lessen the value of the organization and the publication by questioning the controversy. I think it is needed; timely; and a necessary arm of the hobby. While I may agree or disagree with much of what is printed; I feel it must be said, and you will be hearing from me if the present trend of an "OPEN FORUM" continues.

BILL MASSEY - - -

Thanks, Bill. We have been getting letters in favor of the controversy three to one over the letters who do not like. I, personally, feel as others do that it is educational. The only thing that I do not like is the personalities getting into it. Let's keep it on the subject of the problem and not the person. - - - Editor.

DEAR BILL:

ENCLOSED IS MY $5 TO HELP KEEP ATCO GOING, YOU ARE REALLY PUTTING TOGETHER A GREAT MAGAZINE.

NOW FOR FAVOR TIME. SOME OF US HERE IN TEXAS ARE REALLY PUZZLED BY THE BIG UPROAR IN ARIZONA OVER A FEW SUSPECT TOKENS.

FIRST OF ALL, I HAVE MADE THREE LONG DISTRANCE PHONE CALLS TO SOME OF MY FELLOW COLLECTORS HERE IN TEXAS TRYING TO FIND OUT WHO IN THIS BUNCH ARE WEARING THE WHITE HATS. WENT TO MY ATTORNEY AND PAID HIM ONE HOUR OF HIS EXPENSIVE TIME TO SORT IT ALL OUT FOR ME AND HE WASN'T ABLE TO MAKE HEADS OR TAILS OF IT EITHER.

IT APPEARS TO ME THAT IT IS A MATTER OF OPINION IF THESETOKENS ARE SUSPICIOUS, FAKE, GENUINE, REAL, OLD, FANTASIES OR COUNTERFEITS (ALL OF THE DEFINITIONS HAVE BEEN USED IN ATCO).

AS A SOLUTION TO THE PROBLEM I WOULD SUGEST THAT THOSE WHO FEEL THAT THE TOKENS ARE GOOD (I'VE ALWAYS BEEN ABLE TO SMELL ONE AND TELL), PUT THEM INTO THEIR COLLECTIONS. THOSE WHO FEEL SO STRONGLY THAT THEY ARE PHONY TOSS THEM INTO THE GARBAGE.

SINCE I DON'T REALLY BELIEVE THAT MY LITTLE SARCASTIC NOTE IS GOING TO CHANGE ANYTHING YOU WILL NOTE THAT I HAVE ADDED TWO NEW NAMES FOR THE TOKENS (GOOD AND PHONY), AND THAT MAY BE WHAT THEY REALLY ARE, AFTERALL, GOOD AND PHONY!

PERSONALLY, I AM GETTING A LITTLE BORED (YAWN) READING THESE PETTY BICKERINGS. I WOULD APPRECIATE IT A LOT MORE IF THE ARIZONA COLLECTORS WOULD SPEND SOME OF THEIR ENERGIES WRITING ABOUT SOME OF THE OTHER TOKENS IN THEIR COLLECTIONS. OR MAYBE EVEN TELL US SOME OF THE GOOD QUALITIES OF THEIR FELLOW COLLECTORS.

SOME OF THESE GUYS ARE BOUND TO BE WEARING WHITE HATS. I FOR ONE, FIRMLY BELIEVE THAT ALL OF THE COLLECTORS IN TEXAS ARE WEARING WHITE HATS.

DEAR BILL: HAS ANYONE EVER PUT FORTH THE IDEA OF ATCO MAIL BID RULES? THE RULES SHOULD NOT BE IRON CLAD, BUT A MORE OR LESS SET OF GUIDE LINES. IF A SELLER DISLIKES A RULE HE COULD SO STATE IN HIS AD -- LIKE, "ATCO RULES, EXCEPT ....."

RICHARD G. ECKEBRECHT - - - -

(Editor's Note: Thanks, Rick, that is one of the first things that the ethics committee will be working on. There has been some discussion of it now and I'm sure that in an issue or two there will be some standard rules set down. As you say, they should be rules that are of a standard practiced by other organizations and which a seller can change by a statement, such as: "ATCO RULES, EXCEPT ....."

POWDER RIVER RANCH, COLORADO BY J. MERLIN BONDHUS

In order to present a clearer picture of the times, it should not be amiss to pause for a moment to describe briefly the notorious old Powder River Crossing Stage Stop, which was located 20 miles below Frewen Castle (to the east). It was situated on the old Bozeman Trail crossing of the Powder on the east side of the river just north of the junction of the Powder and Dry Fork. It was here (only on the west bank) that old Fort Connor stood at the mouth of Dry Fork. Later, after Fort Reno was abandoned, Cantonment Reno was established near the same place.

Geographically this spot had been of importance as a "resting place" on the Bozeman Trail; for here, along the banks of the river, were huge cottonwoods offering welcome shade after the glare and dust of the trail. Here washings were done, equipment repaired and animals rested and reshod. It was a natural place for a stage stop or road ranch and for many years was a popular hangout for freighters, trappers and all the others——it being their only, easily-available contact with the rest of the world.

Powder River Crossing consisted of a large, long building, (store, Saloon and living quarters all in one) stables and blacksmith shop and numerous old dugout cabins. Here to be had were whiskey and prostitutes (who came and went), fresh horses and tobacco, conversation and companionship—the best the land afforded at least. One can still locate the building sites of the old blacksmith shop and saloon from the now half-buried clutter of old bottles and iron scraps and debris.

Bill Hathaway ran the store and saloon which was located directly east of the dry gulch at the edge of the little patch of timber. In connection with his road-ranch operations he ran quite a bunch of horses, for there was money to be made in supplying fresh mounts for those in need of an exchange. Hathaway was a man worthy of the frontier,strong and powerful physically and quite equal mentally to the tasks before him. His saloon arrangement was uniquely designed to fit the turbulent times—the bar counter behind which he always stood when dispensing his liquid wares, was shoulder-high, enabling him at all times to have complete command of the situation. All men were requested to deposit their shooting-irons behind the counter when entering, so Hathaway's gun barrel, thrust over the top of the bar, meant business in no uncertain terms and ended promptly all drunken disputes without any danger to himself. If stern in disciplinary measures, he was a very accommodating and considerate man otherwise, especially to transients, allowing them to spread their bed rolls on the large barroom floor when it was bad outside and no other shelter was available.

Many interesting things happened at Powder River Crossing and many odd characters came there for various reasons. This story is told about two burly men, who, though the best friends under normal conditions, one night got into a violent drunken disagreement —whose settlement required a two-day hand-to-hand fight. Being crude, animal-like fellows neither could quite outdo the other—so they fought inside the saloon, and they fought outside on the ground and around the buildings until both were thoroughly winded, badly bruised and bloody. Nobody paid much attention to them—it was their own particular fight—they had started it, so let them finish it. Finally, one of the men, who had a mad crush on a prostitute then living in one of the dugout cabins came to the conclusion that he was about to die. He crawled over to the side of the store building where fumbling around he finally found the end of an old wooden beer keg upon which he laboriously and painfully wrote in mournful words his farewell message to "Big Alice". However the incident did not end on this dramatic note, for both men fully recovered and returned to their prospecting and trapping as good friends as before with apparently no hard feelings between them.

Big Nose George (the outlaw who was later hanged in Rawling, Wyoming) used to hang out around Powder River Crossing. He used to stay for months at a time in a nearby dugout. He and a fellow name Tom Welch used to go around together some. Tom was a most spectacular person—his body was completely tatooed with snakes. He looked tough and was tough. One time a band of Shoshoni Indians camped near the dugout and one morning a big husky buck Indian rode up and made signs that he was a pretty tough fellow and could whip anybody—just anybody at all. After much boasting it finally was learned that he wanted to sell them a tanned deer hide for $3.00. Big Nose said he'd give $1 and that was all he'd give. A hot argument ensued during which the Indian reached for his knife—but big George was to fast for him and clobbered him over the head with a broken wagon spoke he found laying on the ground in front of him. Tom and Big Nose then broke the blade of his knife and hit his gun-barrel over a log, bending it, after which they revived the badly bleeding buck by dashing cold water over his face, helping him to his horse, handed him his useless weapons and headed him back toward the Indian camp, calling after him, "Big Indian no good". This must have been convincing for they never saw the buck again.

A. M. Keith, a puncher for the "76" in 1885, told of meeting Big Nose George on the fall roundup on lower Powder River, quote: "We were caught in a snow storm and as we were camping for dinner three men rode into camp. One was very large and very red and was called Big Nose George. They were tough looking and not the cowboy type. They rode good horses but their saddles and clothes denoted more of the trapper or packer or bull-whacker than anything else."

TUCSON, ARIZONA'S EARLIEST KNOWN TOKEN By Bob Temarantz ATCO #57

Tucson's earliest known token and one of Arizona's most attractive tokens was issued by Alex Levin, one of the earliest Jewish settlers of the Southwest. The Levins were among the first families to come to Tucson after the Civil War.

Alex Levin, born in Bahn Prussia and Zenona Molina of Sonora, Mexico, foresaw a demand in Arizona's dry and warm climate for good lagar. A brewer by trade, he started Levin's Park Brewery in 1869. The Park soon became a territorial landmark. The entertainment center of three acres which in time boasted a park with trees, flowers and other plantings, which were all but unique in the Arizona Desert. It also had a restuarant, dance pavilion, theatre and opera house, riding stables, an archery range and other recreational facilities. At it's peak, it was the center of every important social and communial event in Southern Arizona.

During this time, Alex Levin issued his token a brass 24mm territorial token. "Tucson, A.T., Alex Levin, Good For One Bit, Chas Pick & Co., Chicago.

The Park suffered a decline in the mid 1880s due to Levin's ill health and misfortune. The previous success in Levin's Park deminished. Finally, Alex Levin died in 1887 and was buried as a Catholic.

It can be determined that Levin's token is Tucson's oldest token based on Levin's death in 1887 and the opening of his Park in 1869. Chas. Pick & Co. issued tokens about 1880 to about 1910 which probably pins the date of his token to the early 1880s.

Of particular interest, descendants of Alex Levin include violinist Natalie (Levin) Echavarria; singer-actress Luisa (Ronstadt) Espinol and rock star Linda Ronstadt, which makes this token part of Tucson's rich heritage.

MORE ON THE MARSHFIELD TOKEN

897 Claremont Ave.,
Victoria, B.C. V8Y 1K4
September 14th, 1982.

Dear Editor:

ATCO is doing a great job and I am pleased to forward my $5.00.

The continuing discussion in your columns regarding fakes, phantasies and restrikes is serving a valuable purpose. Nothing will cool enthusiasm for our hobby more quickly than being stung by purchasing these uncollectible pieces. It does no good to pour scorn on the uninformed, if there has been no readily available information on the production of these pieces. It is much better for those with information to make it available to all of us. Best of all would be the publication of a pamphlet listing all of these "suspect" items.

Your September issue throws open the question of the MARSHFIELD token. While I cannot shed much light on this matter, at least I can claim to be the person who put the holed specimen into the collector's stream.

About 1970, a friend suggested that I contact Mrs. Evelyn (Walter F.) McNeill, a resident of Calgary, Alberta. A few days later we met. Mrs. McNeill was then about 87 or 88 years old, or perhaps a year or two beyond this age. When shown from the entrance hall, I passed through an open doorway which was screened with what appeared to be many strings of chinese beads but which I soon perceived were strings of tokens. They had been carefully pierced at two opposite edges and were wired one to another forming seven foot strings. These in turn were suspended across each of the two doorways from the hall forming thick screens.

Mrs. McNeill welcomed a fellow collector, the first she had ever met. She then told me about herself. Born in or near Santa Clara or Santa Rosa, Ca. (my memory fails me) she was the first telephone operator in her town as a young girl. A women of wonderful spirit, she envied her brothers and their friends who would go into San Francisco for an evening on the tiles and would enjoin them to bring her home a souvenir. This soon developed into a habit of bringing her a token or tokens, and started her as an early collector of Western States tokens. When about 18 years old, Mrs. McNeill went to the city of Seattle and was a restaurant cashier during the days of the Yukon gold rush. She continued to acquire tokens. About 1906, she met and married Walter McNeill, a mining engineer. With him, she lived in many mining communities in Washington, Oregon and British Columbia. Her interest in tokens never failed, and the mine employees would often return from vacation with tokens for her.

Not having the storage facilities which are available to us, she hit upon the idea of hanging her collection so that visitors could examine it. One of the mine employees drilled the tokens for her in his spare time and she used soft copper wire to join them. It was soon agreed that I would visit Mrs. McNeill and string by string list each token for record purposes. She was thrilled to have someone appreciate her collection. Over several nights, I examined each of the many hundreds of tokens and recorded them. Many were from California and this information was made available to Stephen Album. The Washington information was passed along to Byron Johnson. Naturally, there was some duplication and Mrs. McNeill gave me a few of these which have largely been passed along to other collectors. Because of the damage, I did not press her family very strongly when Mrs. McNeill passed away, and the collection was then given to one of her grandchildren.

The collection consisted mainly of California and Washington tokens, with some Alaska, Oregon and Idaho pieces. Mrs. McNeill knew most of the issuing establishments and would unhesitatingly reply to my enquiries about mavericks. The MARSHFIELD token was one which she never did pin down, which is understandable when one knows of Steve Albert's identification of it as a machine token.

Sincerely,

DON STEWART

THE "MARSHFIELD" MAVERICK SOLVED!!!!! BY STEVE ALPERT

I HAVE ALREADY SOLVED "THE MARSHFIELD" MAVERICK MYSTERY IN MY 1979 AMUSEMENT TOKEN CATALOGUE, PAGE 50.

The 5¢ token is listed in White Metal and Nickel-plated brass, with the explanation, "The Marshfield was an early electric slot machine, circa 1898, made by The Marshfield Novelty Company of Minneapolis, in business 1898-1917.

Marshfield manufactured arcade machines, strength testers, strikers and gambling floor slot machines.
The token should be attributed to Minneapolis, Minnesota, even though the token was used all over the country. As they went with the machine to all purchasers of the Marshfield slot machine. So, the token can turn up in quantity almost anywhere.

Since the amusement catalogue was published I have found the 5 cents m ade out of brass copper, and zinc and also a 1 Dollar denomination in brass (21mm). Other denominations probably exist.

Editor's note: And that is what some of us get for not having a complete library!

A RARE WYOMING TERRITORY TOKEN

By Alan Weinberg

At the Boston Collectibles show I acquired a beautiful old token for my Territorial collection that I would like to share with ATCO members.

While it isn't a "good for", it most certainly is a "sexy" old territorial precisely dated, May 18, 1887. President Benjamin Harrison signed the Wyoming statehood bill on July 10, 1890

I've consulted with a number of token experts and Wyoming specialists, none of whom have ever seen this piece before.

It is listed in B. P. Wright's, AMERICAN BUSINESS TOKENS (written 1898 to 1901) as #1280 where it is described as being "copper". It is not. Wright evidently had not seen it. It is German Silver, struck, and quite similar in fabric and style to some 1880-1890 era German Silver Texas tokens. Size: 27mm

While one Wyoming cataloguer says, "As far as I know, it is probably unique." I dare not hope for so much. I'd be very much interested in hearing from anyone who knows of or owns another specimen.

BREAKDOWN OF ATCO MEMBERS - BY DICK MAGNUSON ATCO NO. 18 - - - - - - -

Thanks Dick for working this up for the ATCO Members. It certainly tells where the heavy collecting areas are.

It also shows where ATCO is weak as far as members are concerned.

For example: Nebraska has four times as many collectors as there are ATCO members.

How about you members in Nebraska getting busy. There are other states in the same boat.

SHOOT-OUT AT THE O.K. CORRAL By Jinks Livingston

Seventeen years ago while drilling a hole for a telephone pole, an Arizona Public Service worker churned up an O.K. Livery & Transfer Co. tag a block from the Mexican border, in Naco, Arizona. For 15 years he carried the curiosity piece in his wallet. Then one morning, several years ago, he pulled the bragging piece out in a local restaurant. WELL, I now own this unique historical treasure.

We've all heard of the famous gunfight at the O.K. Corral. The corral in Bisbee is long gone, replaced by the Dugan Funeral Chapel at the foot of O.K. Street. There has always been an undertaker there.

To the east of the Custom House in Naco, I found some old adobe walls arranged almost identical to the Tombstone Corral.

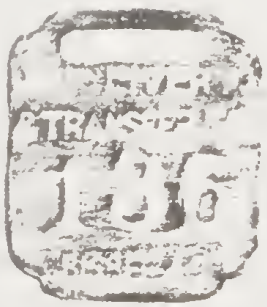

Naco was where Boothill's Lester Moore found the four slugs. "HERE LIES LESTER MOORE, FOUR SLUGS FROM A 44, NO LES, NO MOORE."

A careful check of the exact site where the tag was discovered, (marked by a large pole) indicates the horse was deading north towards Camp Nuell. The tag was found on the east side of the street.

Looking at O.K. photographs through a powerful magnifying glass, I discovered the stable horses to be wearing little horsie tags around their necks.

Some of the store buildings in Naco which once faced west, are now facing east. I guess they could only afford to pave one street, so everyone remodeled the other side of their store to face the pavement. A study of the street yielded some broken purple glass and a few pieces of cast iron which had fallen off horse-drawn vehicles, but no more treasures. Each tag comes with its' own serial number and hallmarked by the Los Angeles Rubber Stamp Co.

I have a book (loaned out now) "Famous Gunfighters of the West" and it mentioned that Courtright & Short had a White Elephant Saloon in Texas (Amarillo, I think). Could this be from there???? I believe that it was in the 1880's.

* * THE EWERT SALOON AT SAN ANTONIO * * By James E. Kattner

Otto Ewert was certainly one of San Antonio's most prominent saloon operators, as his drinking establishment spanned a period of 30 years! First mention of Ewert is found in the 1887 San Antonio City Directory where he is listed as proprietor of a "Beer Saloon" at the corner of North Concho and Chavez Streets. When the 1889 Directory was issued Ewert had apparently sold his original Saloon and was in the process of relocating. The 1891 directory finds him in a new building at 221 Morales Street. From 1892 through 1910 he is listed as "Otto Ewert or O. Ewert" at 219 Morales.

In 1911 a partnership was evidently consummated since the directory listing reads "Ewert O. and Son" at 219 Morales. To my knowledge, no tokens have yet surfaced which read "O. Ewert & Son" - But the discovery of such a piece would come as no surprise. The Ewert partnership continued until the 1918 prohibition act at last forced its doors to close.

Illustrated are two tokens that were issued from the saloon of Otto Ewert.

THE SHERIDAN HOUSE OF DAKOTA TERRITORY By Bob Clark ATCO #67

The Sheridan House was located in Bismarck, Dakota Territory and was a place of eating, drinking and being merry and was well carried out in those rough and early days of the Territory.

The Sheridan House was one of the earliest and perhaps the most famous of the various Bismarck establishments. It was built in 1877 by E. H. Bly. It was built on the site of the present Burlington Northern Depot with the front of the hotel facing the railroad tracks.

The Sheridan House was a "V"-shaped, three story frame building, heated by steam and finally with electric lights.

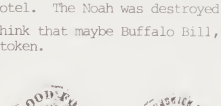

The furnishings in the parlor were in French Style, with upholstery of plush cardinal and carpets to match.

Bly was a famous host and his hotel guests ranged from Buffalo Bill to U.S. Presidents.

The hayday of the Saloon passed with the beginning of Prohibition and State hood in 1889.

Ed Patterson & Ed Allen leased the hotel from Bly in 1893 and in 1894 Patterson became the sole owner, after which the Sheridan was moved to a new location and the name was changed to Noah West Hotel. The Noah was destroyed by fire in 1921.

It is interesting to think that maybe Buffalo Bill, Teddy Roosevelt or one of the other Presidents handled my token.

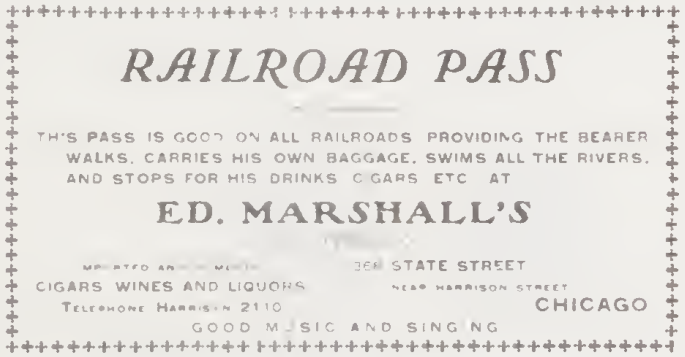

OLD SALOON BUSINESS CARDS

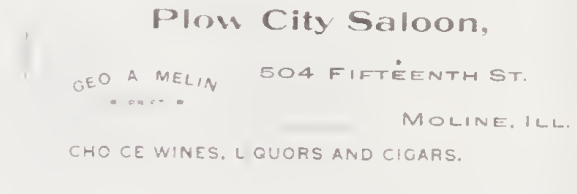

By Phil Klabel

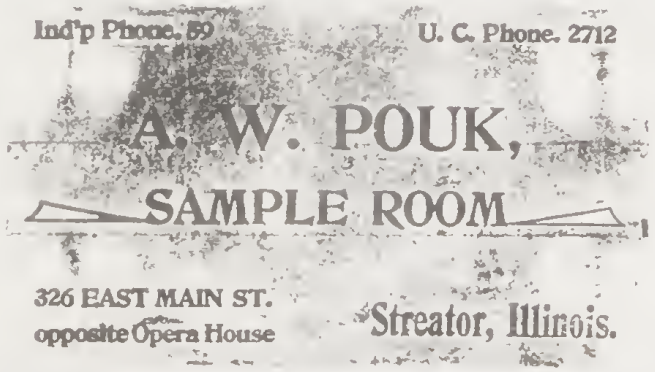

I've started collecting old Saloon Business Cards which I find most interesting and they go with old saloon tokens. Today we do not see as much good sense of humor. I guess they had to have a sense of humor in those days.

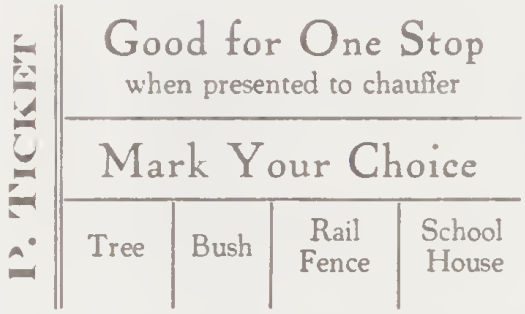

Such old cards can be found at Post Card and Advertising shows as well as flea markets and antique shops.

Following are a few of my favorite cards. If anyone has any for sale or trade please let me know.

A WASHINGTON TERRITORIAL PUZZLE

By Bill Clapper

About ten or eleven years ago when I was working with the Good Samaritan Society in Moscow, Idaho putting in the New Retirement Village I met an old lady who was a widow. Her husband collected old coins and medals plus a few tokens. She sold me several of the tokens and among them were two Trader tokens. One was clearly identified on the token. I traded it to Forrest Dunham. The other was wrapped in a yellowing piece of paper which read: J. A. Simms, Trader, Wash. Territory. I offered it to Forrest too, but he would have nothing to do with it because it was not fully identified on the token. I have done nothing with it until I decided to write the above and show an impression of the token hoping that someone might know something about it.

TOKENS OF HISTORIC LYNX CREEK AND WALKER, ARIZONA

By John A. Staggs #110

The fabulous California gold rush of 1849 had lost most of its luster to many of the restless argonauts by 1855. As early as 1851, rumors filtered back into the mother lode country of gold being found along stream beds somewhere in the mountains of northern Arizona. In January of 1860, John W. Swilling and his exploring party, along with an auxiliary force of Maricopa warriors, penetrated far up the Hassayampa River. The party eventually had to turn back for lack of supplies and unfriendly Yavapai/Apache Indians who resented the white man's intrusion. In 1862 gold was discovered on the Colorado, but as yet the central mountains had not been explored. Believing gold existed on the Little Colorado, Joseph Reddeford Walker organized a party of gold seekers in the spring of 1861. The party left California and entered northern Arizona on their way to the Little Colorado far to the east. Finding no gold, the party moved on into New Mexico and down the Rio Grande turning west and again entering Arizona from the east. After passing through Tucson and the Pima villages in the spring of 1863, the party turned north somewhere south of present Wickenburg. Striking the Hassayampa River, the prospectors found "color" all along the rugged creek bed as they slowly made their way up the river. After much struggle and several encounters with "hostiles", the party reached the summit in May 1863. Moving on down the other side along Lynx Creek, they found gold in abundance. The mining districts of "Pioneer" and "Walker" were hastily organized. Soon a small, crude community came into being near the headwaters of Lynx Creek. The miners called it Walker, in honor of their leader. Word of the find traveled fast and soon hundreds of miners, prospectors, and just plain adventurers moved into the area. The town of Prescott, a few miles north and west of Walker, was founded and became the capitol of the new territory. Placer claims were staked out all along Lynx Creek for several miles as it meandered down to the Agua Fria River. Walker did not take on much importance until the early 1880's when lode mining took over as the placers became exhausted. When lode mining along the creek began to show promise, most of the activity centered around the important mines near Walker. The Mac Hole, Pine Mountain, Shelton and many other lesser mines produced rich ores; the peak years of production being between 1897 and 1911. Walker had two hotels, numerous boarding houses, at least three restaurants and the usual saloons. A.E. Upper (spelled "Uppers" on the token) ran a hotel, restaurant, and boarding house on the northwest side of Main Street. On June 23, 1903, he bought out Desire Barranger's saloon and restaurant located across the street. He converted the saloon and restaurant into a general store and stage stop. A.E. Upper first appears in county courthouse records on February 20, 1901, when he sold the "Richards Saloon" to Desire Barranger.

In June 1903, the saloon, along with added restaurant, was sold back to A.E. Upper as previously mentioned. It is assumed by this writer that A.E. Upper bought the "Richards Saloon" from Joseph Dougherty but as yet no record of this transaction can be found. On April 25, 1900, an "A. Richards" sold to Joseph Dougherty his saloon building, 24' x

40', along with "an amount of whiskey, beer, and assorted liquors". The Bill of Sale states the building was located near the Dixie Mill. This would put it on the southeast side of Main Street on the west side of the creek. On May 31, 1909, downtown Walker burned; with it the Upper Hotel. Apparently buildings along the creek on the southeast side on Main Street were spared because the saloon building was sold in 1916 to the Town of Walker to be used as a schoolhouse. A.E. Upper and his family moved out of Arizona sometime late in 1909. He issued a beautiful brass, (4) scalloped token that reads: "Good for 12½¢ in Trade, A.E. Uppers/12½¢."

Dave L. Booker also had a general store, saloon, and stage stop all in one building. The earliest record of Mr. Booker's appearance in Walker is 1902. The "Arizona Weekly Miner" account of June 1, 1909, states that the Booker Store was vacant at the time of the fire, indicating he was no longer doing business, at least in this location. He issued a brass, round token that reads: "Good for one drink/At Bookers Bar."

There is one more known token issued from this historic area. The token is brass, round, and reads: "A. Richardson, Lynx Creek/I O U 1 Drink." To this date, this writer has not been able to find any records of A. Richardson. This token is of an older style and was probably issued between 1895 and 1900. Could this token have been issued by A. Richards? Maybe the token maker added the "son" as he did the "s" on the A.E. Upper token. Perhaps the "drummer" taking the order for the tokens had sampled his customer's delights before he wrote up the order; nobody knows.

There are two known specimens of each token. Five are in collections. Four of the six were found in Walker (now a private summer resort). One of the A. Richardson tokens was found with a metal detector on the Prescott Courthouse lawn.

THE "HOUSE" TOKENS I COLLECT

By Bill Clapper

When ever I run one of my Mail Bids I am asked the question, "What in the heck are "house" tokens.

House tokens are just tokens issued by a hotel that preferred to use the name "house" rather than hotel. In actuality they are the same. I prefer to collect "house" tokens rather than "hotel" tokens.

The early house or hotel generally had sleeping rooms, parlor, saloon and restaurant facilities and many of them had sample rooms for the traveling saleman to display his goods.

Tokens were issued to a traveling salesman with the idea of keeping in the house or hotel and not to wander off down the street to another saloon or resaurant.

The tokens will read, like: Franklin House/GF a Drink At The Bar or good for so much in trade or even for a meal in the restaurant.

I am an avid collector of "HOUSE" tokens and will trade for them or buy them.

Mark Bridge, who was the Proprietor of the Commercial House of Sioux Falls issued a token that was Territorial and later issued a token with South Dakota on it.

I do own the only known token from the DODGE HOUSE, Dodge City, Kansas. I often tease my boys by saying that this is where Marshal Dillon and Kitty stayed.

THE COMMERCIAL HOUSE

Is the Favorite Hotel of South Dakota.

MARK BRIDGE, PROPRIETOR.

I read Rocco DiGiacomo's suggestions for a coulum on specialized token collections with great interest, and thoroughly enjoyed his first contribution on BI-METALS.

His suggestion called to mind a couple of my oddball gatherings that I don't really consider "collections," but are nevertheless a lot of fun.

Some months ago I noticed in my junque box a growing number of MAVERICKS with large single letters on the obverse. I also noticed that many bore lesser used letters. I then thought "why not?" To date, I have obtained all letters except I, N, P, Q, and T. I am confident that the missing letters will eventually show up. In fact, I have begun upgrading' the existing letters with those of "older" or more "ornate" design.

This is possibly one of the very few "collections" that is fun, inexpensive, and can be completed.

Dear Bill:

Regarding Alan Weinber's letter protesting the "For Trade Only" policy of some members. I believe a lot of people missed the point he was trying to make. I agree that trading is an important aspect of our hobby, having acquired many fine items via this route. The danger lies with the ridiculous prices being bid on some tokens, just to acquire them as traders. Here is an example of a recent experience I went through.

I had a token that "Joe Blow" needed, but he didn't have anything from New Jersey to offer in trade. Two months went by and then a desireable New Jersey token was offered in a mail bid sale. I bid $15.00 for the token and "Joe Blow" bid $28.00 and was the successful bidder. He then offered to trade me the N.J. token for my token plus $20.00 in cash because he bid $28.00 for the token he was offering me in the trade.

As far as I know, "Joe Blow" still has his $28.00 token and I refuse to do any more trading with this character. Enough Said.

Sincerely, AL ZAIKA - -

P.S. Please spare us anymore of the asinine mouthings of this so-called "BINKY".

Editor's Note: We get ten letters praising Binky to every letter wanting to tear him apart. I guess it is time that I say something about "BINKY". Binky is doing just what he is supposed to be doing; picking on someone or something. It could be me or some member or members or something they are doing that displeases him. Myself, I know better than to pick on him because I might be the next target. So, like the old saying goes, YOU BETTER WATCH OUT OR HE WILL GET YOU!!! So, behave Al, you might be his next target.

SO, TO SUM IT ALL UP "BINKY" IS IN FUN AND IF YOU CAN'T TAKE "BINKY" PICKING ON YOU, THEN RUN FOR COVER.

Dear Bill:

As you know I never complain about anything but boy have I had my problems this week. I had car problems and it cost me $1,206.99. That may not seem like much to lots of people but it sure slowed down my token hunting.

I noticed in the last issue that some of the members had not sent in the $5.00 you requested to keep everything going. I would guess some of them just overlooked it like myself (my check enclosed).

Bill, a normal day for me is 2 packs of cigarettes ($1.80), lunch ($4.77), six pack of beer ($2.67), gas ($9.16) and my ATCO at 4¢. I don't know of anything else I can enjoy this much for 4¢ a day. In fact, tell Ray M. to stick with ATCO because it would cost more than 4¢ a day to take "Playboy" to bed with him.

Regards,

Binky

EDITOR'S COMMENT: I MADE COMMENT ABOUT BINKY IN ANOTHER AREA OF THIS ISSUE. I HAVE HAD A LOT OF QUESTIONS ABOUT HIM. SOME WONDERED WHAT HE LOOKED LIKE. HE SENT HIS PITCTURE THIS TIME.

Dear Bill: Enclosed is a check for $20 - next years dues plus the '82 $5.

I was a bit concerned with the wording of my classified ad as it got into the May issue (Page 39): "ALL SUCH INFORMATION WILL BE HELD IN STRICT CONFIDENCE!!!" I don't believe I made that statement; my policy in cataloguing Idaho tokens is to answer any inquiries as to who has what token unless the owner has requested that I do not. There are only a few tokens that fall into the "secret" category. Idaho collectors all seem to get along very well. Thanks for the great job in spearheading ATCO - - It is most worthwhile.

JOHN D. MUTCH, 7931 CRESTWOOD DRIVE, BOISE, IDAHO 83704

Dear Bill: First, I want to tell you how sorry I am for not sending the $5.00 last month. I know it's difficulat for you to believe but I just flat overlooked it. Anyway, please find enclosed my $5.00.

Second, I want to say "thank you" for the great job you are doing. You are the key person in the success of ATCO and I think any thinking person know this.

ROBERT FLEET - - -

Thanks Robert, but I just fit into the whole picture of ATCO. If it was not for the members, the excellent articles, ads, comments, etc., ATCO would not be what it is. All the members deserve the credit - - - Editor.

IRVING, MINNESOTA TERRITORY By CAL WOODS

This is a chronicle of a town and a token. While Minnesota was still a territory the settlement of IRVING had its townsite platted only three years after the land was opened to white settlement west of the Mississippi. This was in 1856, where it was platted on the west side of Green Lake, in what is now Kandiyohi County in Central Minnesota. The next year, in 1857, a post office was established at IRVING, and the first Postmaster was Samuel B. Drinkard. In that year of 1857 a financial panic and depression struck the midwest, bringing development to a virtual standstill. IRVING had hardly begun its settlement when it was wrought with trouble.

Then, in the summer of 1862 the Sioux outbreak took place, with Indians overrunning areas near IRVING, burning farms, stealing livestock, and killing the settlers and their famalies. In panic many of these new settlers packed their covered wagons and moved east beyond the Mississippi, never to return. A few brave souls took refuge in the newly fortified towns in the area. The U.S. Army fought a pitched battle with the Sioux at Acton, Minnesota in September of 1862, with no great success. It was not 12 miles from Irving. So few settlers remained that Irving closed its Postoffice in 1862.

With the Indian Wars over, settlers began to return to Kandiyohi County. In 1868 the Township of Irving was organized, taking its name from the little settlement. In that year Irving had a new postoffice with Burrell Adams as the first Post Master.

Then, in 1873 a terrible scourge of grasshoppers struck parts of Minnesota, and Kandiyohi County and Irving was soon part of it. Massive crop destruction left most effected farmers destitute and in a state of near starvation. It was not until 1877 that the grasshoppers finally departed.

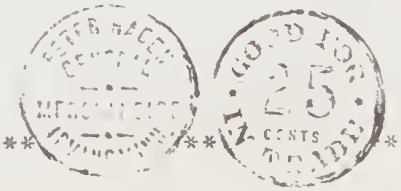

In 1890 Irving's population was 50 with no places of business recorded. But sometime in the mid-1890's a General Store was built with owner and Postmaster Peter Hagen. About the same time Irving built a Co-operative Creamery for the benefit of the dairy farmers in the area. It began daily mail and a stage to Atwater. Its population remained at about 50.

By 1906 Rural Free Delivery in Minnesota made unnecessary the small Post Offices, and the one in Irving was closed in May of that year. A railroad Atlas shows Irving with a population of 59 in 1909.

By 1914 the General Store was operated by Hans M. Orfield, and John Peterson had opened a village Blacksmith shop. The Irving Cooperative Creamery was still flourishing. Sometime between 1914 and 1922 both the General Store and the Creamery had closed, leaving only the blacksmith shop, which was now run by John Lind. Its population had not risen.

In 1933 Dun and Bradstreet took no note of Irving, and from then on there seems to be no record of its existance as a settlement. The Township of Irving continues to exist in 1982, being rural, with rich farms within the 36 miles of the township, but "little Irving" is gone. It should be surprising to us all that Irving survived through Indian Wars, depressions, and natural pestilences, for its 70 years of existance. Perhaps there is still a ruins of a creamery to mark its past. I have found only one token from Irving:

TOKEN-HUNTING NORTH OF THE 49TH!

Susan Nadin-Davis, ATCO 259

For any number of reasons, it seems to pay to plan your holidays, business trips and pleasure trips to coincide with major numismatic events. I guess it gives you something to do, plenty of contacts and friends in the places you visit, and helps get around that anxiety one feels when token-collecting has to be left alone for a few weeks in favour of beaches, ski-hills or just plain old relaxing.

With that in mind, the purpose of this short article is to give you my tips on what I consider to be the best spots to hit in Canada, whatever your interests may be, and the key times to land in them should you need to pay us a visit. Because I don't like throwing stones or getting into fights, I won't say anything about the (fortunately very few) numismatic events that I don't feel are worth making a long trip for, but because I don't mention something please don't assume I think it's no good. I may just have missed it. Rather, I'll concentrate on three events I feel should be highlights of the Fall season.

For those in or visiting the Maine-New England region, I'd recommend a trip up to Moncton, New Brunswick for the Fall Rally of the Atlantic Provinces Numismatic Association. Now Moncton may be a smaller show, but they're a fine group of fellows up there, including Geoff Bell, who will soon be President of the Canadian Numismatic Association. They put together a fine, active show, with plenty of trading going on on the sidelines. With it being not too far from the U.S. border there's always a chance of the odd U.S. item turning up, though the shortage of major economic forces in the marketplace at this eastern show often means that bargains are to be had. The A.P.N.A. Fall Rally this year will be held at Keddy's Brunswick Hotel, Moncton, on October 23rd and 24th.

Further westward, in "la Belle Province", we come to Montreal, Quebec. One of Canada's busiest shows (probably the busiest, as a matter of fact) is held October 29-31 at the Sheraton Centre. I'd guess there are about 70 or 80 dealers here, including many U.S. personalities. We always really enjoy this show, not least for the lively city of Montreal, and there are always bargains to be had. Several auction sessions, often including large lots containing hidden treasures, help this show to be one of the most exciting of the year. Again, if you're planning to be in Montreal this year, try to make it the last weekend in October!

The highlight of the token collector's year in Canada last year was the Lepczyk sale of the Buckley collection, in conjunction with the Toronto International Coin Fair. Token collectors should be out in force for the show again this year, though the auction house offering all the tokens is not quite so prestigious as Lepczyk - it's mine! The T.I.C.F. has always been good for tokens, however, and features about 100 dealers from as far away as England and sometimes the Continent. While, like the previous two shows mentioned, this is a coin show, tokens have traditionally been there a-plenty, and I'm hoping this year will be no exception. The T.I.C.F. is held November 19-21 at the Seaway Towers (Lakeshore Inn) on Lakeshore Boulevard, Toronto.

I should mention that both Montreal and Toronto have several coin shops, Toronto probably having more. Browsing through these several dealers' stocks has often paid off for us, and could well for you!

Naturally enough, I'll be attending all these shows and looking for bargains too. You can be sure of a warm welcome at these major Canadian events - we're always happy to have our neighbours drop by!

PRIME MINISTERS OF CANADA AND FATHERS OF CANADIAN CONFEDERATION DEPICTED ON RECENT TRADE DOLLARS.

By Jerry Remick ATCO #307

Since the majority of ATCO's members are American and so perhaps not too familiar with Canadian history and the Canadian municipal trade dollar series. I would like to briefly mention that there is now a series of trade dollars depicting 7 out of the 16 Prime Ministers of Canada who have held office since Confederation in 1867 and 8 out of the 36 Fathers of the Confederation.

So far 8 trade dollars (4 issued yearly) depicting the Fathers of Confederation, have been issued in 1981 and 1982 by Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. The remaining 28 will be issued at the rate of 4 each year over the next 7 years. The 36 Fathers first met in Charlottetown in 1864, then in Quebec City and lastly in London, England to draw up the articles of the Canadian Confederation which was adopted officially on July 1, 1867 creating Canada. Two of the men (Sir John A. MacDonald and Sir Charles Tupper) were later Prime Ministers of Canada. Not all of the 36 men went to each of the meetings but most did. Jim Quinn lists four (Brown, Carter, Cartier and MacDonald) of them issued in 1982 by Charlottetown on page 43 of the Oct. issue of ATCO at $1.60 each. He can supply the other 4 (Gray, Tilley, Tupper and McGee), issued in 1981, at the same price. The 1981 series was struck on 32mm blanks in nickel-silver, with a mintage of 10,000 each. The 1982 series was struck on 33mm blanks in Nickel-Bonded Steel with a mintage of 5,000 each.

100 sets were gold plated, 100 sets were rhodium plated and 200 sets were bronze plated and are available from Jim Quinn or the issuer (Charlottetown Chamber of Commerce, Box 67, Charlottetown, P.E.I. Canada, C1A 7K2) at $25.00 per set. 35 sets were struck in .999 fine silver (0.55 oz silver per coin) and are available from the Charlottetown Chamber of Commerce at $175.00 postpaid. The Charlottetown Chamber of Commerce can supply gold plated or rhodium plated sets of the four 1981 Fathers dollars at $20.00 postpaid, per set. The 1981 silver sets and bonze sets are sold out.

Trade dollars depicting 7 of Canada's Prime Ministers (Mac Donald, Diffenbaker, Bordon, King, Laurier, Pearson and St. Laurant) were issued by Smiths Falls, Ontario in 1980 and 1981 Trade dollars depicting the remaining 9 Prime Ministers of Canada will be issued during the next few years. Sherritt Mint struck 5,000 of each on 33mm blanks in nickel (1981) and in Nickel Bonded Steel (1981). The pieces have a high luster and having nickel surface will always retain this luster. Specimens are available at $1.60 each from Jim Quinn or $1.50 postpaid each from the issuer: Settlers Days Committee, Box 53, Smiths Falls, Ontario, Canada K7A 4S9. A short history of each man accompanies the dollar. Those ordering from Smiths Falls will receive announcements of all future issues.

Smith Falls also issued a 1982 trade dollar with the portrait of Col. John By, founder of Ottawa (Canada's capital city) and builder of the Rideau Canal. The dollar marks the 150th anniversary of the opening of the Rideau Canal,connecting Ottawa and Kingston in 1832. Sherritt Mint struck 5,000 specimens on 33mm blanks in Nickel Bonded Steel. They are available from Jim Quinn at $1.60 or the Settlers Days Committee at $1.50 postpaid.

The engraving on all of the above mentioned dollars, except the 1981 Father Dollars, was done by the same engraver and shows very good detail. This engraver will complete both series from drawings made by Mrs. I. Coucill of Toronto.

MAIL AUCTION & FIXED PRICE SALE

I am preparing a list of exonumia and collectibles for release sometime in November. It will include the following among other items:

SALES TAX TOKENS: included will be two items never before on the market: The Denver, Colorado, 1¢ Tax Paid Woolworth's receipt (CO#17, R-9) and the Missouri 5 Mills pattern (MO#2, R-10). Others to be offered are some Alabama scarce items, especially the blue fibre 1 Mill, the white and black New Mexico fibres and another scarce St. Louis Laundry Missouri 1 Mill cardboard counterstamp. Some Illinois paper provisionals will be listed. Copies of the now out-of-print Chits, Chislers, and Funny Money will be for sale.

MAGICIAN'S TOKENS: A small selection includes two R-7's: Anna Eva Fay (MT131) and Trewey (MT329).

CALIFORNIA AND OTHER STATES' MERCHANTS TOKENS: Also listed will be a wide range of older California Merchants' Tokens as well as a few from other states. Two better Texas tokens from Corpus Christi and Del Rio are listed with a piece from New Orleans. A numer of modern Wisconsin tokens will be for sale.

MINT-RELATED ITEMS: A rare chance to bid on U.S. Mint documents autographed by the Director of 1969, Ms. Eva Adams. The COIN WORLD mint medal collection will be another attraction.

U.S. AND FOREIGN GAMING TOKENS: The listings will carry a number of the Franklin Mint struck pieces made for casinos in Latin-America and the British Isles during the late 1960's. Several silver proof pieces from Europe are included. A fixed price list of current Nevada casino Free Play pieces is also to be a part of the list.

AUTOMOTIVE ITEMS: The 1953 and 1954 Wheaties miniature license plates series will be available. Those and some miscellaneous pieces will be a must for car buff types.

MISCELLANEOUS: Like most lists there will be the usual broad spectrum of fair items, commemoratives, medals, Franklin Mint specialities, foreign tokens and others. There will be a good group of Large Lucky Coins as well

If you would like to receive this list, please just drop me a line with your name and address and you will receive a complimentary list. Consignments for future lists are now being accepted.

D IS FOR DAIRY TOKEN - - -

If Milk is not the staff of life then it surely is the wine before you bought it at the store, it was delivered all the time
The milkman sold you tokens for a quart, or perhaps a pint. Then he brought the milk every other night
You left the token in the bottle and the bottle at the door. When the milkman came around he left a pint, or more
Milk now comes in cardboard, no more bottles of glass. The milkwagon and Old Dobbin are almost forgotten past. By J. W. Davis

TERRITORIALS, POST TRADERS AND ALASKA

I'm a serious collector of Territorial tokens from Wyoming (W.T.), the Dakotas (D.T.), Montana (M.T.), Arizona (A.T.), Washington (W.T.) and most other Territorials ... except for Oklahoma. I will pay $200.90 and up for ANY Territorial token and UP TO $1,000 for the rarest of the rare.

Also wanted: Post Traders, Saloon tokens (including saloon "mavericks" ... send 'em on ... I'll pay good money for saloon mavericks), early classic style military tokens, and rare Alaska tokens - particularly the gold nugget tokens. I'm quite willing and able to pay TOP market price. Contact me.

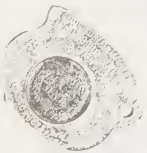

I also avidly collect mavericks and will pay good prices for your accumulations of nice old mavericks ... one or hundreds of 'em. I'm not afraid to pay $5, $10 or much more for a maverick that has a nice style and appeals to me.

Note: I will also trade to obtain good tokens for those few of you that don't place any value on cash money.

METCA members had a get together in Seattle, Washington on Saturday, October 30, 1982 at the home of Al and Nina Nystrom. Starting at 3:00 pm, they gathered for a day of token buying, selling, trading and lots of reminscing about the "good old days. Many tall stories were told about favorite tokens.

While the men transacted all their important business in the basement recreation room, the ladies gathered upstairs for a day of visiting. Nina gave the ladies a tour of her beautiful home and entertained them by showing all the lovely and interesting things she has collected during her lifetime. She had an interesting commentary for each one. She also displayed all her prize winning embroidery work. This was a highlight of the day for the ladies.

An engraved plaque, complete with clock was presented by John Calhoun to Barry and Jan Bender. This was in great appreciation of Barry's years of hard work and faithful devotion in putting out Trade Token Topics, during the years from 1977 to December 1982.

John also presented an engraved plaque to Al and Nina Nystrom in appreciation of their hard work every year in making the token shows a great success. This was also in appreciation for their help to the Benders in putting out the paper.

In the evening everyone gathered for a delicious potluck chicken dinner, with an evening of good food and fellowship enjoyed by all. The day wound down at 11:00 pm with everyone having had a great time.

FROM YOUR EDITOR!

THE NEW MEMBERSHIP CARDS ARE ENCLOSED FOR THE BULK OF THE MEMBERSHIP. THOSE WHO DID NOT RECEIVE CARDS ARE DOWN THE ROAD AWAYS FOR RENEWAL. THESE WILL BE OUR PERMANENT RECORDS FOR THE NEXT FEW YEARS, SO, PLEASE FILL THEM IN CAREFULLY!!!

A NUMBER OF THE MEMBERS HAVE ALREADY RENEWED THEIR MEMBERSHIP FOR 1983, BUT WE DO NEED THE NEW CARDS FILLED IN AND ANY CORRECTIONS MADE IN YOUR COLLECTING WANTS. AND, YOU HAVE BEEN MARKED PAID FOR 1983. NOTE THE 1983 SECTION!

THOSE WHO DID NOT RECEIVE CARDS BECAUSE YOUR MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL IS DOWN THE ROAD AWAYS CAN SEND IN 1983-84 DUES AND A NEW CARD WILL BE SENT TO YOU.

REMEMBER, THE DUES ARE NOW $15.00

THE MAIN REASON FOR THE EARLY ENCLOSURE OF THE NEW CARDS AND REQUEST FOR EARLY RENEWAL IS SO THAT WE CAN START WORK ON THE NEW MEMBERSHIP LIST. IT IS GOING TO BE A LOT OF WORK AND ALL THE HELP I CAN GET IN EARLY RENEWALS WILL GIVE ME THE TIME TO GET THE LIST READY, HOPEFULLY FOR THE FEBRUARY ISSUE.

THOSE WHO DO NOT RENEW WILL HAVE THEIR NUMBERS ASSIGNED TO ANOTHER MEMBER. WE WANT TO KEEP AN ACTUAL RECORD OF THE MEMBERS.

PLEASE DO NOT BEND OR FOLD THE CARDS - PLEASE USE A BUSINESS ENVELOPE TO RETURN THEM. THANKS!!

FEBRUARY ISSUES WILL NOT BE SENT TO ANYONE WHO HAS NOT RENEWED BY THE TIME THE FEBRUARY ISSUES ARE READY FOR MAILING.

HELP US CONTINUE WHAT WE HAVE STARTED. WE WANT TO HAVE AN ENLARGED MEMBERSHIP LIST AND THIS ISSUE WILL BE ALPHABETIZED RATHER THAN NUMBER SEQUENCE.

With the January issue we will be one year old and we have kept our commitment of being on time and publishing interesting issues which I think will get more interesting as I "gig" the members to write good articles. The members have responded to my encouragement and I'm sure you are going to see great things from ATCO. We have a good and understanding group of directors who are great support to your editor.

We have been asked if we were going to have an election of directors each year. That is up to the membership, but as far as I am concerned, why change what is working so well. I will abide by what the membership wants.

SO, MEMBERS, THANKS FOR ALL THE HELP!!!! IT IS MUCH APPRECIATED. FROM TIME TO TIME I CATCH A LITTLE HE-- FROM A MEMBER AND GETTING NICE LETTERS OFFSETS SUCH LETTERS.

OUR JANUARY ISSUE WILL REACH MOST BY CHRISTMAS, BUT IF YOUR ISSUE SHOULD FAIL TO GET TO YOU BY THEN, LET ME EXTEND MY WARM GREETINGS ALONG WITH THOSE OF YOUR DIRECTORS!!!!!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill: I have enjoyed reading the ATCO publication and learning from the articles and letters.

My suggestions concerning expenses are two: Raise ad rates (as Sam Ruggeri suggests)and consider bulk mail. Bulk mail would delay mail bid sales, but not destroy them.

I have been publishing exonumia mail bid sales for about a year. My Exonumia VI is now in the mail.

Any members who would like to receive my mail bid sales (which run some 600 lots and sent free) please write.

Clark's, 1524 Overlook Shipping Center, Mobile, Alabama 36618

Dear Bill: PLEASE INCLUDE MY NAME IN ANY LIST OF CATALOGERS. I THOUGHT YOU KNEW THAT I WAS CATALOGING MISSISSIPPI TOKENS?

Any help from ATCO members will be much appreciated. I will return their postage and let them know the estimated rarity of their Mississippi tokens. I will attempt to make an offer on any Mississippi tokens I do not have with no hard feelings if it is rejected

GEORGE CHATHAM, 813 W. Gresham, Indianola, Mississippi 38751

Editor's Note: Sorry, George, I just plain forgot. If I have missed any other catalogers please let me know. It certainly was not intentional.

Dear Bill: I received my ATCO yesterday and as always I couldn't wait to read it. In fact, I got off work at 11PM and because of reading my issue of ATCO it was 2AM before I got to bed.

I would like to direct a statement to my friend Merlin Bondhus concerning his article "The Powder River Ranch", in the last issue of ATCO.

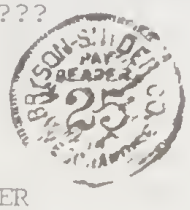

DARN IT, MERLIN, YOU COLORADO FELLAS HAVE YOUR OWN HISTORICAL TOWNS AND RANCHES WITHOUT TAKING CREDIT FOR OURS TOO! I KNOW IT WAS A SIMPLE MISTAKE AND YOU DIDN'T MEAN TO, BUT JUST TO SET THE RECORD STRAIGHT, THE "POWDER RIVER RANCH" AT POWDER RIVER CROSSING WAS IN WYOMING, NOT COLORADO.

Thanks Bill, and I am enclosing a $15.00 check for next years dues. After all, January is just around the corner and I don't want to miss any issues.

"ARIZONA TOKENS REVISED" A REVIEW BY JOHN HAMILTON III

Hal Birt, Jr., published his original token work in 1979. The work was such a disappointment I expected little from his latest effort. The 1979 work was very badly organized; had prices that had little relationship to the market or to each other; and was missing a maverick index, the most useful part of any token catalog.

His latest effort is a great improvement. Birt has included date information, though far from complete is a good start. His inclusion of the term "Ghost Town" where appropriate is helpful particularly to collectors not familiar with Arizona.

The inclusion of a rarity scale is one of the most significant improvements in the new edition. R-10 = 1 or 2 known. R-10 is about twice as fare as R-9 and R-9 is about twice as rare as R-8. Segmented this way the rarity system is very effective. On the whole I find the rarity designations very accurate.

I regret Birt (or any other cataloger) omitting prices as Birt has done in this edition, but there is some merit in his having done so. Arizona tokens are feverishly collected and prices are very volatile. No matter how high the catalogue may set prices some will automatically ask 150 or 200% of the catalogue price. Further, prices are very subjective. I frequently hear of collectors and dealers paying prices for Arizona tokens I think are way too high, but then I have paid prices I think are way to high. Such is the fate of those addicted to token collecting. Another problem is pricing tokens that are hoard tokens, when the hoard is being kept off the market to induce false rarity. Such is the case with the Fifth Cavalry tokens of Nogales. Birt lists their rarity accurately, but they are hard to obtain because they are being kept off the market. A possible solution might be minimum price like $100+ or $500+.

Birt has a very accurate maverick index in the new addition. Three CHEERS!!! I found only two misattributions; the "Superior Tap" token is from Iowa and the "Pythian Billiard Room" is from Indiana.

There are additional indexes that would make Birt's work (or any other catalog) more useful to the specialist and out-of-state collectors and dealers, the inclusion of the dates of the post office and the county the town is located in. This would be welcome information. In addition to listing tokens by town it would be very helpful to have separate listings of catagories of highly collected tokens, such as: Indian Traders, saloons, transportation, territorials, bi-metals, lumber, BBC, and scrip. Such listings should have a minimum of discription and perhaps be in a smaller type size. The resulting catalog would be a much more useful tool, without greatly expanding the number of pages. (OTHER CATALOGERS PLEASE TAKE NOTE!)

Birt lists much new material and the book is far superior to the first edition. Even if this were not the case, the maverick list alone is worth the $11.00 price to any serious token collector as Arizona tokens have become so valuable that the identification of even one Arizona maverick may pay for the list and leave a profit besides.

Dear Bill: Enclosed is my $5.00 dues assessment for ATCO. I have also enclosed an additional $20.00 as a contribution to ATCO. Its a small price to pay for all the benefits I receive from membership in the organization. I also would like to add my appreciation for you assuming the editorship of ATCO. Its an often difficult and tedious job and I wanted you to know we are aware and appreciative. KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK!

LAWRENCE E. ELMAN

Dear Bill:

I never complain but at our combined meeting of the TDBW (Truck Drivers & Bird Watchers, Association) there was some talk about the courtesy of some of the collectors in our token society. Seems that the biggest gripe is some collectors will not answer letters. Now, I know it takes a little time to set down and write a short note and spend 20¢ on a stamp, but if someone goes out and burns his gas, digs around in junk boxes, get kicked out of shops and pays two to ten dollars for a token, I think I owe him the courtesy of answering his letter. After all he has money and time in locating a token, he has hopes of trading me, I'm quite sure 20¢ is less than he spent trying to help my collection.

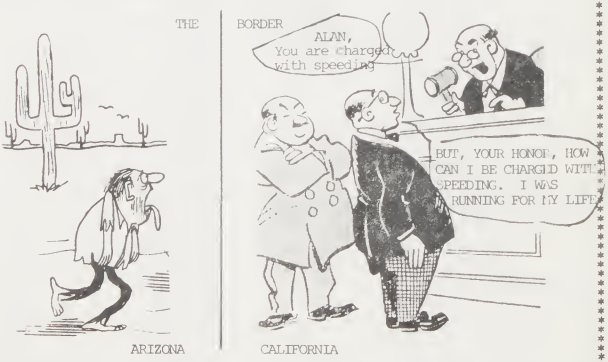

I guess I could complain about women drivers. This afternoon a lady stopped in front of me. I slammed on my brakes, scattered my load, scared the hell out of myself and turned my spit can over. I'm either going to stop driving in this traffic or stop dipping snuff.

Catch you on the turn.

Binky

"ARIZONA TOWN RARITY SCALE" BY PETE SPOONER #240 and BOB TEMARANTZ #57

In light of a new Arizona token catalog "Arizona Tokens, Revised", published by Hal Birt, Jr., Pete Spooner and I felt that a town rarity scale would be helpful to those unfamiliar with town rarities.

Mainly, through the efforts of Pete Spooner, we both got together to bring such a town rarity scale of Arizona tokens. "Arizona Tokens, Revised" is based on a rarity scale of more than 3,000 pieces of Arizona exonumia. Common token towns like Bisbee, Prescott, Globe, Jerome, Arizona, have tokens listed from R-1 up to R-10 as the rarest. Rare token towns like Ashfork, Metcalf, Parker and Allantown, Arizona, also have the same rarity scale.

However, rare towns are much more desirable to collectors because they are usually unavailable to the Arizona town collector... We therefore felt a rarity scale will assist those who are new to collecting Arizona tokens or others who may have Arizona tokens but not familiar to its qualitative desirability.

Arizona is represented by 283 different towns. Tokens (good fors) account for 228 towns. Of those 228 towns, 13 are plastic tokens (Arivaca, Cochise, Cortaro, Dolan Springs, Green Valley, Guadalupe, Oraibi, Pinon, Rillito, Riviera, Ryan Field, San Luis, and Teec Nos Pos). Tags are represented from eight towns, medals of nine towns and towns represented by cardboard/scrip total fourteen. Modern non-plastic issues are the only representation of eleven towns.

There are 25, R-1 towns; 10, R-2 towns; 12, R-3 towns; 16, R-4 towns; 14, R-5 towns; 27, R-6 towns; 19, R-7 towns. In addition, there are 31, R-8 towns; 61, R-9 towns and 68, R-10 towns. So, we may always update our rarity scale list and those collectors who have towns not represented are asked to share this information with either Pete or myself.

MORE ARIZONA SHOOTOUT TOKENS

By Jinks Livingston

Here are some tokens high-graded from the silver hills of Tombstone, Arizona They were used by the Earp Brothers, Doc Holliday, The Clantons, Bat Masterson, Luke Short, Johney Ringo, Curley Bill and Nellie Cashman.

Some of the old Tombstone songs are, "The Queen of the Silver Dollar" and "The Bird In The Gilded Cage". Like the silver mines, the token paydirt is panned out and there will never be more than a few of these nice Tombstone collections.

ATCO MAIL BID RULES

THE ATCO ETHICS COMMITTEE HAS SET THE FOLLOWING MAIL BID RULES FOR ALL MAIL BIDS:

1. Mail bid closes 15th day of the month in which the sale appears in ATCO.
2. BID BY LOT NUMBER(S).
3. Bid the amount you are willing to pay.
4. Bids will not be reduced.
5. Postage and insurance will be added to successful bids.
6. Payment due on receipt of invoice and/or lot(s).
7. Five day return privilege if lot misrepresented by holder of Auction.
8. Any change in these rules must be explained to the bidders by the holder of the Auction. This explanation shall be made prior to the beginning of the sale (prior to the first lot offered). LIKE: ATCO RULES, EXCEPT ————————
9. Honor your bids. If you bid, honor your bids. Don't make the "LIST".

THE RULES HAVE NOW BEEN POSTED AND WILL BE POSTED EVERY OTHER MONTH SO THAT EVERY-ONE WILL BE FAMILIAR WITH THEM. THERE WILL BE NO EXCUSE FOR IGNORANCE OF THE RULES...

GOOD LUCK ON YOUR SALES AND ON YOUR BIDDING!!!

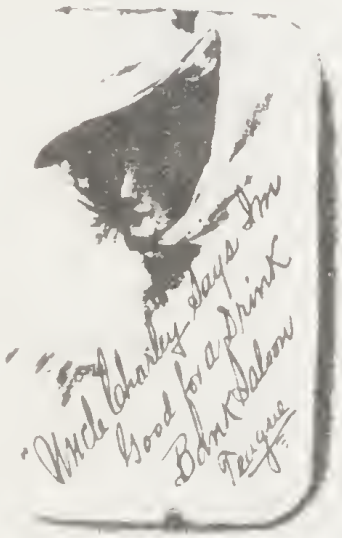

INTERESTING TEXAS SALOON "GOOD FOR" MIRROR By ALAN WEINBERG

Two somewhat different Texas Good For mirrors recently surfaced and I thought ATCO readers would like to see it.

The usual Good For mirror is round, with stock center photographs and stock-style legends. This mirror, 72mm x 44mm is rectangular, depicting a hand-drawn portrait of a "polite" young lady as opposed to the "bar girl" type usually pictured on G/F mirrors.

The legend is in script and quite "personalized". It reads, "Uncle Charley Says I'm/ Good For A Drink/Bank Saloon/Teague".

There is reportedly, two of these mirrors known. They were reportedly found in Teague, Texas and belonged to the descendants of Charles Turek who operated the Bank Saloon in Teague, in the early 1900s.

OBV. 1858 V C

REDROOT EDAM

REV. THE DUTCH GRUBSTAKER

CAN ANYONE IDENTIFY THIS?

For years I've owned this interesting old counterstamp on an 1850 U.S. Large Cent. Never saw or heard of another. It certainly is an enigma to me, but interesting enough to share with ATCO readers. Perhaps someone can shed some light on it.

OBVERSE: Handstamped incuse, two crossed rifles VC (Virginia City, V Corps??) and 1858; below REDROOT EDAM (a prospector's name?)

REVERSE: THE DUTCH GRUBSTAKER. Isn't a "grubstaker" a store proprietor or entrepreneur that loaned money and supplies (grubstaked) to prospectors or miners in return for a share in any claim or found treasure??

Dear Bill: Enclosed please find my check for $20.00 - $5.00 assessment and $15.00 for next years dues.

You are doing a terrific job with this publication and to help keep it functioning I would like to propose to ATCO that the advertising rates being raised. $10.00 for a full page is ridiculous.

The full page, camera ready, should be $25.00, half page $15.00 and quarter page $7.50. Anyone doing business knows that is still dirt cheap.
PAUL L. KOPPENHAVER - - -(I agree with you Paul, but I don't think we want to go as high

CHARLIES By CAL WOODS

CHARLIES IS GONE! On July 21st, 1982, it closed its doors forever, its building to be demolished to make room for an office building.

In 1934 Charlie W. Saunders opened a restaurant in an old wooden mansion at 816-4th Avenue South in downtown Minneapolis. He called it THE CAFE EXCEPTIONALE. In a very few years it became the finest restaurant in Minneapolis. Patrons came to associate the restaurant with its owner, Charlie Saunders, and they simply called it CHARLIES.

A new trade style was adopted in 1942, Charlies Cafe Exceptionale. In about 1946 Charlies build a new restaurant at 701-4th Avenue South, just across the street and up the block from its old "mansion" location. It was of brick and much more elegant. They have been there ever since.

Every Year Charlies Cafe Exceptionale won an award of one of the ten best restaurants in the nation. The food was always superb, specializing in steaks and lobster, but having a very broad menu. They had all male waiters who were professionals, some being with Charlies for 20 years or more.

Their Caesar's Salad was always the best in town. The salad waiter was at your table to personally make the salad, cutting a lemon and breaking an egg. While Charlies had a bar room, there was no pushing of liquor at the table. Beers and ales, such as Basses Ale were available at all times. The dining room was quiet and was never permitted to be overcrowded.

Meals were mainly A La Carte and never rushed. You could order and get goose in the evening, the only place in town that offered it. They did almost no advertising, depending on word-of-mouth and the Yellow Pages. Most people did not go to Charlies except on special occasions such as a birthday or a wedding anniversary. It was not a place for a quick lunch; you expected to spend the evening there, being treated in royal fashion without snobbishness by anyone. I think everyone in Minneapolis knew about Charlies, and looked forward to their next treat there.

A few years ago Charlie Saunders passed away and his wife carried on the tradition of Charlie by running it in the same superb fashion.. It came as a great shock to find out that Charlies had closed. It left an empty feeling in the minds and hearts of many people who know that there will never be another Charlies.

HERE ARE SOME OF CHARLIES TOKENS AND COAT CHECKS:

TERRITORIALS, POST TRADERS AND ALASKA

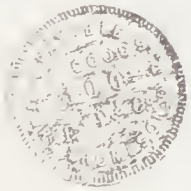

I'm a serious collector of Territorial tokens from Wyoming (W.T.), the Dakotas (D.T.), Montana (M.T.), Arizona (A.T.), Washington (W.T.) and most other Territorials ... except for Oklahoma. I will pay $200.00 and up for ANY Territorial token and UP TO $1,000 for the rarest of the rare.

Also wanted: Post Traders, Saloon tokens (including saloon "mavericks" ... send 'em on ... I'll pay good money for saloon mavericks), early classic style military tokens, and rare Alaska tokens - particularly the gold nugget tokens. I'm quite willing and able to pay TOP market price. Contact me.

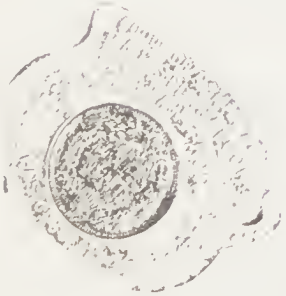

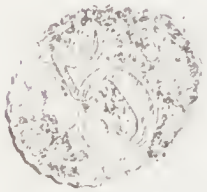

I also avidly collect mavericks and will pay good prices for your accumulations of nice old mavericks ... one or hundreds of 'em. I'm not afraid to pay $5, $10 or much more for a maverick that has a nice style and appeals to me.

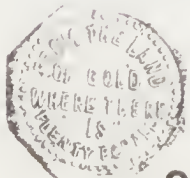

Note: I will also trade to obtain good tokens for those few of you that don't place any value on cash money.

WANTED A Tune for a Token

GOOD FOR A TUNE TOKENS WANTED - - - - - -

I AM AN AVID COLLECTOR OF NICKEL-SIZE, PRE 1920 TOKENS FROM ANYWHERE IN THE UNITED STATES, MARKED OR UNMARKED AS TO LOCATION WITH INSCRIPTIONS RELATING TO PIANOS OF MUSIC, SUCH AS "GOOD FOR A TUNE" FOR THE PIANO OR SOMETHING SIMILAR. I DESCRIBED MANY VARIETIES IN MY "A TUNE FOR A TOKEN" MONOGRAPH PUBLISHED SIX YEARS AGO. I CAN PARTICULARLY USE ANY ITEMS NOT DESCRIBED IN THIS REFERENCE (MANY VARIETIES HAVE COME TO LIGHT SINCE THEN).

SEND WHAT YOU CAN TOGETHER WITH THE PRICE DESIRED!!!!

ALSO WANT: *

NEW HAMPSHIRE

FOR MY COLLECTION: I DESIRE TO PURCHASE ANY AND ALL PRE-1920 TOKENS RELATING TO NEW HAMPSHIRE. I AM ALSO INTERESTED IN MEDALS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE, OBSOLETE PAPER MONEY FROM THE STATE, AND OTHER NUMISMATIC MATERIAL. MY COLLECTION OF THESE IS JUST BEGINNING, SO WHATEVER YOU SEND, I PROBABLY WILL BE ABLE TO USE IT! UNFORTUNATELY, I HAVE NOT PURCHASED A TRADING STOCK OF TOKENS, SO I WOULD PREFER IF YOU COULD PRICE WHAT YOU HAVE WHEN YOU OFFER IT TO ME.

THANKS FOR YOUR INTEREST. I LOOK FORWARD TO HEARING FROM YOU BY MAIL!!!!!

EXONUMIA SYMBOLISM & CLASSIFICATION

by L. B. Fauver

- Provides a wealth of new information on the many key symbols and legends which appear on American exonumia of the Hard Times, Compromise, and Civil War periods, as well as on Kettle Pieces.

- Introduces a comprehensive system of classification of exonumia encompassing store cards, medium of exchange issues, counters, and political pieces -- including presidential campaign issues.

- Examines political exonumia as historical documents worthy of study not only by serious collectors, but also by historians.

- Is lavishly illustrated with over 850 individual, interspersed, high resolution photographs. Approximately 30% are devoted to Kettle Pieces, 20% to Hard Times Tokens, 25% to Compromise Pieces, and 25% to Civil War Tokens.

- Describes in detail within their historical context over 350 different varieties of tokens struck by the Kettle die sinking firm of Birmingham, England. These pieces include the A. W. Hardie, W. H. Schoonmaker, Tredwell Kissam, C & I D Wolfe, and Wolfe Spies & Clark cards of New York City, and the Horace Porter card of Boston; DeWitt AJACK 1824 - 1 and 2; and the many varieties of popular counters dated 1803 which closely resemble U.S. quarter eagle and half eagle gold coins.

- Includes a rarity estimate for each variety of Kettle Piece in the text, and an up-to-date retail price guide to Kettle Pieces as an insert.

- Contains 368 pages of coated, low gloss, durable paper; is stitch bound with hard cover; and includes a comprehensive index.

- Represents a very basic reference work for your library and for display on your coffee table. Purchase this book and discover the best way to show your non-collector friends what exonumia is all about.

Dear Bill: I am also enclosing my $5.00 assessment and my 1983 dues in the amount of $15.00. I have a comment to make on the assessment. I believe that the increase in production costs, etc., should be passed on to the advertisers, such as myself, as this increase is caused by the increase in articles. If you are going to increase dues, then increase the advertising rates at an equal percentage - - at least 50%. We just increased the A.V.A. dues by 33% at our Boston Convention.

THIS HAS BEEN ONE BUSY MONTH!!!

IF YOUR DUES ARE PAID UP FOR THE YEAR OF 198? YOUR NEW MEMBERSHIP CARDS ARE ENCLOSED.

ALSO, HAVE ENCLOSED THE BALANCE OF THE MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION CARDS FOR THOSE MEMBERS WHO ARE NOT DUE FOR RENEWAL YET (BUT YOU CAN RENEW EARLY) SO THAT WE CAN GET THE INFORMATION NEEDED FOR THE UPCOMING MEMBERSHIP LIST. PLEASE GET THESE CARDS BACK TO US AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. THE NEW MEMBERSHIP LIST IS GOING TO BE A RESEARCH AND WILL TAKE LOADS OF TIME. THOSE WHO DON'T GET THEIR CARDS BACK IN TIME WILL MISS THE MEMBERSHIP LIST!!!!

ALSO, SOME MEMBERS SENT BACK THEIR MEMBERSHIP CARDS AND DID NOT SEND THEIR DUES. IF YOUR COPY IS MARKED IN RED "THIS IS YOUR LAST ISSUE" THEN YOU EITHER FORGOT TO SEND A CHECK, OR YOU FAILED TO GET YOUR MEMBERSHIP CARD AND CHECK TO US.

AND, THE LAST ISSUE OF METCA CAME OUT. BEING A CHARTER MEMBER IT WAS LIKE THE LOSS OF AN OLD FRIEND. WELL, BARY CAN GET SOME REST NOW. THE NICE WRITE-UP THAT BARY PUT IN THE LAST ISSUE CAUSED A BIG SPURT IN OUR MEMBERSHIP AS YOU WILL NOTE FROM THE NEW MEMBERS - - THANKS BARY! GET A GOOD REST!

WE HAVE BEEN GETTING MANY, MANY LETTERS STATING THAT WE SHOULD RAISE THE ADVERTISING RATES, AND WE SHOULD. WE DO NOT WANT ANYMORE FINANCIAL PROBLEMS. WE DO NOT WANT TO HAVE TO COME BACK TO THE MEMBERS AGAIN FOR SEVERAL YEARS. WITH THE SLIGHT INCREASE IN ADVERTISING RATES IT WILL ASSURE THAT ATCO CAN RUN ON WITHOUT PROBLEMS. ALSO WE CAN DO MORE IN THE WAY OF MEMBERSHIP CARDS, MEMBERSHIP LIST (MORE OFTEN) AND EVEN HAVE A FEW LARGER ISSUES.

WHICH REMINDS ME THAT THIS ISSUE GOT AWAY FROM ME AGAIN. TAMS AND OTHERS HOLLER ABOUT NOT HAVE ARTICLES - - - -WE HAVE ARTICLES!!! WE HAVE SOME GOOD WRITERS OUT THERE!!!! KEEP THEM COMING.

CAN'T THINK OF ANYTHING MORE AT THIS TIME. I USUALLY THINK OF THINGS AFTER THE ISSUE HAS BEEN MAILED.

FREE ADS FOR ALL MEMBERS (ADS MUST BE CHANGED EACH MONTH - NO CONTINUAL ADS)...40 WORDS

DEADLINE FOR ALL ADS IS THE 20TH OF EACH MONTH. WE GO TO THE PRINTERS ON THAT DATE! ATCO IS KEPT UP TO DATE EACH DAY AND WHEN THE 20TH COMES WE ARE READY FOR THE PRINTERS.

ARTICLES ARE ENCOURAGED. THERE ARE SOME MEMBERS WITH SOME MIGHTY INTERESTING TOKENS TO WRITE ABOUT. DO IT!!! WE WILL TYPE FOR YOU IF YOU DO NOT TYPE, BUT GET THE ARTICLES TO US!!!!! WE DO NOT WANT LONG ARTICLES UNLESS YOU DO NOT MIND US PUBLISHING IN A SERIES. LONG ARTICLES TAKE AWAY FROM OTHER WRITERS.

ALSO, WE DO NOT WANT BIG AUCTIONS IN THE PAGES OF ATCO. AGAIN, THEY TAKE AWAY FROM THE SMALL ADVERTISERS. IF YOU HAVE A BIG AUCTION TO RUN WE WILL RUN IT AS A SEPARATE SECTION, APART FROM ATCO, BUT INCLUDED IN ATCO's MAILING OF MONTHLY ISSUES.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Bill: You do a great job and beleive me its mostly a thankless job. And, with most organizations its people like yourself that makes it happen. When something happens to that person for any reason, the organization goes down the tube. Keep up the good work! Enclosed is $5.00 for assessment and $15.00 for next years dues.

Don't laugh, but the only time I ever read ATCO is in bed and a page or two at a time before I go to sleep.

What ATCO charges for a full page and half page, etc., is to cheap. It should be at least double that. Only my opinion, but true.

Bob Swain - - -

Editor's note: Thanks, Bob, but you are only one of many who take ATCO to bed with them. Even I do that as I'm generally to busy to read the ads that come in unless I type them. When ATCO is published I take it to bed with me and read until I'm ready for sleep.

Also, the advertising rates are going up and they are newly published in this issue. The additional rate will allow us to have a better membership list, membership cards and some other little things that are necessary for a first rate publication/organization.

DEAR BILL - - - - - MY PET PEEVE!

Whenever I find it necessary I write to a person who seems qualified to answer my query and to whom I always include a stamp for return postage. To me, this is a thoughtful gesture because anyone requesting information of another should be willing to pay the postage both ways, but, when the party you write to does not even bother to answer a question that is most important to me (or any other writer) and then keeps the stamp for his own personal use is something hard to understand.

I don't know what to do about it other than to let other collectors know that this does happen. To me it is close to being "taken".

Let's hope that some of these people right their wrongs.

BOB SINGER - - -

RESIGNATION:

Dear Bill: I find myself in a bind and will not be able to continue as Chairperson of the Pakes and Fantasy Panel. I will continue to help individual collectors as I can and have time to do so.

Lew Egnew

Editor's Note. Lew has talked to me about this before and I can understand his reasons for not being able to continue. Darn! But, we sure do appreciate anything that you do Lew.

Dear Bill: I hope that the December issue of ATCO is an indication of things to come. I refer to the pages of material that served no other purpose than to raise hackles and postage. I have no objection to people expressing their opinions as long as it is constructive, but complaining about others doing the same thing that they do themselves does not fall in that category. The job you are doing is a thankless one at best, and I only have to look at the 71 cents postage to remind me that it is getting expensive. I am also aware of the other costs. So I commend anyone who takes on the job and realize that mistakes can be made. Good Luck!

Al Nystrom

(Thanks Al - I think Bary put it well in the last MEMCA as to expense -)

Dear Bill:

This letter covers several topics:

First, concerning the illustration on Page 12 of your December issue, the Texas saloon mirror described by Alan Weinberg, the image pictured is a pretty girl done by Harrison Fisher who at the time was America's most highly paid illustrator (earning $50,000 to $75,000 per year -- and this was before income taxes!). The piece was produced by Brown & Bigelow, of St. Paul, Minnesota, a firm which at the time produced mirrors, calendars, and other advertising novelties. The firm, by the way, is very much in business today, although, unfortunately, it has no records of the production of this and related early mirrors.

Incidentally, Seth Huntington, an official of Brown & Bigelow and a person with whom I have corresponded on several occasions, is numismatically known for preparing the design for the 1776-1976 bicentennial U.S. half dollar.

This particular Harrison Fisher image was one that was reproduced on advertising pieces distributed by many different firms all over America. Each year Brown & Bigelow would issue a catalogue of novelties. Salesmen called on customers in different areas, and orders were taken from the catalogue. So, it is perfectly reasonable to expect that while no one else in Teague, Texas issued an advertising mirror with this illustration, other Texas establishments may have done so. Generally, customers of Brown & Bigelow were promised exclusivity for a period of one year after placing their orders. In that way no two merchants from the same town would issue like-appearing calendars, advertising pieces, or whatever.

Second subject: I would like to correspond with anyone who possesses city directories or business directories of Cincinnati, Ohio; Covington and Newport, Kentucky; Detroit, Michigan, and Chicago, Illinois circa 1900-1915.

Third, thank you for the very beautiful setup of my advertisement on Page 22 of your last issue. It looks very professional and very attractive! As you are illustrating the ad, perhaps next month you can change the illustration slightly so it will look a bit different.

Last item: You may wish to publish this as a news article. I am revising my monograph, "A Tune for a Token," with the thought in mind of producing an updated version. Since 1975, when it was written, I have purchased a number of important collections (including the Lubetkin and Rossa collections) as well as hundreds of individual pieces. I have combined new purchases together with information received and have come up with a listing which will be approximately three times larger than the first one!

Still, more information is needed. I would be pleased to correspond with anyone who has any token not shown in my earlier monograph. In general, I am speaking nickel-size tokens, issued in the United States, with inscriptions such as GOOD FOR ONE TUNE, GOOD FOR ONE PIECE OF MUSIC, GOOD IN THE PIANO, or some similar inscription indicating that at one time it could be traded for music.

Bill, you are doing a wonderful job with your publication.

Sincerely yours,

Q. David Bowers

Dear Bill: Well, I can't resist writing about this month's column by Binky. I sure hope he pays for his space in ATCO, 'cause if not it's a real waste of money & paper. I can take a lot of chauvenistic remarks, but his comment about women drivers is bologna! If he almost hit a lady from behind either (a) he wasn't paying attention to his driving (b) following to close or (c) both of the above. No matter what the reason, the law says he's at fault. If he can't dip snuff and drive at the same time I suggest he give one of them up.

Thank you for letting me air my gripe!

Cindy Grellman

Dear Bill: I really enjoy ATCO and I'm constantly rereading old issues. The Best one yet was the November issue. I love the stories, letters to the editor etc. We need Weinbergs, Bondhuses, Temarantzes, Livingstons and others like them. They add the spice and charisma to the hobby.

While I am yet a novice on tokens, I am a "pro" on guns and bottles. The problems mentioned in ATCO about fakes, alterations, new made to look old, etc., is old hat. However, these problems soon work themselves out. You soon learn who to deal with and that "honesty still pays".

Enclosed is my check for $25.00 instead of $15.00. I love the big issues and I hope others feel the same.

THANKS, CLEM ZAMBON - ATCO #201

Editor's Note: Clem is an expert on old guns and old bottles. And, I agree with him that we need the writers that we have and others. I know that poor Alan Weinberg takes a beating from time to time - - but, just between you and me I think he likes it.

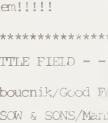

There are some good articles on tokens just waiting to be written by some of you members so let's see them!!!!!

Dear Bill:

I had a super Christmas and I hope you and all our friends had one twice as good. One evening I was at a Truck Stop and bumped into Santa. Now, I have known Mr. Claus for several years and we got to "shooting the bull" and as usual the conversation led to tokens. He told me he had received several letters from token collectors (that may explain why my mail fell off in December). He told me a man by the name of Weinberg had asked for an A.T. token with the "Star of David" on it. Santa said Alan was about a year late because Hamilton got the last one he had last Christmas.

He got a letter from Ted Tibbets and he wanted some Arizona tokens he could call his own. Santa said the next day he heard from Temarantz who told him to disregard Tibbet's letter. Ray M. wanted a little tiny pillow for the ATCO he sleeps with and Al just wrote to complain. Ford Knight and Jim Ruhland each wanted a correspondence course in penmanship and Travis Roberts wanted any N.M. token, even Gallup. Dick Worthington wanted some attributions and Zumwalt wanted a faster mail delivery.

Santa went on and on and I can't remember all he told me - wish I had taken notes. We sat and drank Hot Tea while we were waiting on our units to be serviced (my truck and his sled). He told me J. L. wanted the book "How To Win Friends", so he could share it with one of his friends in Nebraska. Santa didn't tell me who the Nebraska collector was. I told him to be especially good to you because you had been the collectors salvation in 1982 and you had worked so hard on ATCO.

Bill, after talking to Santa I came to the conclusion that all token collectors (even tho sometimes they seem tough to deal with) have big hearts around Christmas. We should keep on looking for the good in everyone no matter how hard it is to find.

Keep On Trucking,

Binky

A CUTE STORY

By FORD KNIGHT

My wife and I had driven over to Lewiston, Montana to help our only grandson celebrate his fifth birthday. One of the things my grandson and I always wanted to do was to just take a little shopping spree. On this particular trip - old grandpa was asking shop owners about trade tokens. We finally found a little box of tokens and grandson was curious as to what they were. When I told him what they were he promptly left to hunt other areas of the shop. Upon returning home his mother (our dauther) asked him if he and grandpa had fun shopping. His reply,"Yep!" and with some disgust, he said "Grandpa bought a bunch of quarters that he can't spend," which was rather implying that I had done a stupid thing!

WYOMING POST AND INDIAN TRADER TOKENS By Lee Bowker, ATCO #111

I have been granted permission to reprint the following article by the "Wyoming State Historical Department". It originally appeared in, "The Annals of Wyoming, Vol. 27, No. 2, October, 1955". It was written by J. K. Moore, Jr., who was the son of the Post Trader by that same name, James Kerr Moore. James, Jr., was 79 years old in 1955 at the time of this issue.

The Wyoming state museum in Cheyenne has several of these tokens in their vault and after examining them, all I have to say is that there are none that Curto does not list in his books. The only thing that I noticed which Mr. Curto did not mention, is that #C80 in his second volume does not have the ornaments on the obverse that C10-100V has. At least that was my observation of the tokens that I examined.

POST TRADER AND INDIAN

TRADER TOKENS

By

J. K. Moore, Jr.

Transcript from a speech at a meeting of the Fremont County Chapter of the Wyoming State Historical Society held in the High School Library in Riverton (Wyoming), April 17th, 1955.

The assignment to speak at this meeting upon the subject of Indian trader tokens led me to prepare an exhibit of the tokens in order that it could be passed around so everyone could see both sides of the pieces at a glance, the names and localities being in one row, and the values in the other.

In value they run from $1.00, 50¢, 25¢ to 5¢. A 12½¢ piece, called a "bit", also is included, but probably was not much used, as there were not many such pieces left in the collection I recovered.

The two S.E. Ward, Fort Laramie, Dakota Territory, pieces "good for trade in sutlers goods" are no doubt the oldest in this collection. They are made of a different metal and by a stamping process different from the others, with no inscription on the reverse side. They were in circulation before the Territory of Wyoming was set aside out of Dakota Territory on July 25th, 1868.

The W. A. Carter, Fort Bridger, and J. K. Moore, Camp Brown, pieces were made of brass and were cut out and stamped by hand with heavy steel dies, some of which I have in my collection. W. A. Carter probably introduced the use of tokens in his business some time before 1860's. (Judge W. A. Carter came to Ft. Bridger with the Army in 1857 as a Sutler). I wrote a curator of the Fort Bridger Museum for information about them, and, strange to relate, the answer was that there was not a single token in the museum and no knowledge of them. Immediately, I sent them two complete sets to place on display.

As the W. A. Carter tokens and those used by my father, J. K. Moore, Sr., are almost identical in type. I think Father got the idea of using them from having handled them in Judge Carter's store, as he had clerked in the Fort Bridger store for a number of years.

Indian Traders were commissioned by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs upon application through the Indian Agents at local Agencies and were required to furnish bond in the sum of $10,000, renewable annually.

Post Traders were appointed by military authority and held their position indefinitely, without bond.

Father was commissioned to accompany the soldiers when they were ordered from Fort

Bridger in 1869 to proceed to the Popoagie Valley to establish Camp Brown (now the site of Lander, Wyoming) on June 28th, 1869.

In May, 1871, new Camp Brown, the present site of Fort Washakie, was determined upon as affording greater facilities for carrying out the orders from Headquarters. The site was selected at the junction of the North Fork and South Fork of Little Wind River, and Captain R. A. Torrey, Company A, 13th Infantry. He was instructed to use the troops of his command for the protection of the officers and employees of the Shoshone and Bannock Agency and as a safeguard to the Indians of said Agency against wandering and hostile tribes.

Accordingly on the 26th of June, 1871, site of the camp was changed and the work of dismantling the old Post of its serviceable lumber and transporting it to the new site was begun.

The Shoshone and Bannock Agency had previously been located and established on the west bank of Trout Creek about a mile and a half south of the Camp Brown site.

The name,Camp Brown, was carried through December, 1878, when, by Government Order, the name was changed to Fort Washakie in honor of Chief Washakie of the Shoshones.

The J. K. Moore-Camp Brown tokens were probably made and put into use soon after the Camp Brown move, and the 25¢ and 50¢ Fort Washakie pieces were introduced after 1878 when the name of the post was changed.

To us, behind the counter, and I was one of the clerks before the use of the tokens was discontinued, they were known as "BRASS CHECKS". The Shoshones called them "Oha-boo-u-way" (Yellow money) and the Arapahoe name was "Ne-ha-yah - bich-thay" also meaning yellow money. The tokens were kept in a separate till made especially for them.

The purpose of their use was principally to pay the Indians in tokens for whatever they offered for sale, as a means of barter or exchange for merchandise in the store. And when an Indian asked for and was granted credit, tokens were issued and charged against the account as one item. This did away with having to itemize the purchases on their accounts. It was a great help in waiting upon the trade as the Indians were slow in picking out one item after another in trading. They prferred to buy one thing at a time pay for it and receive their change. Then they would buy the next item, put the money down, receive the change, if any and proceed in this manner until they had finished trading. Because the Indians, as a rule, were slow in making up their minds about what they wanted to buy, it was quite satisfactory to them to trade with "Yellow money" and very easy for a clerk to wait upon several customers at a time and keep them all in good humor.

The tokens were also used to pay for services rendered. The Indians were sometimes hired and paid in tokens to saw logs from the mountain into stove lengths and to perform various other jobs for the store and home, and when they hauled freight for the store they were paid in tokens. They were paid frequently for the recovery of lost live stock and sometimes were suspected of having had something to do with aiding the stock to stray.

After the Shoshones had been moved to their Reservation in the Wind River country from their old home on the Green River, near Fort Bridger, and until the buffalo herds had about disappeared in the early 1880's, the tribe's principal source of income and living was derived from the meat of wild game they consumed and sale of robes and pelts and goods they made of buckskin to sell.

Meat of the wild animals was the chief and imprtant food, and none of it was wasted, as they sun dried, to take home with them every morsel they could not consume while it was fresh. The men did the hunting and killing and the squaws took care of the meat and dressing of hides in their camps.

Brains and liver from the slaughtered animals were saved and used for tanning. Hides they tanned to sell were not smoked. Buckskins used for making gloves and moccasins, and for other uses for themselves were smoked after being tanned, the smoking process making the buckskins more durable for the use they had for it.

The hunting area for the INdians was not confined to their reservation. By the Treaty of 1868 the Skoshones were guaranteed the unrestricted right to hunt and fish whenever and wherever they pleased. The Shoshones had a big country in which they hunted, extending East into the Big Horns, North into the Absarokas, South into the Sweetwater country, and West along the Wind River Range. They moved into the different sections in groups during the hunting season, often spending many weeks on the hunt.

Before leaving they would ask for credit for supplies, agreeing to bring their hides to Father for sale upon their return. He would extend credit in tokens for their needs which included, principally, Flour, coffee, salt, baking powder, dry salt bacon, rice, dried beans, yellow laundry soap, matches, tobacco, candles, calico for shirts and dresses, canvas for tee-pees, ammunition, powder and lead, and other staple articles. The Indians did some trapping, and, in addition to the buffalo robes brought in after the hunt ended, were buckskins and the pelts of a number of fur bearing animals.

When presented for sale the robes, buckskins and pelts were carefully graded and paid for in tokens according to market prices, condition of fur, and the degree of care in skinning the animals and fleshing the hides.

There were big times for many days around the store and in the camps when hunting parties returned and were paid for the things they brought home to sell.

In the back yard at the store were two baling presses—one for buffalo robes and the other, a smaller one, for buckskins. The hides were pressed compactly in bales about four feet square weighing from 300 to 400 pounds each. The bales were bound with quarter inch rope and were covered with burlap before being shipped. The principal fur markets were located in Boston, New York and St. Louis.

Quoting from a copy of a letter to a fur dealer in Boston under date of March 26th, 1878 requesting quotations on furs, Father wrote: "It is my belief now that I will have no less than 1,000 buffalo robes, and more likely 2,000 for shipment."

The Indians not only sold buffalo robes, buckskins, and furs of all kinds, but many of the things they made, such as buckskin gloves, moccasins, and beaded trinkets of all kinds. When they needed something from the store for home use they would sell some of their handiwork for which they were paid in tokens.

If they had a considerable amount to spend, trading was in the nature of a family affair and they would often spend half a day or more at it.

During the days of the buffalo, the trade was principally with the Shoshones, as the Arapahoes were not placed on the eastern, or lower part, of the Shoshone Reservation until 1878, at which time the buffalo herds were dwindling in number.

The life of the brass tokens was about twenty years and during the time they were in their curculation on the reservation probably about equaled the amount of currency and silver that reached the Indians.

At Monte, their "hand game", and other games of their own making the Indians were inveterate gamblers. The Indian Office made an attempt to stop this by an order that the use of tokens in traders' stores be discontinued. So, in 1894 the tokens were withdrawn from circulation, and I became the custodian of them. By this time the Indians had fenced some land which had been put under irrigation for them, had been issued farming implements, wagons, harness, etc., and had learned to grow some hay and grain which they sold to the Quartermaster at the Fort for feed for the Government horses and mules. They also hauled frieght from Rawlins which was then the nearest railroad point.

Since the establishment of the Agency, the Indians had been receiving annuities every year, and rations once a week, until recent years. All this made for much weight to be hauled from the railroad in the course of a year, and the Indians were given the preference of hauling as much of it as they were capable, as a means of giving them employment and teaching them the advantage of being self supporting.

In closing I would like to dwell briefly upon the subject of the difference in the lives of the long haired, often hatless, blanket wearing Indians of the times of which I write and the generation of today.

Confined to the boundaries of their reservation as they were with permission to leave granted only by the Indian Agent in charge, they were happy and contented, in their tee-pees and tents, to camp by the side of some mountain stream where they herded their little bands of ponies nearby and drove them to water every day.

After the days of the buffalo they were restricted from hunting big game beyond the boundaries of their reservations, so they killed rabbits, prairie dogs and sage chickens which were printiful, and fished the streams. They lived simply on the rations they drew at the agency each week, supplementing them with foods of their choice and some clothing from the stores.

The men wore blankets, leggings and moccasins and the squaws were dressed in calicoes and ginghams, covered by shawls they bought in the stores, with a silk handkerchief for a head covering. The children got along without much clothing.

Their diversion was mostly hunting near home, fishing, dancing and gambling, and as a whole they were contented, happy, and satisfied with life.

Today, located on allotments, scattered over their reservation: in cabins and modern homes, many of them with electricty and gas installed for modern appliances; driving high powered automobiles and trucks over good roads instead of horses; farming with power machinery; raising live stock instead of depending upon the hunt, the Indians are living a life entirely different from the lives of their immediate ancestors.

I mention these matters to show the course ofthe Indians as I have seen it, from the days of the buffaloes and trader's tokens to the ways of their white brothers.

The day of the American Plains blanket Indian is past, and the days of the sutlers and Indian Trader tokens are a memory cherished by only a few survivors of their time.

OTHER CATALOGERS I HAVE HEARD FROM:

ARKANSAS TOKENS

I wish to thank many collectors around the country for their rubbings, etc. that have brought the total number of known Arkansas tokens to almost 2,000. Not many as compared to some states, but a real nice start - - - KEEP THEM COMING!!!

I will try and buy or trade for any Arkansas tokens that I don't have. Have quite a few traders from some states and a little bit of money, so offers of any Arkansas items will be appreciated.

UTAH TOKENS

Just a note to say that I am still cataloging UTAH tokens. Had 3,200 in the first book and am working on a second. Have 871 new ones and as soon as I can I'll republish. I need rubbings, descriptions, etc. of any UTAH you may have. Also, will have a printer who won't let me down like the last one did (printing wise).

INDIAN TRADE TOKENS OF NEW MEXICO By Harley W. Rhodehamel

John H. Schlling is planning to do for New Mexico tokens what Hal Birt has done for Arizona tokens, namely publish a catalog of known tokens. In a Check List Of New Mexico Tokens with two supplements (TAMS, August, 1970; August 1973; and May, 1982), Mr. Schilling has listed the New Mexico tokens he has identified to date. These lists make available the information he has accumulated in preparation for this proposed catalog.

In these checklists, unlike in Mr. Birt's publication, tokens used in the Indian Trade are not identified.

I have listed below the tokens I have attributed to New Mexico and the Indian Trade. In time, there will probably be additions and perhaps deletions.

THE TERRITORIAL TAVERN TOKENS OF TUCSON

by John T.Hamilton III

The Territorial Tavern located on one of Tucson's few paved roads is actually a saloon.The proprietors preferred the effete eastern appellation "tavern".

For years the Territorial Tavern has quenched the thirst of those who sought relief from Tucson's blazing heat,choking dust,and bird-sized horseflies with cold beer brewed as far away as Phoenix or El Paso. In addition to beer the Tucson sophisticate can gorge on Slim Jims and jerky and on feast days down a split of Champale.

While there is no historical record of any really famous lawmen bellying up to the bar,I have it on good authority that off-duty Burns and Pinkerton men raised elbows there on more than one occasion.Although not the home of any legendary gunfights historians should note that more than once tire irons have been brandished as a tipsy teamster took umbrage at a deleterious description of his beloved Peterbilt.

The tokens of the Territorial Tavern in my collection have pale olive & irridescent toning in the delicate hues of transmission fluid .They are in excellent condition except for a few insignificant hairlines probably caused by being in the palm of the bartender. While these tokens are not the oldest known tokens of Tucson they are the oldest with the word "territorial" on them.

Some collectors deride Tucson tokens because most experts do not consider Tucson to be a ghost town.I agree with the majority and dismiss those with opposing views as uncharitable cultural and culinary snobs.

These tokens are a "must have"for the serious saloon or territorial collector.Be warned, however,that some petty individuals consumed by jealousy that their cabinets are without these rare and significant tokens have been spreading vicious rumors.One rumor is that an old hermit who used to be a patron of the Territorial Tavern has a large Tupperware container of them buried in an old mine shaft and is craftily feeding them on the market one at a time.Another rumor is that there are restrikes ready to fleece the unwary.Don't be panicked by these rumors there is no truth to them.Those favored few who are so lucky to have these rare mementos of the old West can rest assured that their investment is safe.

Lest I be deluged by other collectors desperate to obtain a specimen- please do not make inquires of me for (alas!) I have no duplicates and would not think of selling them.

TRADE AND ADVERTISING MIRRORS OF ARIZONA

by JOHN A. STAGGS #110

Snow was gently falling that Christmas Eve of 1877.[1] The place was in the rugged and isolated Pinal Mountains 90 miles east of present day Phoenix. It had been snowing all day in fact, and the few crude wagon roads and trails leading into the new mining camp of Globe City were even more impassable than usual.

The night was to be the second Christmas celebrated by the few hardy souls of Globe City since the first prospectors opened up the pioneer district in the mid 1870's.[2]

As Christmas Eve was fast approaching, several public spirited citizens expressed the urgent need of a Christmas Party for the children of their fair city. Mr. Jewell took on the task of organizing such an event. Mr. Jewell's first job was to find a building large enough to hold such a party. If any kind of gathering inside was to be considered, it almost had to be in the Knox and McNelly Saloon; it be ing the only substantial building of any size in the camp. Permission for use of the saloon was heartily granted by Messr's Flex Knok and Bill McNelly and preparation got under way on the morning of the 24th.

Mrs. Ross and Miss Kennedy volunteered to secure trimmings and somehow come up with small gifts for the children. It wasn't an easy assignment to fulfill, since these strong, adventerous pioneers came to the new district with lots of spirit and hope, but little else. Pocket knives for the boys and brightly colored ribbons for the girls were soon settled on as gifts. Next, the saloon had to be prepared. The bar had to be disguised somehow. After all, the saloon must be made more suitable for it's coming pious function. Donated muslin sheets were secured over the shelves of liquors and the bar.[3] Chairs, benches, and tables were moved up against the walls to make room for the ceiling high Pine tree brought down from the rugged Pinals south of town. Decorating ornaments, of course, were unheard of in such a rough little mining camp.

Ingenuity took over, and soon the tree took on a festive look with strings of pop-corn and bright ribbons interwoven in and around the inner branches. Small candles were strategically placed on the outer branches. The tree looked great, however, one of the ladies must have thought there was something missing. One of the decorating committee came up with the idea of suspending trade mirrors behind the candles, for in the Clara T. Woody s book "Globe, Arizona", it is mentioned; 'Little trade mirrors were hung from the branches, reflecting the light of candles." Messr's Knok and McNelly more than likely generously provided the trade mirrors for the occasion.

Where are all those trade mirrors now? Undoubtedly, the trade mirror was in common use in early Arizona towns as early as 1877. There has been only one trade mirror as such that has made it to a collection; "The Antlers", Douglas, Arizona.

Since quality was not the prime objective, these small round mirrors made by novelty companies rarely survived more than just a few years.

The advertising mirror must have been more popular as there are at least four different known mirrors in collections. The most recent find being from Prescott, Arizona. "Rosary Chocolates, Just a little better, compliments of Heil's Drug Store, opposite Masonic Temple, Prescott, Ariz."

Fredrick J. Heil, Jr. opened a small perscription drug store on the first floor in the North Store Room of the Bashford Building at 114 N. Cortez, Prescott, Arizona. This writer has not been able to find much information on Mr. Heil. However, several records indicate he opened his store in 1911 and sold it to a Charles Freericks in 1918.

If a large Christmas tree in a tiny, isolated mining camp of Arizona in 1877 was liberally decorated with trade mirrors, it only stands to reason there must have been hundreds of these mirrors distributed in communites all over Arizona. Trade and advertising mirrors were probably used well into the present century.

If this article is passed on to collectors and non-collectors as well, mirrors may come poping out of attics, old trunks and the such, there might even be a "good for one drink, Knox and McNelly Saloon, Globe, A.T. Wow! What a nice find that would be!

1 "Gila Centennials 1976, Globe, Arizona 100 yrs."

2 The "Silver Belt" had not arrived in time to record the first Christmas in Globe City of 1876 - "Globe, Arizona" by Clara T. Woody & Milton L. Schwartz.

3 The beautiful solid mahogony back bar had not yet been installed. "Globe, Arizona" by Clara T. Woody & Milton L. Schwartz.

EDITOR'S NOTE: HAVE YOU NOTICED THE NUMBER OF ARTICLES IN THIS ISSUE BY THE ARIZONA COLLECTORS???? MAKE SOME OF YOU OTHER STATES A LITTLE ASHAMED? IF THEY CAN DO IT SO CAN SOME OF YOU OTHER STATES!!! I'D LIKE TO SEE MORE STATE "TOWN RARITY" LISTS IN THE ATCO ISSUES. HOW ABOUT IT????

BISBEE (ARIZONA) BAKERY - BISBEE DEMOCRAT, AUGUST 9, 1888 By Jinks Livingston

There is probably no one man in Bisbee who has taken a deeper interest in its welfare, and been more successful in his business than Mr. A. J. Kohner, proprietor of the Bisbee Bakery . He has been on the Pacific Coast for more than forty years, during which time he has undergone all the privations of the wild west and experienced the aucinations from wealth to poverty but rarely ever failing to have a compataucy of the worldly goods.

He was one of the first men to settle in Bisbee, and has ever since remained one of its faithful citizens. His advertising shows him to be as progressive as he is respected and the Democrat feels honored and proud of the venerable old gentleman and the way he rallied to the Democrats support.

Mr. Kohner was born in Luxemburg and became a citizen in 1866 at Carson City, Nevada. Kohner and his Bisbee Bakery vanished sometime before 1897 but he left behind this token. An aluminum piece, 31mm, made by the Los Angeles Rubber Stamp Co.

WHERE IN THE HECK IS MONKEY'S NEST, ILLINOIS? By Phil Klabel

Many years ago, Tom Osmondson built a five-room house in Mark east of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul tracks (now Penn-Central). Here he batched with a Norwegian by the name of Eric.

The St. Paul Coal company built a group of company homes west of Division street, mostly German and Scotch. Sensing a need, in 1906, Tom Osmondson opened a one-room saloon in the small front room of his house. In the evening after supper the miners would meet their buddies and gather at the little saloon.

In the course of time, Tom married and had a number of normally active children. On occasion, when it came time to close the saloon, Tom would tell his customers that he had to go home to his monkey's nest. It soon followed that the saloon became referred to as the Monkey's Nest and Tom himself was affectionately called Monkey Tom. In summer you could hear miners calling to each other, "Let's go to Monkey's Nest." Eventually, the area itself began to be referred to as Monkey's Nest and even today this section of Mark on the east side of town north of what formerly was the company houses area and west of Division street to the Penn Central tracks is still known as Monkey's Nest.

Later, when Osmondson discontinued his saloon, he built a home about one block north of his first home and lived there with his family until 1912, when he purchased a piece of land about two miles north of Mark, built another two story home and an ice house which no longer exists. Here he raised a few cows, made ice cream in the summer and cut ice in the winter.

On Sunday, with his horse-drawn buggy, Monkey Tom would go up and down the streets ringing a bell and housewives would come out with dishes into which he scooped the ice cream. You got a soup dish full of ice cream for a dime.

At one time there were seven saloons in Monkey's Nest. Letters mailed to residents and addressed: "Monkey's Nest, Illinois" have been promptly delivered although there really is no such town.

Yes, there are tokens from Monkey's Nest too. See Trade Tokens of Illinois by Vacketta under Mark, Illinois.

WHEN CHEATING PAID - GHENT AND THE FAMOUS SILVER DOLLAR BAR By CAL WOODS

On the surface, Ghent, Minnesota, seems like a quiet little southwestern Minnesota farmer's town. NOT SO ... It has many claims to being unusual and even famous. Ghent is the only town (Population 350) in Minnesota that has a predominently Belgian population. As late as the 1930's the people were 100% of Belgian nationality. It was colonized by Bishop John Ireland in the 1880's and by 1890 its population stood at 100 souls.

It would be difficult to find a cleaner, friendlier, and more helpful people than those of Ghent. Their sense of humor is outstanding. Ghent has always had two or three saloons or taverns and their people properly supported them. But theyhave been addicted to two unusual forms of skill and amusement: Rolle Belle and Bean. Rolle Belle was brought over from Belgium in 1890. Similar to horseshoes, but played with a small, thick wooden wheel. There have always been several active Rolle Belle parlors in downtown Ghent and one of the residents supplements his income by making Bolles which he sells to his neighbors.

But it is Bean that holds the most attention with the Belgian types. Even the neighboring Belgian farmers usually leave the fields at 3:00 PM to play Bean. Bean is a card game similar to pinochle, but involves cheating. The successful cheaters are held in high esteem by the other players Those caught cheating are penalized severly. The best players are the best cheaters. Bars are regularly filled with cheating Bean Players who operate with studied sneakiness.

One of the bars, The Silver Dollar holds an unusual honor. When prohibition ended in December 5, 1932, the new law required that each community decide by voter's referendum if they wanted a place to drink. Within hours of the end of Prohibition, Ghent rounded up all 64 of its qualified voters and held a referendum, which of course passed. The Silver Dollar immediately obtained the first liquor license issued in the State of Minnesota after Prohibition, and the "Giggle Juice" started to flow. The Minnesota press publicized this unique honor.

Another unusual practice of the people of Ghent refers to their singing. They love to sing Gelgian songs in their taverns and bars and they love to sing before they are drunk.

In early August of each year Ghent is host to the Rolle Belle tournaments which are held at the same time as the Belgian-American day, which has been held for the last 30 years. It's really a day of merriment; in 1982 twenty-four people from Belgium attended the affairs.

The Silver Dollar Bar issued a 5¢ token in brass. About ten years ago a small hoard of these tokens turned up which made them plentifull in collectors hands.

A BIT OF SPICE

By Edward Saunders

Tokens have been an ejoyable hobby to me for almost 15 years now and I am never surprised at the variety I find in this hobby. It's got a bit of spice for everyone.

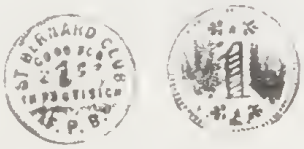

Token collectors come in all shapes and sizes, they range in personalities as much as Alaska does from Arizona. Their interest and occupations are varied, from doctors to janitors...machinists to the man who fills your sack at the grocery store. But one thing they share in is the spice of the hobby.

Some collect saloons, some dairies, some specialize in areas, while others have a wide range of interests. The thing that gives a spark of piszaze to one, may leave the other cold. The challenge is there whether it be a local or historical point of view, or to get all the tokens from a county or state. It seems to be a small impossibility. No one can claim to have them all, for about the time they do, another one or two unknown tokens make their appearance from a car in the basement, or a heap of sand in the desert.

I have many interests in tokens. I love to see a token so unusual that it makes my mind wonder. What was this token used for? When was it used? Where in the world is Boundry Falls? What is a Skigger or a Smile?

Here is a token that perks your interest. It is the Council Star of Grand Forks, North Dakota. Was it a saloon or a newspaper?

Where was St. Bernard Club. The initials are F. P. B. and is good for 1¢... an old token and apparently used for the unusual - 1¢ in Provision. Provision, provisions????? How was it used?

Cigar tokens are often quite unusual and different than many other tokens. Here are a couple with a bit of spice.

What Lodge is the B. of L. F. & E. ????

And, here is something really unusual. Anyone know how it was used?

SHOWN BELOW ARE SOME OF THE ODD AND UNUSUAL TOKENS THAT I HAVE COLLECTED OVER THE YEARS. IT WILL GIVE SOME OF THE NEW COLLECTORS IDEAS (AND OLDER COLLECTORS, TOO) ON SPECIALTIES THAT THEY CAN COLLECT IN TOKENS. I KNOW OF NO OTHER FIELD OF COLLECTING THAT CAN BE AS DIVERSE AND INTERESTING AS TOKEN COLLECTING.

DAIRY TOKENS FROM DEMING, NEW MEXICO RICHARD D. WORTHINGTON #150

In the course of collecting trade tokens in southern New Mexico I obtained three maverick dairy tokens in Deming and Columbus. Shortly thereafter I was contacted by two brothers in Deming that hunt with metal detectors. I purchased from them 21 maverick dairy tokens of nine different types including the three types previously obtained. I learned from them that they were all found at the site of an old dairy in Deming. In checking the various business listings and directories available to me I was able to attribute one of them (W. T. Russell) to Deming (1905-06 NM Business Directory). The attribution of the Mayfield and Wilson tokens to Deming is by virtue of the fact that they were found with the Russell tokens at the old dairy site. They may well be listed in some of the state directories, but I only had access to one directory for the period 1898-1908. I hypothesize that the dairy changed hands several times. Note that the name Star Dairy is shared on some tokens issued by Wilson and Mayfield; yet Mayfield also had the City Dairy. I have included in this listing a description of an earlier Deming dairy token for completeness. Also note that W. T. Russell's name is spelled differently on some of the tokens. Perhaps he had them restruck. All of these tokens are quite rare. I have indicated the number of known examples in parentheses to the right of the measurement.

DUST TO DUST By John C. Loperfido

Beyond being a bit unsightly, dust is generally harmless - - right? WRONG! Dust and other airborne particulates should be of concern to coin and token collectors.

Collectors can be sure of three factors regarding airborne particulates. First of all, it is very likely that all of their material has been contaminated with this pollutant. Secondly, it is practically impossible to completely remove this contamination. And, finally, to the extent that contaminated coins and tokens have been exposed to high humidity, the state has been set for possible degradation.

Airborne particulates are virtually everywhere with the greatest levels typically found in coastal, industrial and urban areas. They come from chemicals, photochemical and mechanical processes; have a variety of shapes and sizes; can be liquid or solid; and have a wide range of compositions and, therefore, reactivity. In spite of all this variability it is still possible to make some generalization about particles and their effects on numismatic material.

Airborne particulates remain aloft for a few days to several weeks depending, primarily, on size. In the normal course of events smaller particles grow by colliding and adhering to one another. Eventually these growing particles attain a size at which they are removed from the air by gravitational settling.

If a large particle settles on a coin, it can be removed relatively easily. However, once exposed to a relative humidity of greater than about 50%, large particles disintegrate into the many small particles of which they are made. It is these very small particles, many of which cannot be seen by the naked eye, that are next to impossible to remove.

Now, just as most particles can take moisture from the air, they can also take other gases. This combination of particles, moisture, dissolved gases, and metallic surface often leads to the formation of a corrosive medium and, ultimately, to the degradation of the metallic surface.

So,--the bottom line question: If all coins and tokens are contaminated with particles from the air and particles can promote degradation, how can numismatic material be protected?

The answer lies in prevention. It is critical that collectors minimize contamination through attention to cleanliness and proper storage. It is especially important that exposure to high humidity be avoided. To the extent that prevention is not practiced, dust to coins could mean coins to dust.

(Editor's note: We will be hearing more from John)

THE SECRET CORNER AUCTION!

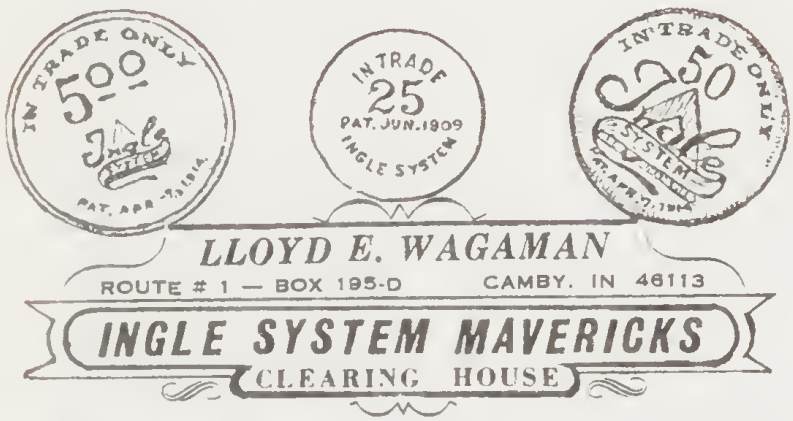

OFTEN A COLLECTOR HAS A RARE TOKEN THAT HE WOULD LIKE TO AUCTION OFF IN SECRET WITHOUT ANYONE KNOWING WHO THE OWNER OF THE TOKEN IS. IF YOU HAVE SUCH A RARE TOKEN, JOHN WILL RUN IT IN THE SECRET CORNER AUCTION. YOU WILL PAY JOHN A 10% AGENT'S FEE PLUS THE COST OF HANDLING IT (Postage, insurance, etc.).

SEND ALL SUCH TOKENS TO JOHN CALHOUN REGISTERED OR INSURED! STRICT CONFIDENCE WILL BE MAINTAINED!!!!

INGLE SYSTEM ATTRIBUTION

By LLOYD E WAGAMAN

When I first started this project of cataloging and attributing the Ingle System tokens, I thought a listing would probably be ready for publication by the end of 1982. I am sorry to say I was wrong in projecting such an early publication. It now appears that it would not be feasable to expect publication before the end of 1983. If you have never been involved in a project such as this, you can not realize the amount of time involved in checking directories, and corresponding with others who check their directories and try to verify attributions from states of which I don't have a directory.

I don't really feel bad about the delay in publication, because the information I presently have is not being witheld from the collecting public. If you have Ingle System tokens, please list them to me. If I know where they are from, I will advise you by return mail. If I do not know where they are from, I will enter the merchants name on a file card, and also enter your name on the same card. When and if I get attribution for any of them I will let you know. Many collectors have already cooperated with me on this project, and I'm sure most of them will verify that the results have been above expectations. If you have or know of Ingle System tokens that are already attributed, I urge you to advise me of them. They very well could be a completely new listing to this attribution project.

In addition to the many attributed pieces that I've been informed of by collectors nation-wide, my wife and I have attributed hundreds by screening each name in several of the 1914 and 1918 Dun & Bradstreet directories. We start with an alphabetical listing of all known unattributed pieces. Then by screening each name in the directory against the unattributed list, we have been able to attribute many pieces. So far we have screened the 1914 Bradstreet for Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky. We hope to check the directories for several more states before attempting to publish the listing. At present the attributions are coming too fast to even think of publishing the listing, until the rate of attributing slows a bit. In the past month we have added over 70 new attributions from the 1914 Bradstreet of Kentucky, and we are now working on the 1918 R G Dun of Kentucky. Our present listing totals over 2500 different merchants, with over 2/3 of them being attributed. With a project such as this it is impossible to succeed without the cooperation of collectors nation-wide. So far the cooperation has been real good, however I have failed to get response from several well known collectors, that I know could help the project immensely. If you have any Ingle System tokens of 1909 or 1914 patent dates (not Ingle-Schierloh), I urge you to list them to me. I do not need a complete description of the token, but just the name, exactly as it appears on the token, along with any other inscription, such as "Grocery", "General Store", or other. Also please give the denomination and if the patent date is 1909 or 1914. You will be doing a favor, not only for me, but for yourself and token collecting in general. I shall look forward to hearing from you.

Please send all information to: Lloyd E Wagaman, Route 1, Box 195-D, Camby,IN 46113

OLD CELLULOID ADVERTISING MIRRORS

I avidly collect old, colorful, "cute" celluloid advertising pocket mirrors. They are usually round or oval and portray children, women, or animals in colorful, nostalgic scenes advertising some product from yesteryear.

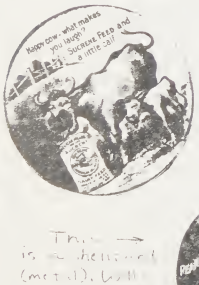

I am willing to pay excellent prices for nice mirrors, free from celluloid splits or "foxing" (brown moisture stains on the paper under the celluloid). Condition of the actual mirror on the back is relatively unimportant - even if it's spotted or cracked - as long as the celluloid picture is fresh and bright.

I will pay $15 to $75 depending upon which mirror you have. Some are common, some rare.

In the case of "Good for Trade" mirrors from Western States (Colorado on West) I'll usually pay $100.00 and more if in decent condition. Will pay $1,000.00 for the first Arizona good-for mirror offered. $300 for a New Mexico good-for mirror, $1,500.00 for an Alaska good-for mirror. These are great rarities. But mirrors from Montana, Nevada, Colorado, Utah, etc. are all worth well over $100 to me. Write or call ... or ship for examination.

WANTED A Tune for a Token

GOOD FOR A TUNE TOKENS WANTED - - - - - -

I AM AN AVID COLLECTOR OF NICKEL-SIZE, PRE 1920 TOKENS FROM ANYWHERE IN THE UNITED STATES, MARKED OR UNMARKED AS TO LOCATION WITH INSCRIPTIONS RELATING TO PIANOS OR MUSIC, SUCH AS "GOOD FOR A TUNE" FOR THE PIANO OR SOMETHING SIMILAR. I DESCRIBED MANY VARIETIES IN MY "A TUNE FOR A TOKEN" MONOGRAPH PUBLISHED SIX YEARS AGO. I CAN PARTICULARLY USE ANY ITEMS NOT DESCRIBED IN THIS REFERENCE (MANY VARIETIES HAVE COME TO LIGHT SINCE THEN).

SEND WHAT YOU CAN TOGETHER WITH THE PRICE DESIRED!!!!

ALSO WANT:

NEW HAMPSHIRE

FOR MY COLLECTION: I DESIRE TO PURCHASE ANY AND ALL PRE-1920 TOKENS RELATING TO NEW HAMPSHIRE. I AM ALSO INTERESTED IN MEDALS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE, OBSOLETE PAPER MONEY FROM THE STATE, AND OTHER NUMISMATIC MATERIAL. MY COLLECTION OF THESE IS JUST BEGINNING, SO WHATEVER YOU SEND, I PROBABLY WILL BE ABLE TO USE IT! UNFORTUNATELY, I HAVE NOT PURCHASED A TRADING STOCK OF TOKENS, SO I WOULD PREFER IF YOU COULD PRICE WHAT YOU HAVE WHEN YOU OFFER IT TO ME.

THANKS FOR YOUR INTEREST. I LOOK FORWARD TO HEARING FROM YOU BY MAIL!!!!!

FROM YOUR EDITOR!!!!!

THIS IS BEING WRITTEN JUST BEFORE GOING TO THE PRINTERS. FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE I'VE BEEN EDITOR I'VE GOTTEN A LITTLE ANGRY AND IT TAKES A LOT FOR ME TO BECOME ANGRY.

I WENT BEYOND THE 60 PAGES THAT I INTEND TO PUBLISH EACH MONTH. I SAID, "OH HECK, IT IS CHRISTMAS, GO BEYOND THE 60 PAGES" AND SO I WENT TO 72 PAGES. WOULDN'T YOU KNOW, I GET 8 MORE PAGES OF ADS. ALL REQUESTING THAT THEY BE PLACED IN THE JANUARY ISSUE.

EVEN I GET SWELLED HEADED FROM THE LETTERS I GET COMMENTING ON ATCO AND I KNOW ATCO IS A GOOD PUBLICATION, BUT YOU CAN OVERDO A GOOD THING. I LIKE THIS JOB AS EDITOR, BUT I AM NOT GOING TO BE WORKED TO DEATH ON SOMETHING THAT I LOVE TO DO. SO, FROM NOW ON WHEN WE REACH THE 60 PAGES (AND AT TIMES TO 64 or 68 PAGES) that is the SHUTOFF DATE!!! PERIOD!!! THE TIME THAT WE GET READY FOR THE PRINTERS IS HECTIC ENOUGH WITHOUT LAST MINUTE "PLEASE PUT IN THE JANUARY ISSUE". ALL SUCH ADS WILL BE HELD OVER UNTIL THE NEXT ISSUE!!!! YOU WILL NOTE THAT WE HAVE ANOTHER BIG 80 PAGE ISSUE. I COULD NOT EVEN FIND A SPACE FOR MY OWN AD. TO GET THAT SPACE I HAD TO TAKE A THREE PAGE (DOUBLE SPACED AD) AND RETYPE IT SO THAT I COULD HAVE ONE PAGE.

SO, COME ON GUYS AND GALS, GET THOSE ADS IN EARLY. DON'T PUSH ME TO THE WALL BY DROPPING STUFF IN AT THE LAST MINUTE. O.K.?

YOUR EDITOR.
